Penny,

Gosh, I'm the first one to sign your yearbook!
anyway, I've really had a great time getting to know you this year. I really had a good time dating you and doing all kinds of things with you! I'm really sorry for what happened at Champaign, &
I admit I really was a complete fool out of myself! It's been along time since we talked to each-other, but I still like you alot (you should know it) &
I hope I see alot more of you this summer! Be good this summer & good luck in the years to come!

all my Love
Brad

Penny,

I'm glad I got to know you because it was funny hearing Brad talk about you. He really must have liked you. Hope you have alot fun this summer playing baseball at Garvey Park.

Dary "71"

Penny,

Enjoyed your company in Biology. Have a great summer.

Love Ya,
Vince

Penny,

I'm really glad
I got to know you -
I hope I see you this summer and next year.
Love
Luann

Penny,

I was really glad
I got to know you
this past semester.
I'll never forget Thalrose and that modern dance show.
Have fun this summer!

Dena

Penny,

It was fun having you in gym especially with Thalrose. She's hallooo
as he was. Bye be good,
& good luck in future

Penny

I am sure glad I got to know you this year boy! Cause I just had all kinds of fun with ya, Talking about Stark, and talking about FINE JAVIS. I am glad you liked my sweater because grey, I would just fallen apart if you hadn't. Or well Hope to see ya at the beach and I'll have to show you the quarries.
Fun! I am sure that next year we'll have alot of fun cause thats the only way it could be. Good luck- Goto church every Sunday and mainly stay the way you are!!!
Much Love
Mike

Penny,
It's really been great knowing you this year, my last, at Central. We had a pretty good time in typing and before homeroom.
I sure do hope that I get to see you some more this summer and in the time after that. Good luck in your future years at J.T.
and in the future love,
Bob Secina

THE "J" OF 1970

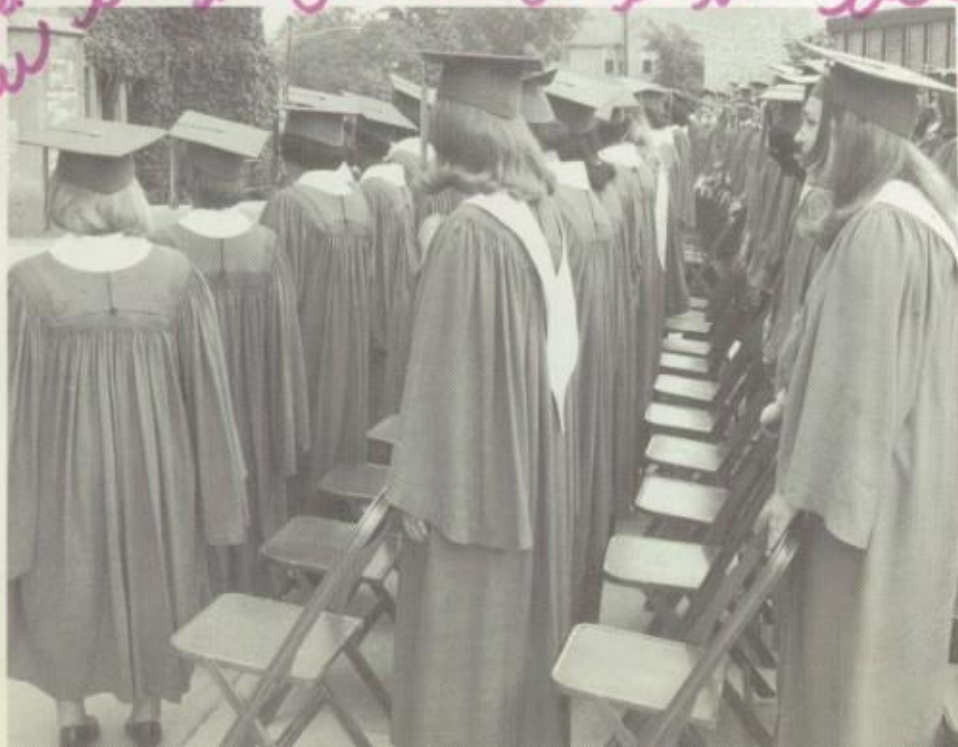

JOLIET CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL
JOLIET, ILLINOIS

Bunny, this has really been a great year. This sophomore year has really been the best year. We had just so much fun, too. Remember all the fun we had down in campaigns with Brad and Ted. We had lots of fun with Gary, too. Remember that party we went to after the Basketball game. (Don't forget that pig skin dance.) We had lots of fun with Mike. Remember my Halloween slumber party with all those kiddies. Don't forget the time we snuck over to Dave's Bantacks and were peeing through the windows. I have no memory like us! Don't forget all the things we did over Easter vacation. See skating at Chaney and going to the shakes. Don't forget the time we all went Bobsledding in Bobbie's car. Remember all those good times you had with Brad. I know you liked Gary all along. You and him make such a great couple. Last summer was really good. I hope this summer will be just as good. I know we will have a good time at the Wild geese and St. Joe. I hope you see much more of Gary this summer. Well, June 14 we're going to Oatona Beach, Florida. That really be great. That gives us something to look forward to. We really had fun this winter and I know we will have more fun.

What lies in between?

Penny,
 well another school year just past and believe me it was alot of fun. We sure had alot of fun this year. Especially the adventures of the "Balloon". Now he really was something, that plastic hippy. It really was alot of fun on Halloween night when we went out and those guys were over and all that. Well I sure was glad when Gary finally did do some things of interest this year. You wouldn't believe how happy I was when he really did because I knew how much you liked him and we used to talk about him. It really was fun having those discussions ~~about~~ Gary. We really had alot of fun last summer going to Lake Geneva and meeting all those guys. But I can't wait until this summer because it'll be alot more fun. (I hope so) I'm really looking forward for this summer because it'll be alot of fun with all of us bruddies.

I hope we'll will be going to it.
this year because
sure was alot of fun last year with Billy Stark and Ben Thompson and all the other guys. And if you do go to Florida this year be sure to send me postcards and we can look at some more Florida slides. You'll probably be meeting some more guys as usual. But next year all of us guys will have to go to either that'll be alot of fun. Maybe you'll have a chance those are were alot of fun. Then there is the goose dance.
cool. And then there were the greasers. We sure was and make fun of them. Maybe this year we could meet some cool. Uh? Guess what?
I just realized how queer that sounds. Good luck with growing...

P.S. We have to wear our pierced earrings.

Penny,
 It has been nice having
 you in my English class. You're a great answer girl. I hope the best for you in the future
 Good luck always I hope to see you next year in one of my classes

Penny,
 It's really been nice knowin' ya + I'm glad we're gonna be in homeroom together for another 2 yrs. I hope I get to see ya this summer.
 I'll be lookin' for ya. Have fun + good luck always.
 Randee
 P.S. Erma was soo (is!)
 Queen!

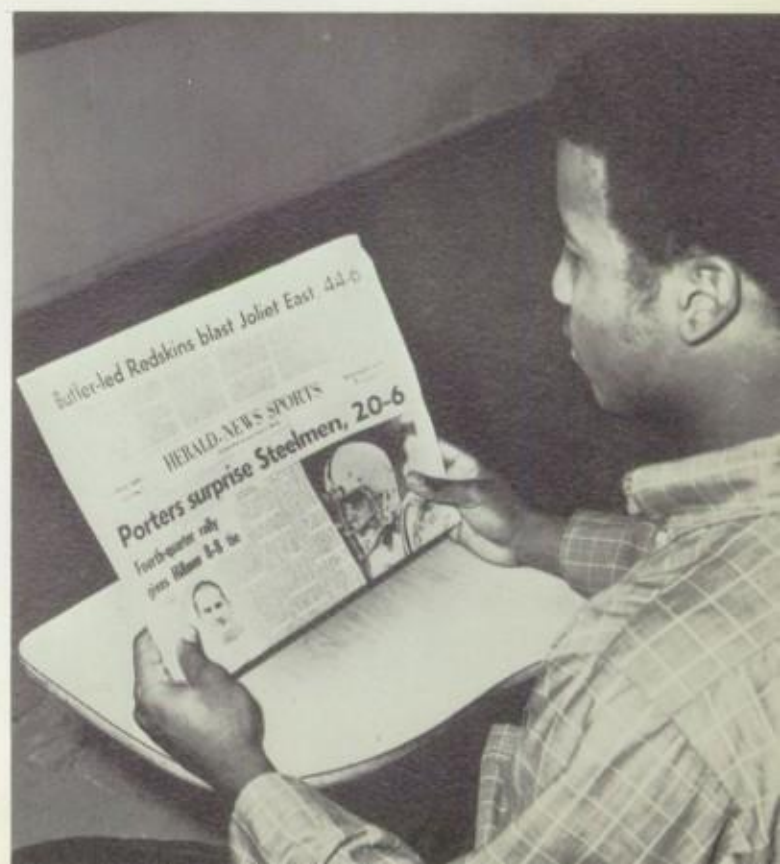

Penny;
 You're very mature as compared with the rest of the sophs, I know. Have fun in high school. You're also about the best looking girl in this school. Best of luck always and keep your head.
 Bob Gasinski

Penny-
 Hi! It's been thoroughly enjoyable having you in my Math class this year + was quite fun too. So I wish you success in your 2 years left at Central and I hope to see your picture there.

Soph. because you're not included. You're not one of those creeps!!!

Genny
 Boy, Penny
 we really had fun this year in homeroom. You are really the funniest girl
 I know! You crack me up.
 The last two years have really went fast, and the next two years will even go faster. Hope we get some classes together next year. Hope I get to see you ~~this~~ summer. And don't lay outside leaving... every day.

Good Luck

Four years of growing up
And learning how Trying to touch
Trying to feel
Showing we need to be needed

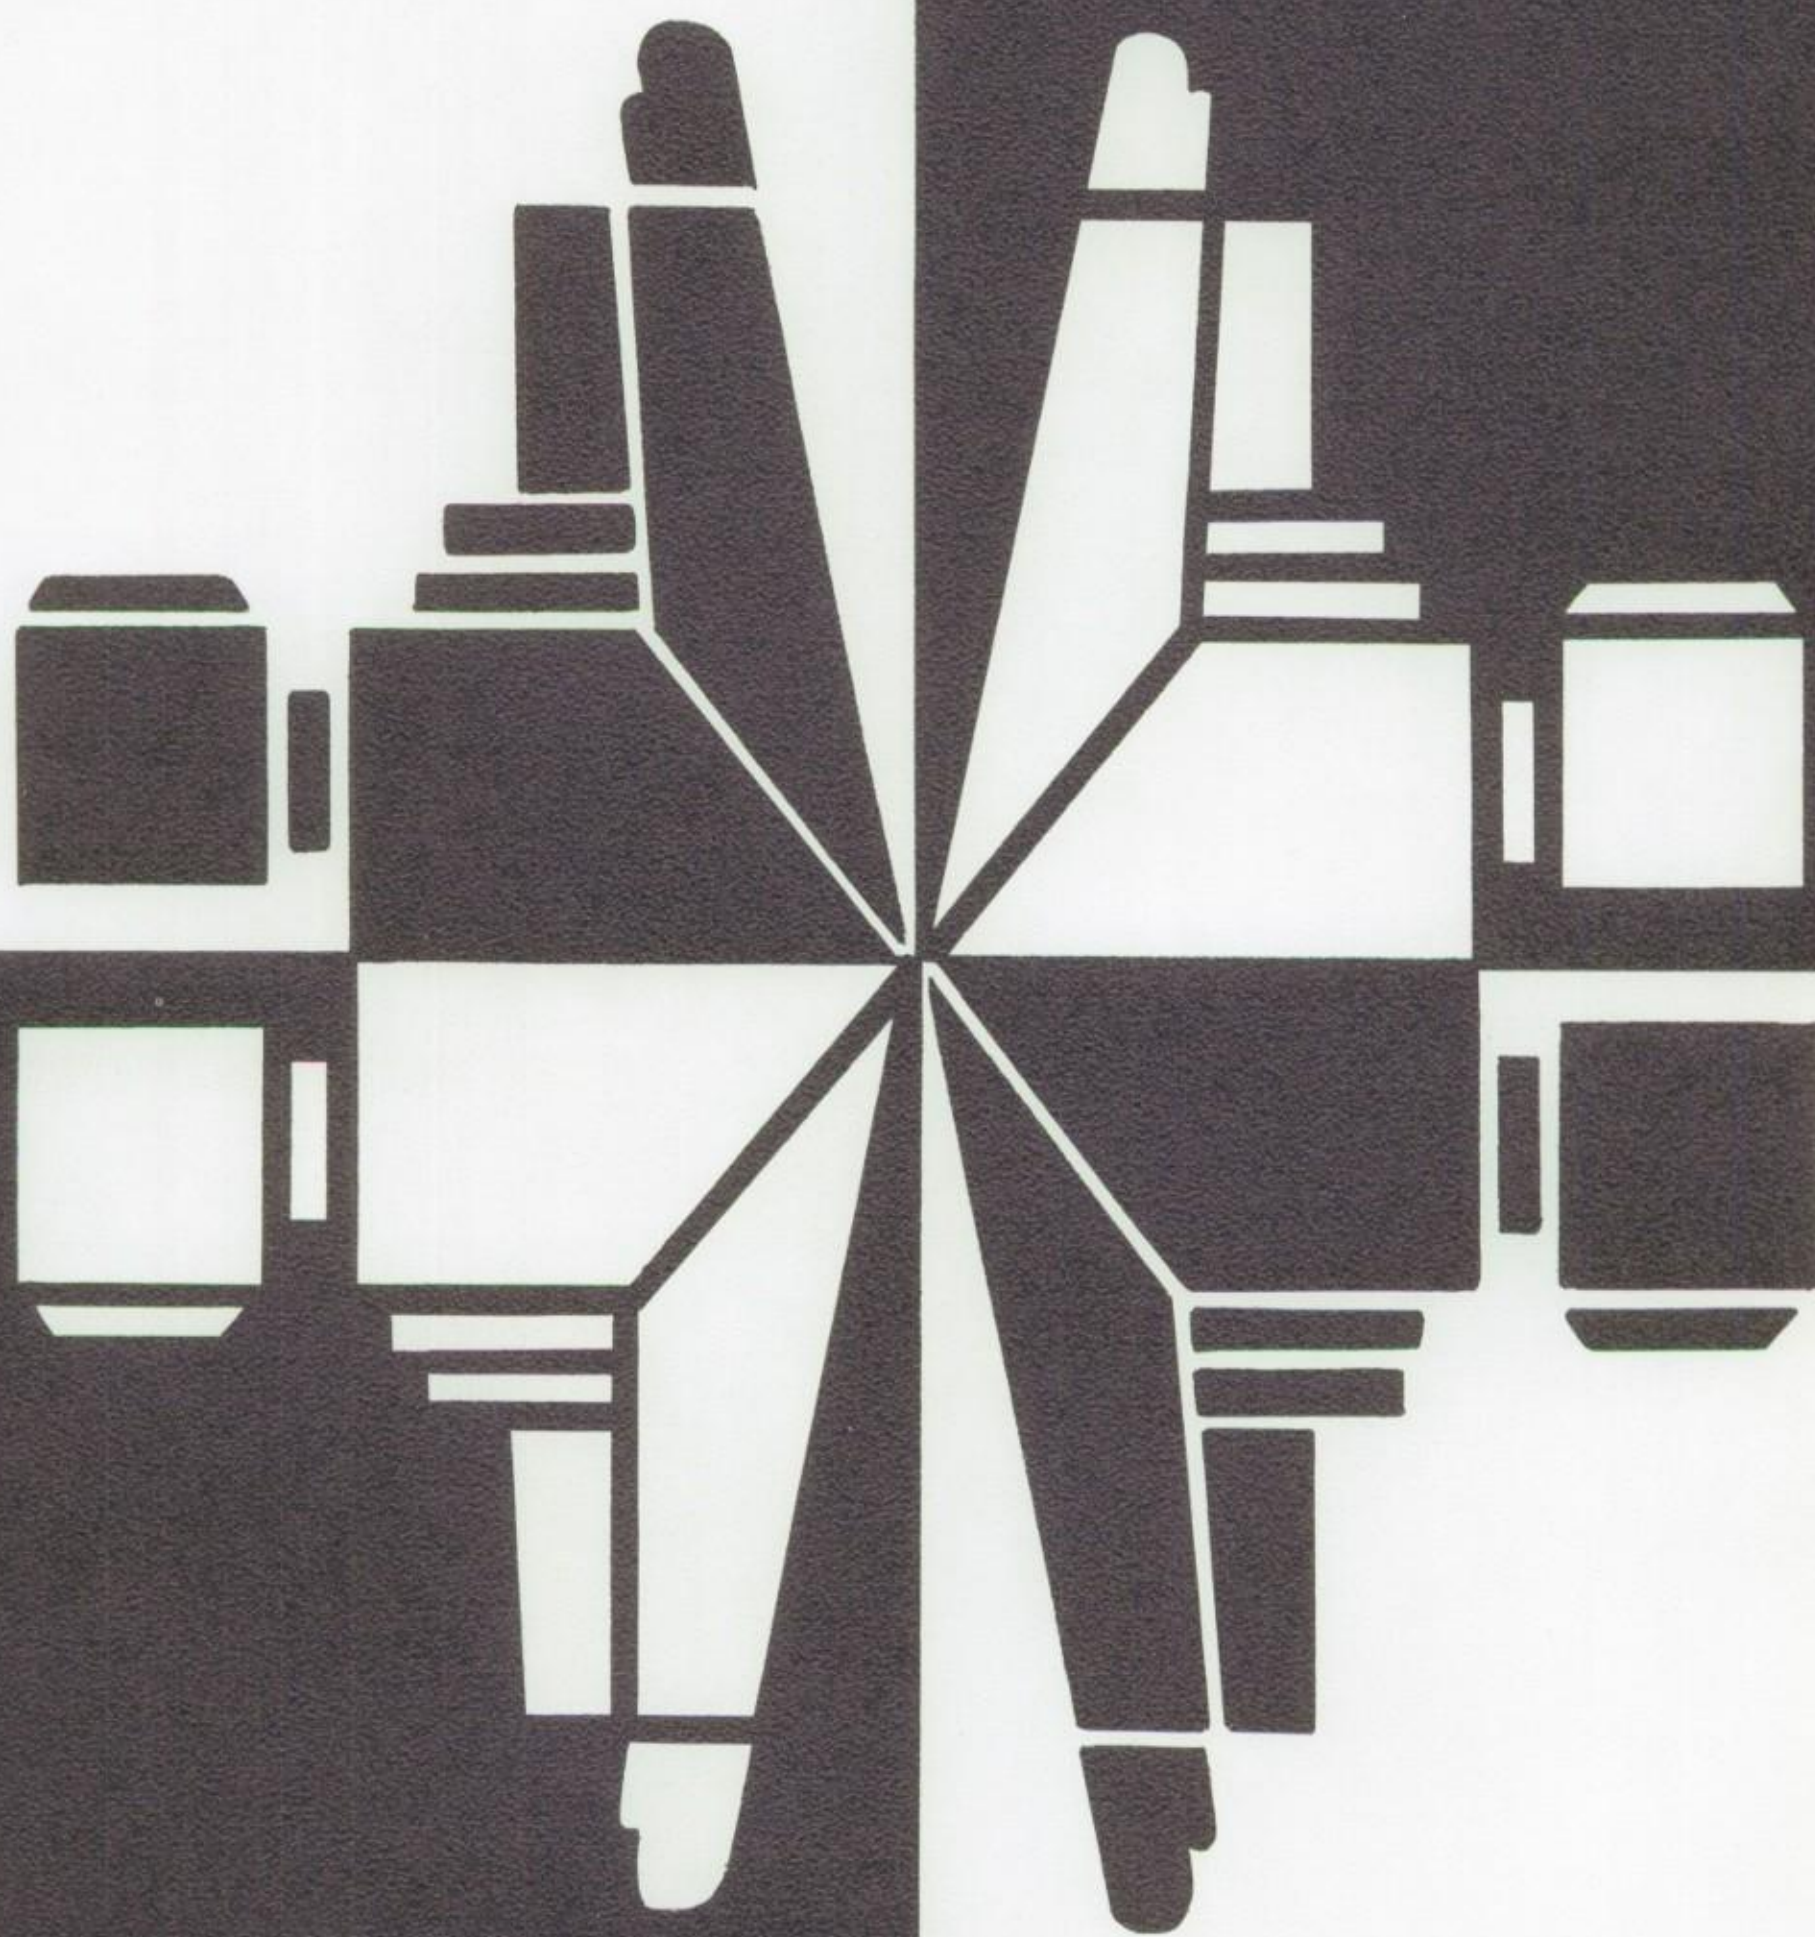

Four years of thinking thoughts never thought before Being best
And being proud of it
Four years of caring too much and maybe not caring at all

And where are we now
All grownup
And sure
And set
Knowing just where we are
And just where we're going
And knowing
We don't know at all

Bound for glory
Out to find something never found before
Ready to make our Brave New World
Our bodies and minds our strongest tools
To make this old world sit up and take notice
To make bad into good hate into love
corruption into purity
despair into hope

And maybe we can
Maybe this is the now when things take a turn?
Maybe we are the ones that hold the key?
Maybe we will even do our best
Maybe we will even succeed

ACTIVITIES

1970 Homecoming Royalty

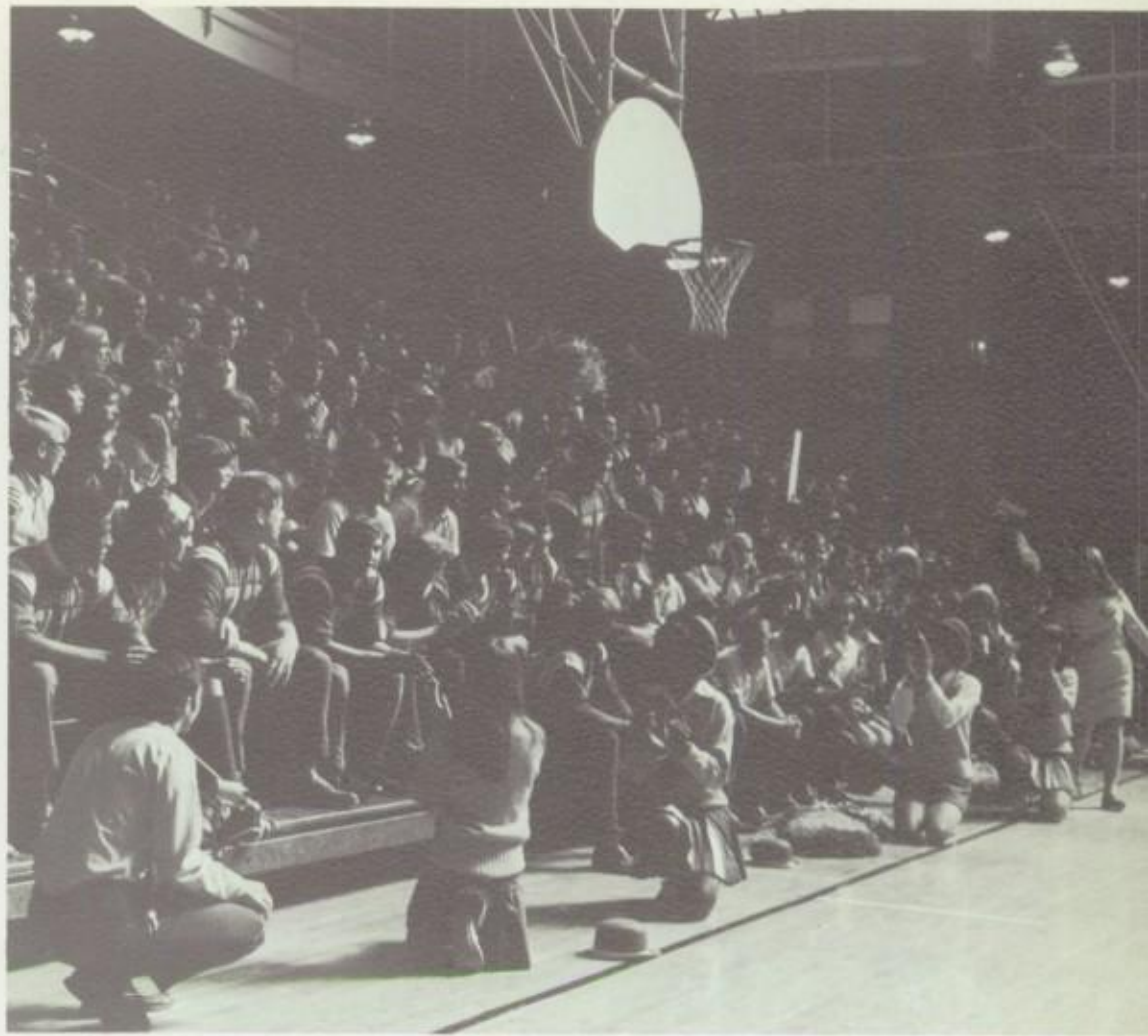

Miss Peg Perrine
Mr. Charles Holman

Steelmen "Stole the Crown" for Homecoming Victory in Game and Class Activities

The atmosphere prevailing among the student body was one of extreme emotion throughout "Steel the Crown" Homecoming week at Central. Joyful, tearful moments came and passed as Peg Perrine and Chuck Holman were proclaimed Central's Royalty; float awards were announced, and class competition wood drives were completed. A new addition to the Homecoming festivities was a bonfire, successfully drawing the entire student body to the twenty foot wood pile. "Lick 'em Stick 'em Day," an entire day of buying and sucking lollipops, tricycle and balloon waltz races, and "Cool Dude Day" were examples of the activities of the week. The Steelmen overrode the Kingsmen in the Homecoming game to a victory of 34-14, proudly exemplifying how we "Stole the Crown."

Right: The crowd anxiously awaited the beginning of the class competition races. Each individual class competed for the trophy which was based on race victories and cheering ability. Below: Radiant Queen, Peg Perrine, was escorted through the arch of sabers by Student Council President, Dan Jovanovich.

Peg and Chuck Named to Lead Central's Homecoming Festivities

Elation was expressed by all as the 1970 Royalty and Court were announced at a special assembly on Thursday, October 21. Hard campaigning and work was put in by the 47 girls that were nominated to run for Queen and Court. Many organizations of the school put up the girls. Such organizations as Student Council, Key Club, A Capella Choir, Tri Hi Y, GAA, and ROTC participated in nominating candidates.

Former Homecoming Queen, Lynn Johnston, was honorary guest chosen to crown the new 1970 Queen, Peg Perrine. King, Chuck Holman was chosen on his fine performance by his teammates. Sportsmanship and leadership were two qualities that were integral for a good candidate.

Extreme Right: Jim Elfter and MaryBeth Stacy patiently await the announcement of the winning girl. After preliminary elections, four girls were chosen to compete for the final title. The four semi-finalists were Lenore Costa, Peg Perrine, MaryBeth Stacy, and Sandy Starling. From these four girls, Queen Peg was chosen.

Tricycles, Balloons, and Roaring Bonfire Incorporated into Homecoming Week

In addition to the sore knees one acquired after unsuccessfully attempting to push at the floor so your tricycle would move a little faster, one also had to beware of flying tires and loud bursts from popping balloons. Those were some of the experiences shared by the students that participated in the class assembly. Homecoming Week was also composed of Slop Day and "Cool Dude Day", two days in which students were permitted to dress from the most tattered vagabond to the most formally attired cosmopolitan. Teachers and students alike took part in the week's festivities, making it one of the most successful homecomings Central has ever had.

Upper Left: A lone West numeral was unmercifully strapped to a wooden plank and thrown to the top of the twenty foot bonfire. Above: Three senior "Cool Dudes" illustrated the costumes worn by many of the student body in support of Homecoming Week. Jerry Raino, Mike Barden, and Eddie Dennevelis, planned major activities for the Steelmen. Below: Teachers not only spark education into the lives of their students but they also kindle flames at bonfires. Mr. Leech sets beginning spark to bonfire, while clutching onto two girls purses and shouldering an unwanted raincoat. Lower Left: The Frosh wood pile had high hopes of competing, but only a single limb was thrown on by some sympathetic senior.

“Knock ’em Down, Steel the Crown” Leads Competition

Spirit raged throughout Homecoming Week in 1969. Many activities were organized, participated in, and proved successful in the outcome. In “Steel the Crown” week, twenty-two floats were being stuffed with napkins and four cars were being transformed into mighty Steelmen and lowly Kingsmen. For the first year, a large majority of all four classes were represented in the floats, each class working industriously to capture the floating trophy for the best float. Chosen teachers became judges as they went from float to float to inspect, comment, and compliment. Each float was graded on originality, beauty, and imagination. GAA, Girl’s Athletic Association, received first place with their “Knock ’em Down-Steel the Crown” creation. Close on their heels bounded the Sophomore class with second place. R.O.T.C.’s original float was awarded third place.

A lot of work, a lot of time, and a lot of pride went into “Steel the Crown” week, but none could ask for a more successful 1969 Homecoming.

Above: R.O.T.C.’s might Steelmen proved too much for a Kingsman as the big man of Steel sent him sprawling down the field again and again. R.O.T.C. captured third place in the Homecoming float competition with their originality and imagination.

Above: GAA's "Knock 'em Down-Steel the Crown" float knocked down all competition as they swept first place in the competition. Many qualifications were necessary to compete in the race, and the Girl's Athletic Association gathered all the top awards for their first place.

Right: Seniors Susan Gilbert and Jim Brown put last minute touches on the Blue Banner's "De-feet of De Kingsmen" float. Many final touch-ups were added in the final minutes before the competition and parade began.

Below: The Sophomore class gained another victory in "Steel the Crown" week as they captured second place for their float. All floats were displayed in a parade at the stadium during half-time game ceremonies, when the float awards were announced.

The combined choirs of A Cappella and Madrigals sat in the auditorium, awaiting the beginning of the Veteran's Day assembly in which they were to pay tribute to all previous veterans of past wars. The choir presented numerous such assemblies, honoring major holidays of the year.

A Cappella Contributed Heavily to Music Curriculum at Central

Central's A Cappella Choir devoted time, hard work, and talent into producing numerous musical programs for the year. Directed by the talented and capable Mr. Robert Howell, the choir made its first appearance of the year November 10 for a Veteran's Day school assembly. A Cappella repeated the performance for Central parents at an Open House.

The Christmas Vespers Concert was the choir's next presentation, singing traditional carols and modern Christmas songs.

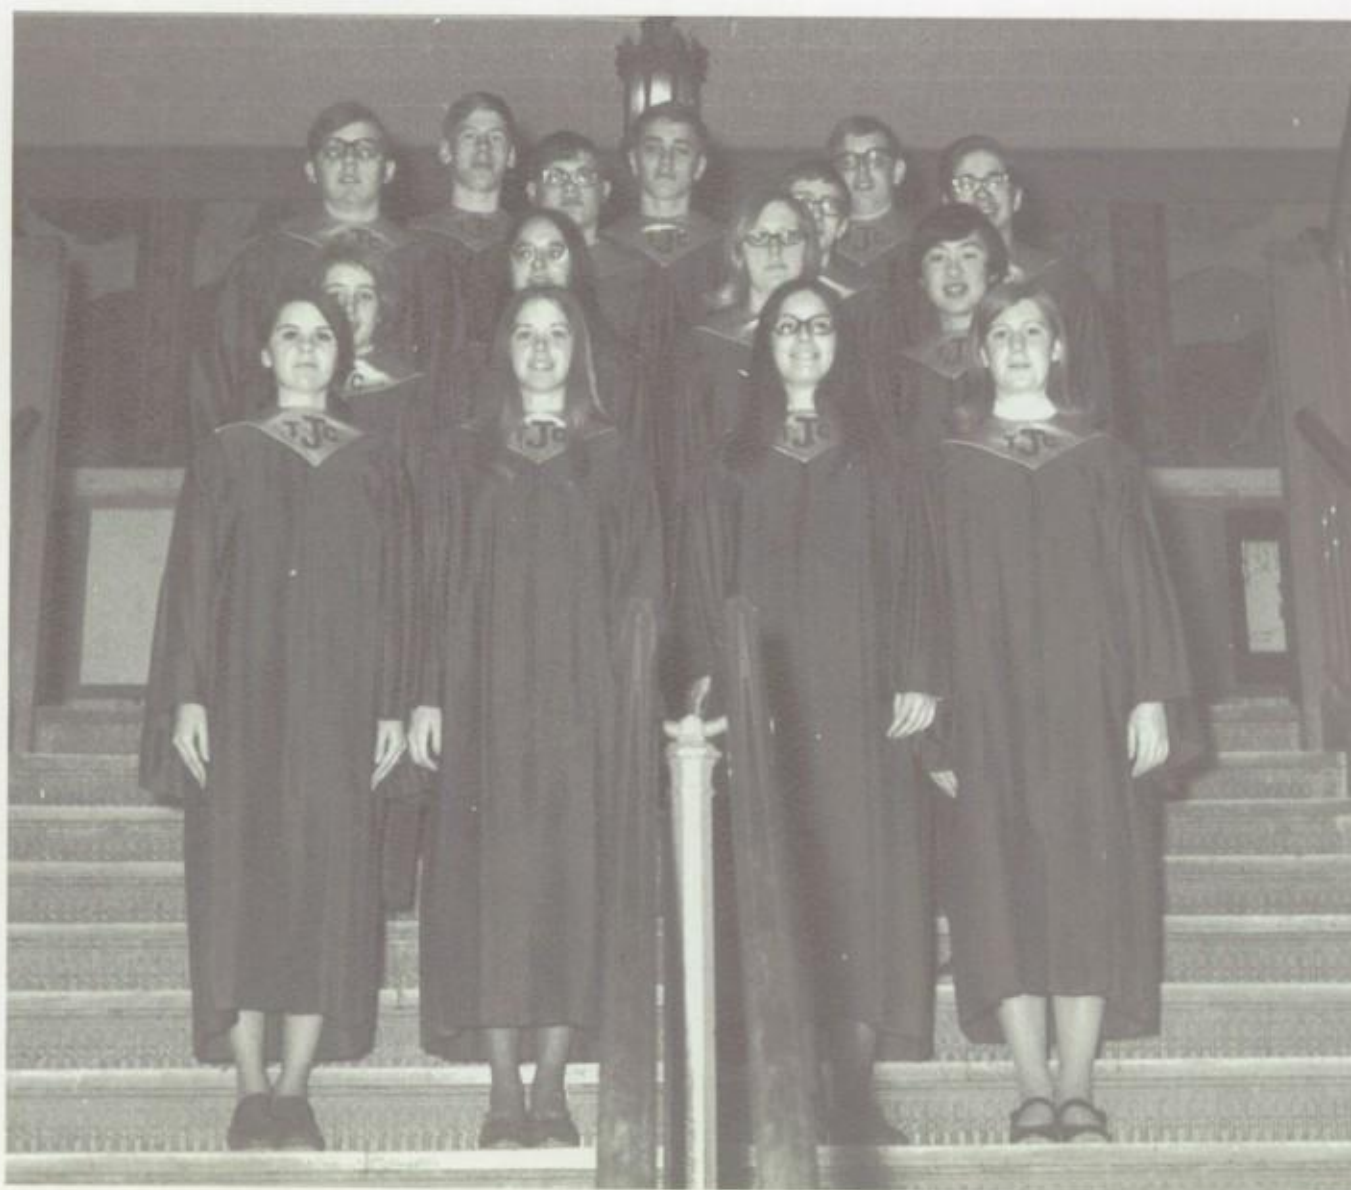

Central's Madrigals were also featured in all performances. Sixteen outstanding vocalists were chosen from A Cappella to form a separate branch of the choir. Practicing three times a week gave the Madrigals additional rehearsal time for the many performances they put on during the Christmas holidays.

The highlight of the year for the choir, though, is the annual operetta they present in the early spring for the students and community. It involves singing, dancing, and all the combined talent of the choir that makes it the outstanding show it is for the participants themselves, the Central students, and for all surrounding communities.

In the appropriate attire for performance, the A Cappella Choir of 1970 was viewed. The musical organization was composed of one-hundred select voices from the Joliet Central student body. The choir performed in the above formation for all performances.

Successful Year for A Cappella Choir

The 1970 school year was one of accomplishment for the members of Central's best choir. Christmas Vespers, the annual performance presented by this vocal organization was the first public appearance of the year. The program included both contemporary and traditional caroles of the Christmas season. Closing the program the audience joined in to sing various caroles.

Musical was the major center of much time and effort spent by the choir. "Pajama Game" was the musical presented this year. The story line of the musical comedy concerns the 7½ cent raise being sought for by the grievance committee of the pajama factory workers. The show was a success as the result of many hours spent by the entire crew and cast of the production.

Mr. Robert Howell, the capable director of the A Cappella Choir, and Chairman of the Liberal Arts Department, sits at his desk attending to the paper work involved in his position.

A daily rehearsal is conducted by Chris Paputsas, a student conductor. Larry Kijowski (Not Pictured) is the second student conductor. Both student conductors took over rehearsals when Mr. Howell was detained or when substitute teachers carried on the duties of Mr. Howell.

Treble Choir is seen in the formation taken for their concerts and all public appearances. This group will be in the above formation as they advance to higher choirs.

In boy's Glee the boys work for perfecting an improved vocal arrangement. Each one gains from group participation and adds to his individual knowledge of the musical field.

Many girls take advantage of Freshman Chorus to build up a collective resource of musical knowledge. Most of these girls will continue to work for the Music Department of Joliet Central through their participation in choir in the coming years.

Treble, Boy's Glee and Frosh Choirs Composed Choral Groups

Treble Choir, the choir above Freshman Girl's Choir was composed of a majority of sophomore girls, but also included both Freshman and Junior girls. These girls were given the opportunity to gain additional instruction to be important members of a performing group.

Many boys were given the opportunity to develop their interests in the vocal music field through Boy's Glee. Many freshmen as well as upper classmen participated in this Glee Club and gained much.

A basis for future choirs of high standards is laid by the Freshman Girl's Choir. This choir's goal is to prepare girls to go on in choral work.

Mr. Howell is the director of all of the above choir organizations. He not only directs but guides the choir to attain goals. These organizations will be the basis for future Joliet Central choirs and will carry on the traditional spirit and enthusiasm of the choirs.

Girls in Treble Choir work to present a successful concert in the spring. Spring concert is the most important event for the choir.

R.O.T.C.: A Time for Young Men to Become Future Leaders

R.O.T.C. is an active program for young men who are interested in a prep-military course. This course had its beginning in March of the year 1919 at Joliet Township High School. The main objective of R.O.T.C. is to give the student basic military training to help him in the military department when he becomes a member thereof. Dependable men are furnished by the instructors to go on to a military training.

Senior Army Instructor for all three of the high schools is Major (RET) Robert O. Nelson. The Army Instructors are Sergeant Major (RET) Hans M. Matzen and Master Sergeant (RET) William R. Swinke. The honorable sponsors who practiced with the corps were: Karen Kerwin, Rhonda McCormick, Betsy Clark, and Donna McCormick.

Above: Company B stood at attention in column formation until ready to march. Rhonda McCormick, Company B sponsor, represented a portion of Central's R.O.T.C. Left: Master Sergeant Swinke saluted, honoring the national colors as they passed by him. Below: Rifle training is a basic skill that all cadets must be familiar with. Company A stood at attention while they awaited inspection.

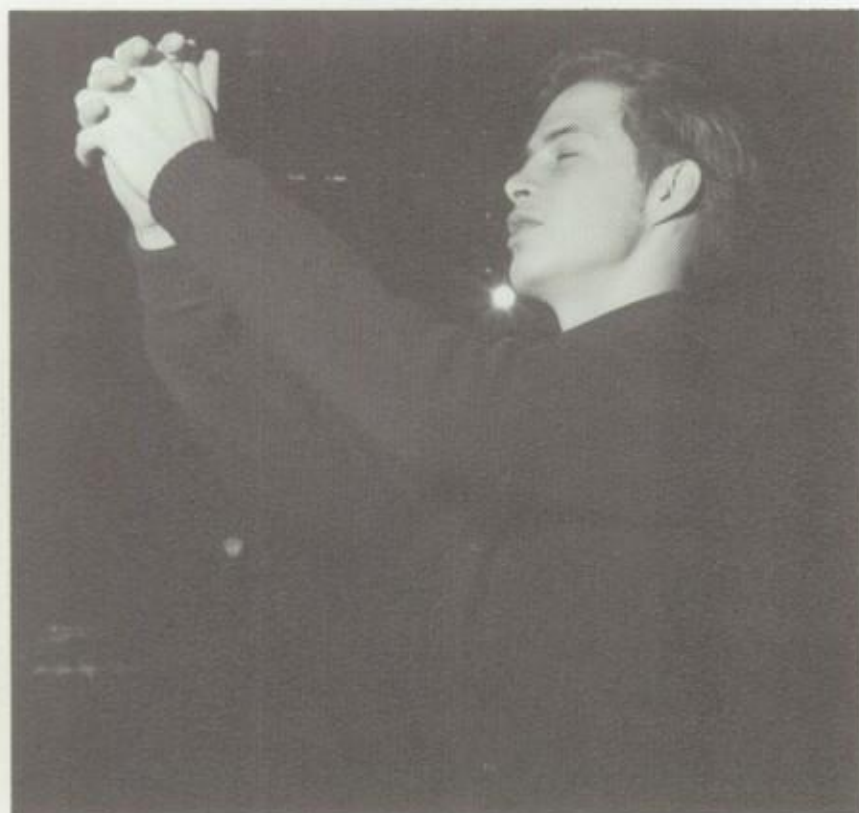

Above: Dependability, leadership, and perseverance are basic qualities needed for student leadership in any organization. In a military training course, it is even more essential that a well rounded student take this responsibility. Bruce Jasurda, Battalion Commander, had fulfilled these qualifications. He held the highest student position possible in the corps. Positioned behind Bruce are (left) Donna McCormick and Betsy Clark, battalion sponsors. Right: The R.O.T.C. Color Guard was perhaps the best example of school and national pride. Below: A personal inspection was a weekly ritual of the organization. Master Sergeant Swinke carried out his duties of inspection.

Chamber Theater Production Innovated as Fall Play

This year's fall play, "John Brown's Body," written by Steven Vincent Benet, proved to be a fulfilling venture in many ways. The cast increased their knowledge about the chamber theater and acting techniques under the direction of Miss A. Crawford.

The civil war gave setting to the two leading couple roles, Jack Ellyat and Melora Vilas, portrayed by Bob White and Janet Kittle; Bill Cushing being Clay Wingate and Jo Ann Pavletich depicting Sally Dupre. Actors and audience glimpsed into things past by portraying everyday people and how the war affected their individual lives. The play was presented on November 11; proving to be a gratifying learning experience.

Hoshaw, Joe Fraser, Natalie Williams, Mary Shaw, Jeanne Jerzycki, Bob White, and Janet Kittle. Marvin Greene, narrator, is not pictured. This scene depicted the finale of the play, stating that the civil war was finally finished, as were the problems and conflicts of lead characters.

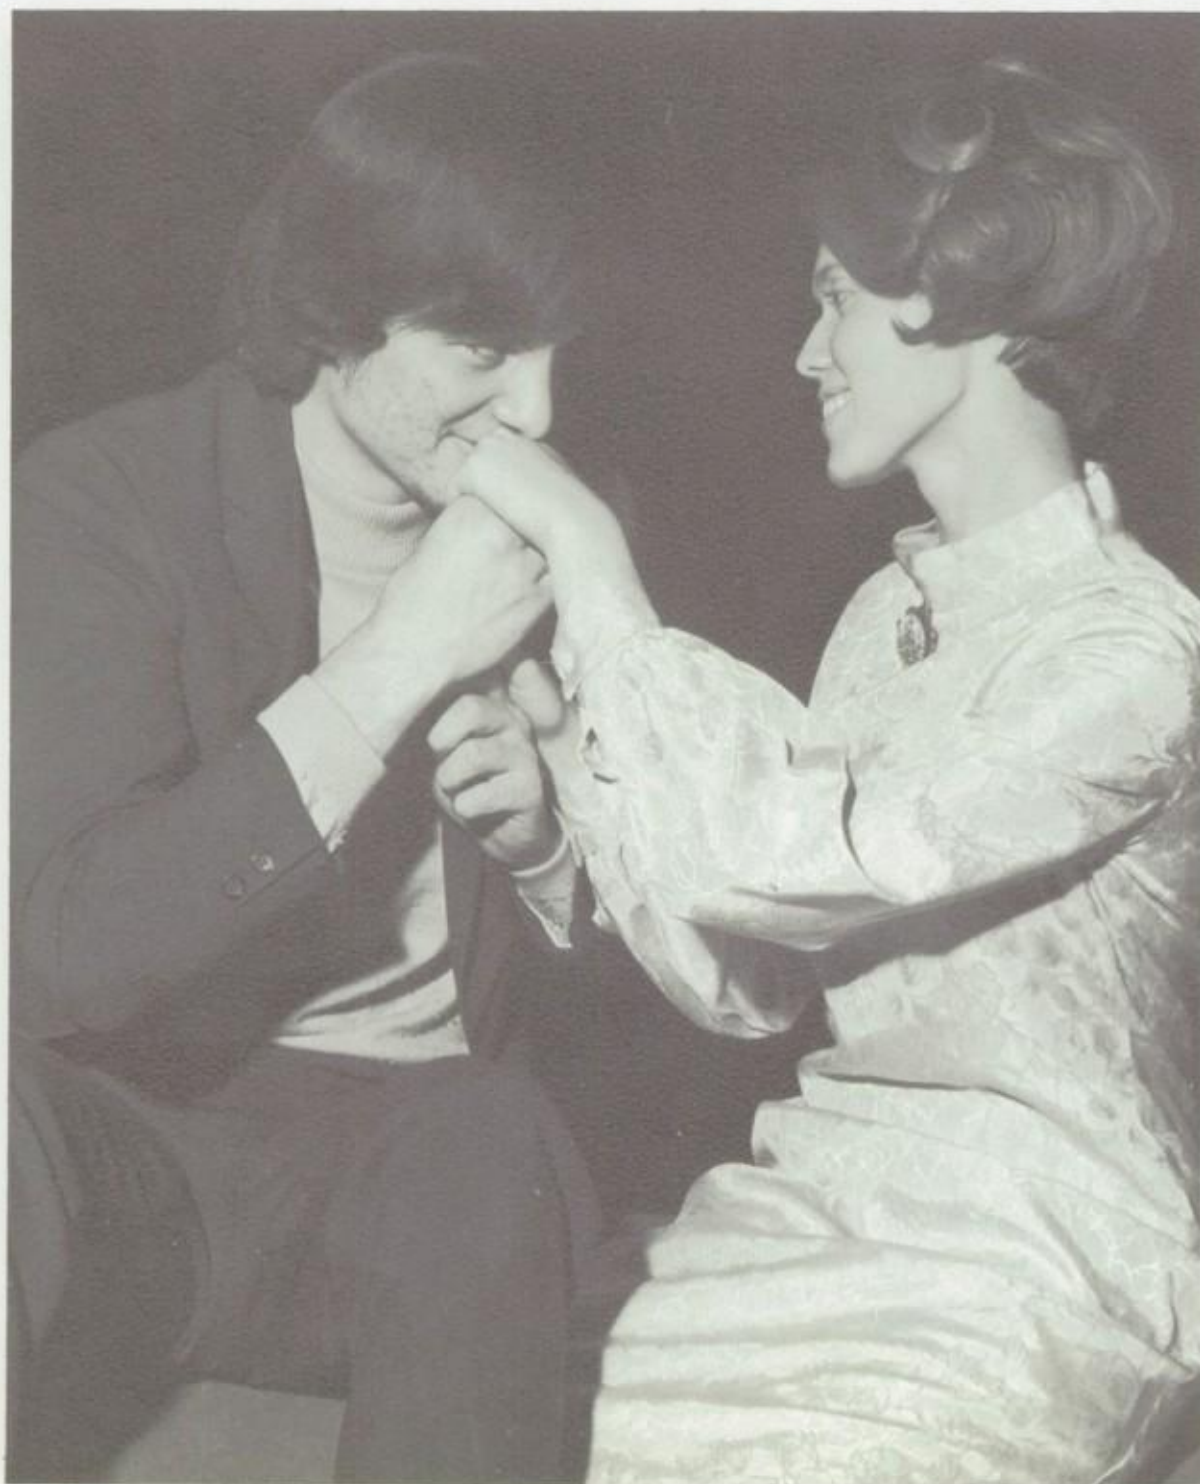

Rehearsals often prove to not only be instructive, but many times entertaining. Pictured are narrators Marvin Greene, Kathy Redmond, and Mark Hanson.

Bill Reeves and Bev Columbus occasionally ran into trouble as they replaced colored lights for the first technical rehearsal.

Jo Anne Pavletich, as Sally Dupre, could see into a happy future with Clay Wingate, played by B Cushing.

Jack Elliot, played by Bob White, found Melora Vilas, Janet Kittle, to be a comfort from his war weary life. They had just reunited when unexpected circumstances caused Jack to return to the war.

Twinkling Stars, Outdoor Cafes and a Full Moon Accentuated "Enchanted Evening"

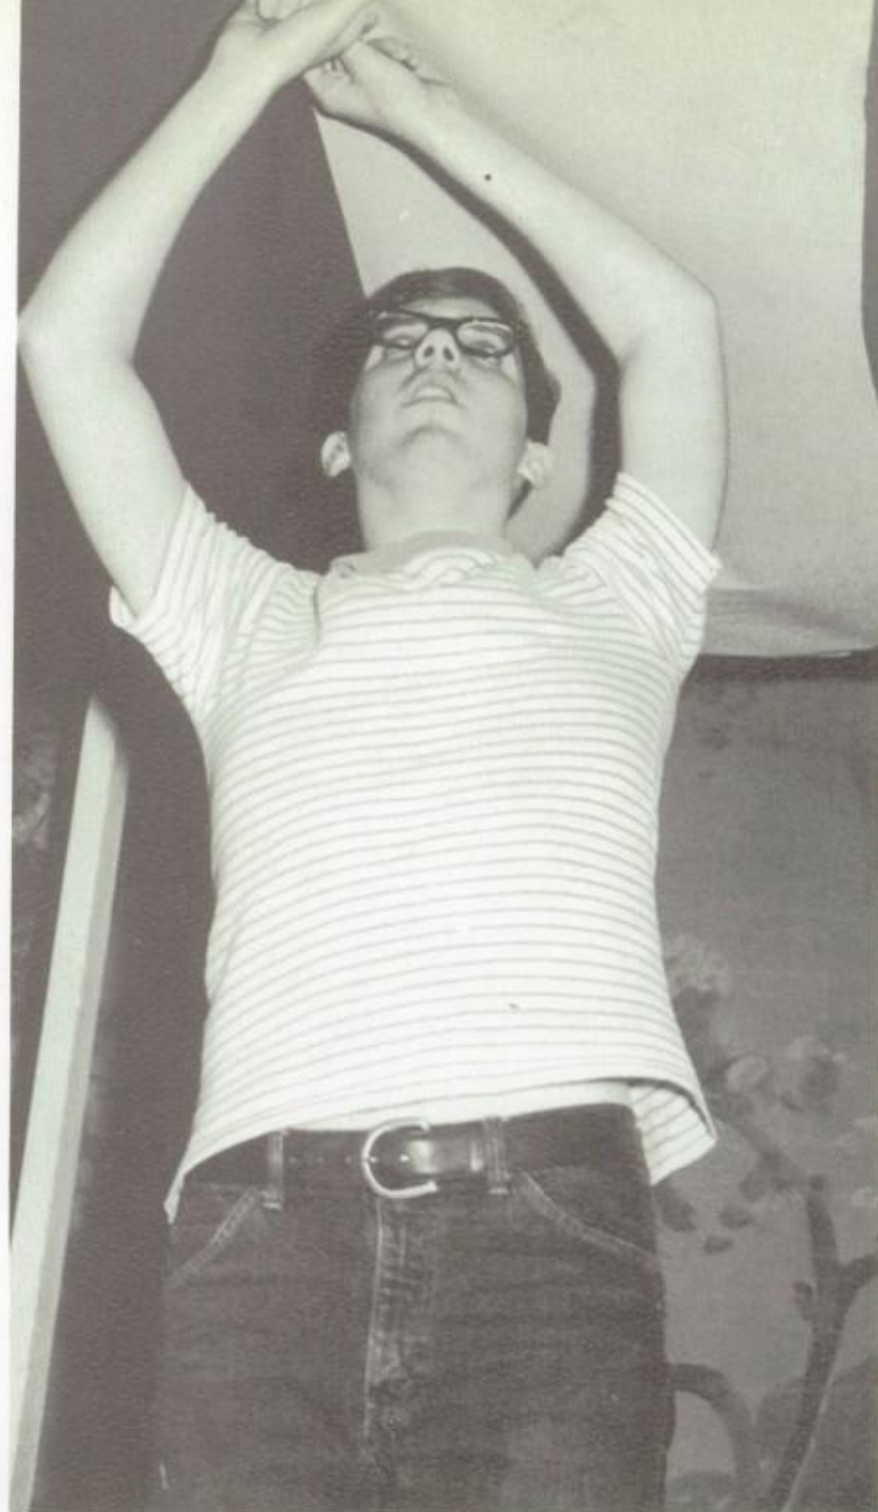

May 23, 1969 was a trilogy of imagination, determination, and satisfaction, when the Junior class transformed the Central Gymnasium into "One Enchanted Evening."

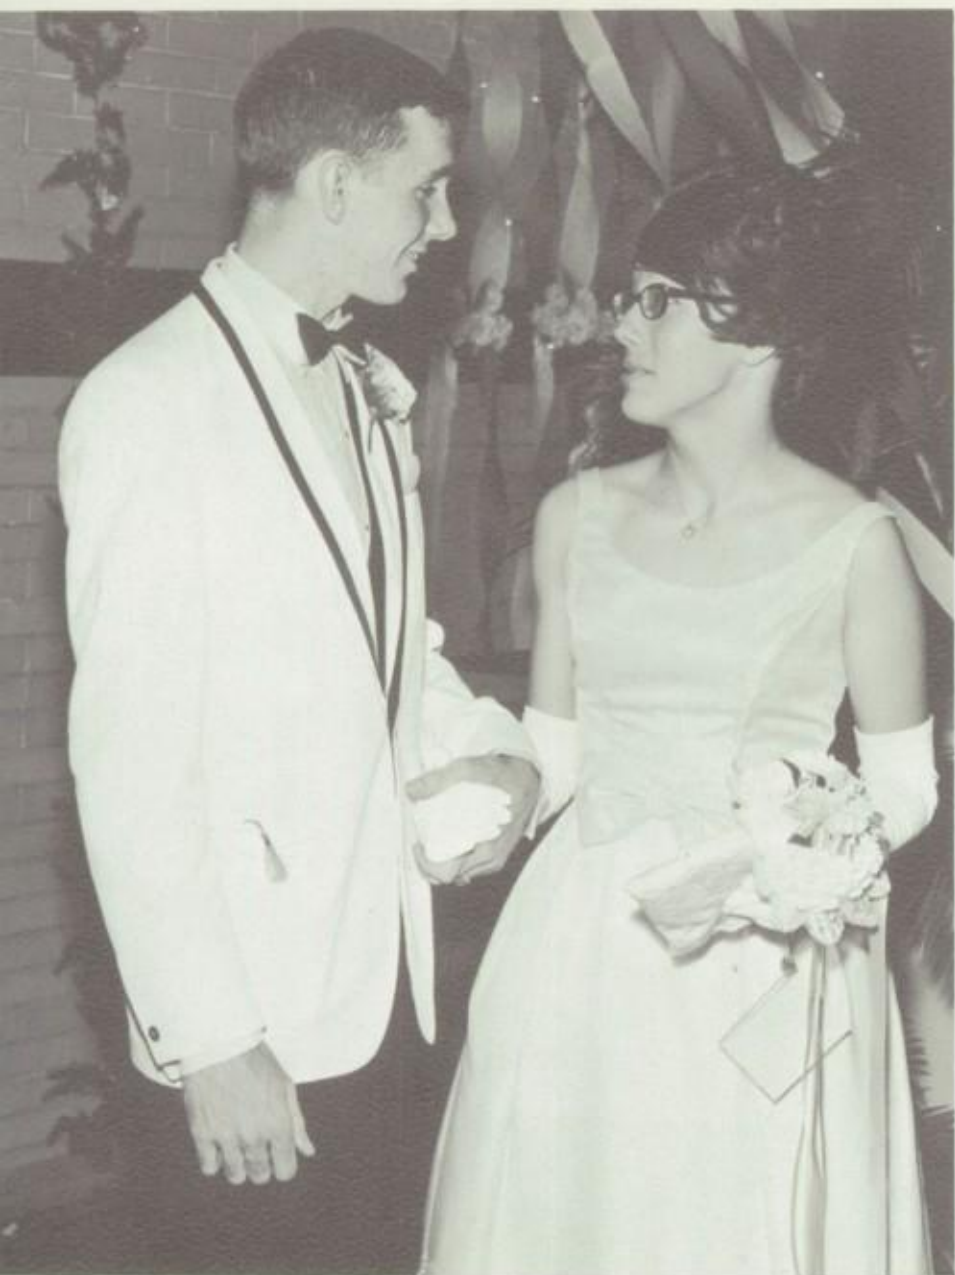

Buzz Gibbons, Junior class President, Eddie Dennevellis, Cathy Yasko, Nancy Holmquist, Karen Kerwin, and Tom Price presided over all committees, workers and helpers to create an outdoor cafe-city atmosphere. Ray Gordon's Orchestra provided the only missing element to complete the "Enchanted Evening."

The Senior Class officers lead the attending three-hundred couples in the traditional grand march that finalized the evening.

Mark Hanson labored on adjusting the restraintive wires of the lavender and pink creped ceiling above the bandstand. Many Juniors worked diligently on the multi-colored chalk backdrop completing the out-door look.

Susan Conners and escort, Bill Cushing, accepted punch and cookies at one of the serving tables of the Cafe d'Amour. Underclassmen were hosts for the evening, serving the refreshments.

Above: Richard Gregorash and Susan Joslin pause for a moment to look into each other's eyes and reflect on the evening before them. For the Juniors that worked long, hard hours during the day of the prom, it was especially rewarding to view the gym as an enchanted land.

Right: Coming down the railed footbridge awaiting formal introduction were Grant Lambert and June Corradetti. Under as well as upperclassmen enjoyed the mood created by the decorations so well representing "One Enchanting Evening."

Below: Tufts of colored crepe paper pasted against a solid crepe background created the illusion of trees and bushes, adding an integral part to our out-door look. Originality illustrated this wall's design through the imaginative decorations.

Above: Composing the Frosh cheer squad for 1969-70 were Tobe Baude, Debbie Greene, Linda Mesowicz, and Debbie Spiers. They lead the largest class of yelling Steelmen at games and assemblies. Right: Cheerleaders not only lead yells, but sometimes remain part of the crowd as others demonstrate. MaryAnn Grabavoy, Jan Austin, and Kim Powell clap along with audience in a pep assembly.

"We're the Steelmen, couldn't be prouder," was a familiar phrase chanted at games. But it was not only part of a favorite cheer, but was one which could describe the student-faculty feeling of the cheerleaders. The three squads of girls were present at every athletic outing: giving support, evoking spirit, and demonstrating skill and agility. Led by Mrs. Dwyer, the girls were selected on the basis of skill, co-ordination, appearance, poise, and vocal intonation in competitive tryouts in the early Spring. The best qualified girls, judged by a panel of students and teachers, were then chosen to represent Central and to uphold the phrase, "We're the Steelmen, couldn't be prouder . . ."

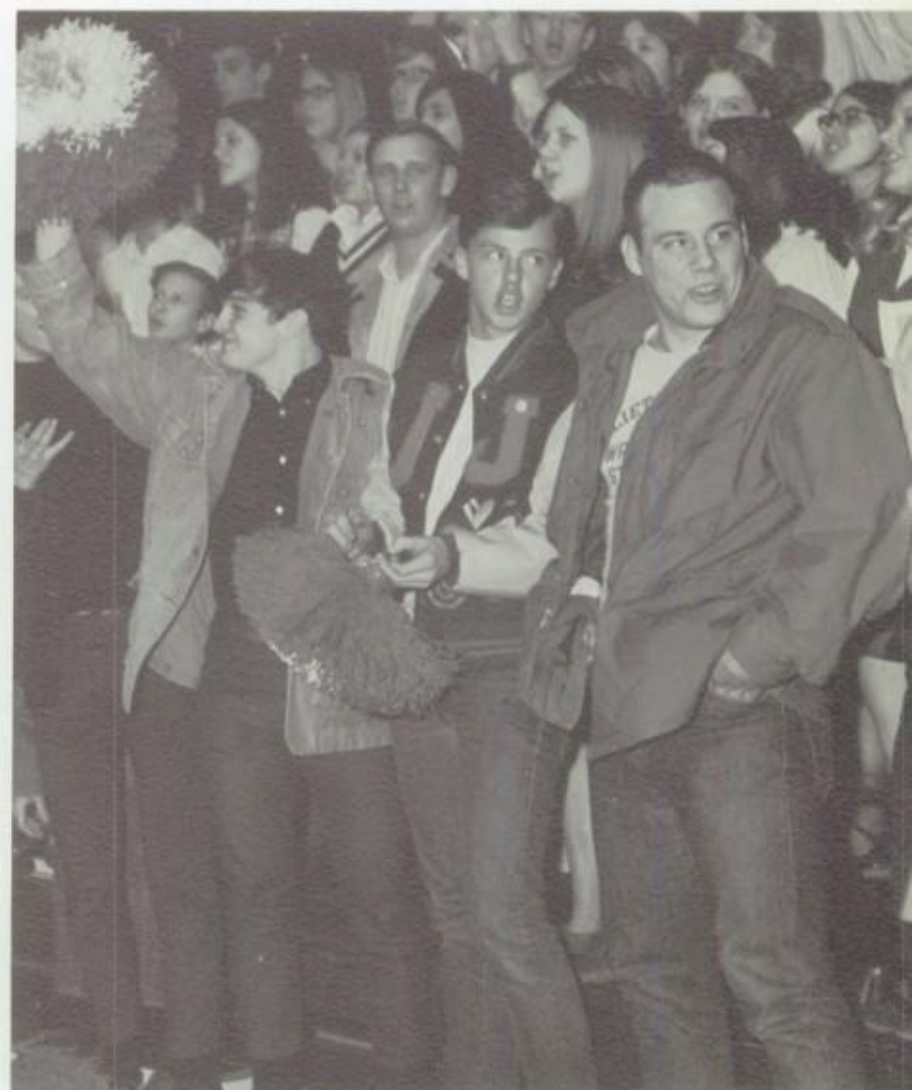

Varsity Cheering squad: Robin Schirmer, Cheryl Foy, Angie Kazz, Linda Spivey, and Jan Austin.

Below: Jan Austin demonstrated agility and co-ordination in the pike, only one of several jumps that all cheerleaders must master to gain position on the squad.

Robin Bolt, Lorie Van Gampler, MaryAnn Grabavoy, CheChe Van Gampler, June Corradetti, and Kim Powell comprized the Sophomore squad.

Lower left: Cheryl Foy was a common sight at all athletic events. In addition to an ever smiling face, Cheryl's sincere feelings of school spirit and sportsmanship were reflected in her cheering. Above: Bill Denewellis, Bruce Jasurda, and Mike Bardon demonstrated that males could easily qualify for a cheerleading position.

Above: Mr. Carnes, Larry Kijowski, threatened Ali Hakim, Mark Hanson, with his life about inconsistent matrimonial plans with Ado-Annie, played by Gloria Garrett.

Lively Music and Fast Moving Plot Indicative of "Oklahoma"

"As time and tempers grew short and we moved into the final weeks of rehearsal, we dreamt of success and feared failure at every turn," quoted Miss Suzie Meyer, Staging Coordinator and Technical Director of the annual operetta, "Oklahoma." The "feared failure" never came, though, because success vibrated through the eighty-eight talented, determined, hard working cast that made cornfields and traveling peddlers come alive before your eyes. "Oklahoma" was presented on May 8, 9, and 10, 1969, by the combined efforts of A-Cappella Choir, Band, and Orchestra. Mr. Robert G. Howell acted as Musical Director and Production Coordinator, while Mr. Bruce Houseknecht assisted in the musical direction.

Bev Columbus headed company list with lead title of Laurey, while Steve Weston dominated the male lead with Curley. Curley attempted to be the lone man in Laurey's life, but Will Parker, played by supporting actor Alex Soley, injected himself frequently into Laurey's life: not to the un-seeing eyes of supporting actress Gloria Garrett, playing Ado-Anne. A variety of dance and song numbers accompanied the fine acting of the entire cast.

Success does not come easy, but when a person gives all of himself, as did the entire cast of the operetta, and when those people have one-hundred and sixteen production crew members behind them to the very end, you are bound to have a smashing success, as did all the people associated with "Oklahoma."

Below: Curley, Steve Weston, is trying to persuade Laurie, Bev Columbus, to his way of thinking. Laurie is being coy, very indicative of a woman.

Miss J of 1970 Finalists: Joyce Azuma, Jeanne Benson, Laura Campos, Nancy Holmquist, Janet Kittle, Mary Ninos, Chris Picco, Robin Schirmer, Natalie Williams, and Cathy Yasko. These ten girls were noted as the most outstanding senior girls, based on the qualities of poise, personality, leadership, and scholastic achievement. They will at all times represent Central favorably. Miss J is sponsored by the Yearbook, after whom Miss J is named for.

Miss Joyce Azuma Captured 'Ideal Girl' Title in Miss "J" Competition

Apprehensive faces reflected the tension of all who sat awaiting the announcement of Miss J of 1970 in Central's auditorium on February 20, 1970. Dressed in formal attire, the finalists were escorted to the stage by outstanding Steelmen athletes, while being formally introduced and individually recognized by Michael Magee, "J" Editor-in-Chief. Eagerly anticipated results soon arrived as Joyce Azuma was chosen as Miss J; Nancy Holmquist and Jeanne Benson served as first and second runners up, respectively. To be a candidate for the competition, a senior must have accumulated a 2.75 average over her four years. Selected teachers and students then voted from the forty eligible girls, choosing ten on the qualifications of poise, personality, responsibility, and academic achievement. These ten finalists were then interviewed and judged on the same basis by a panel of Joliet citizens in a ten minute interview. This last judgement was responsible for the finalized selection of Miss J and her two runners up.

Ingenuity, Hard Work Create 53rd Annual Ball

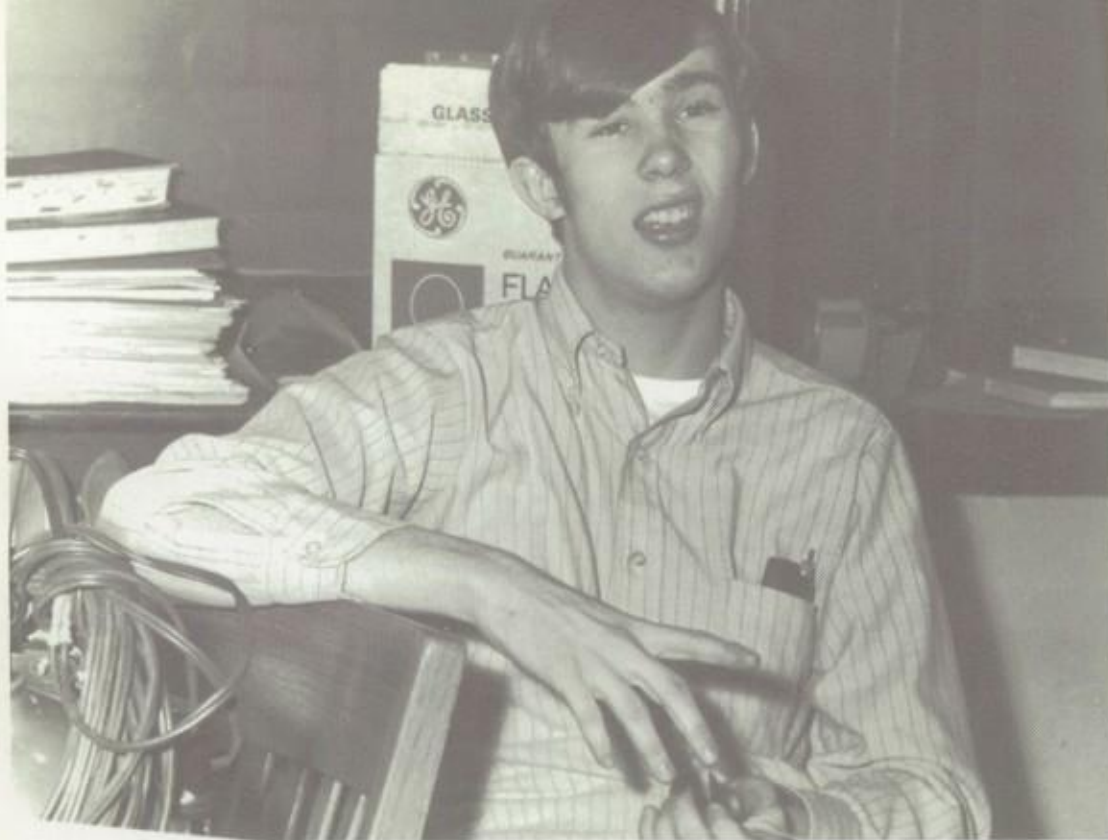

Regalness, stateliness, and grandness were major components of the annual ROTC Military Ball of 1969. The formal dance marked the summit of the year's social festivities. Joliet Central, East and West's ROTC companies ingenuity, artfulness, and hard work to established one of the most splendid of all balls ever presented. It was held at D'Amico's, 214, on May 20.

The highlight of the evening was the formation of the arch of sabers, through which all the sponsors of the individual high schools were formally introduced. Sponsors serving for Joliet Central for the '69 school year were Lynn and Marty Johnston, Charyln Palmer, and Linda Seffner.

“J” Added Color and Reorganization

The Steelmen's annual publication, the “J” of '70 added new dimensions this year. In addition to the re-organization of the individual sections composing the book, five new color pages in the introduction enhanced the publication's appearance.

Serving as Editor-in-Chief for the “J” was Mike Magee; with section editors Joyce Azuma, Seniors; Mary Ninos, Activities; Richard Gregorash, Sports; Mary Edwards, Faculty; and Cindy Waddell and Mary Goodwin, Underclass.

Many problems confront the editor, often times demanding serious decisions and procrastination. But sometimes tension overcomes self control and potty words are emitted. Mike Magee exemplifies this.

Student Council Guides Social and Legislative Paths in Central's Life and Government

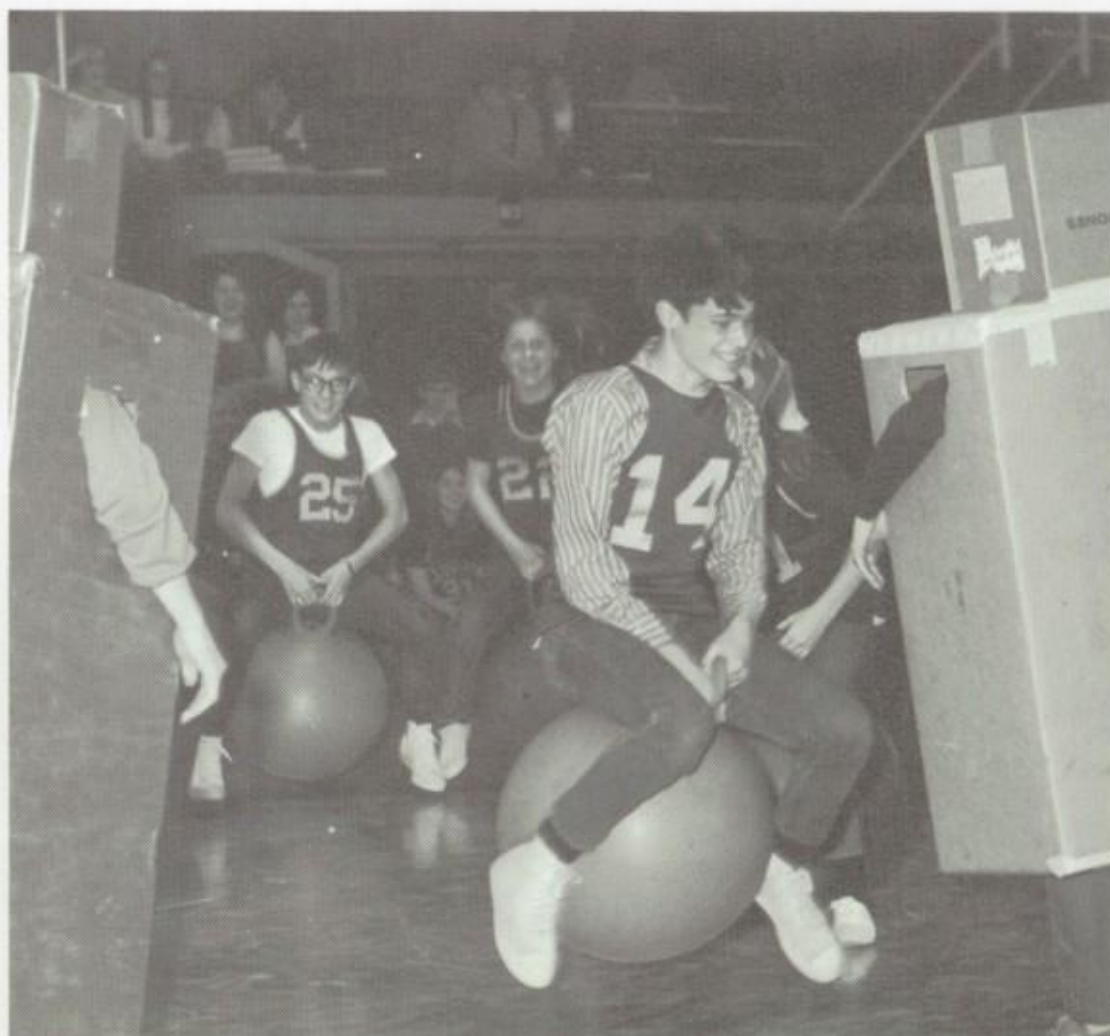

Student Council exercised their power frequently during the 1969-70 school year, acting as an intermediate between the Administration and the students of Central. Transmitting ideas sent to them by the students, Council helped pass many issues, one being slacks being able to be worn by all girls in sub-zero weather.

In addition to their legislative role, Student Council also sponsored dances, pep assemblies, and busses to away games. Exchange assemblies, where a Council from a different school put on an assembly for Central students, were frequent throughout the year.

Led by President Dan Jovanovich; Vice President, Chris Alberico; Secretary, Peg Perrine; and Treasurer, Gerry Kucer; the Council sometimes split into individual committees to organize social festivities pertaining to various holidays.

Membership was comprised of ten representatives from each class, an Executive Board, and class officers.

The activities committee, a branch of Council, was mainly organized to promote social functions. It was composed of Sheila Wall, Edna McCullum, Jerry Engimann, Chris Sweirz, Ralph Gutierrez, Peg Perrine, Cindy Waddell, Ed Denevellis, Harold Rey, and Dan Jovanovich. Lower left: Dan Jovanovich, Council President, officiates at an exchange assembly with East during the year. N.H.S. Stresses High Standards

N.H.S., National Honor Society, had been more active this year than in previous years. They not only handled book exchange, but also sponsored successful dances during homecoming that grossed a financial gain.

N.H.S. was composed of forty eight seniors who had maintained a B average throughout their four years and had participated in extra curricular activities.

Mr. Donald Roy sponsored the organization for the 1969-70 school year: advising President, Natalie Williams, Vice President, Buzz Gibbons; Secretary, Debbie Hennessey; Treasurer, Mark Hanson, and Historian Bernie Ragusa, on financial and social matters.

During one of the many rehearsals for "Look Homeward Angel" Mrs. Boroff coached her students. Debby Brown, and Bob White listen attentively as the director instructs them on their next lines.

"Look Homeward Angel" Success at Central

"Look Homeward Angel" was written by Ketti Frings and adapted from Thomas Wolfe's novel. The story is based on Wolfe's life, depicting his American home and family.

The setting is in North Carolina, involving the Ghant family. Bob White portrays the Father, Debbie Brown depicts the Mother and their sons, Ben and Eugene are played by Mike Magee and Tom Reeves. Bill Cushing is the Family doctor that is the consoler. Eugene is having negative emotional problems with his family, and tries to escape by going into the world in his own. There he meets Laura, and immediately falls in love. The story centers around all the problems they encounter together.

The play was presented on February 14, at Lincoln Way High School. Directed by Mrs. Boroff, she was assisted by Marsha Wilabay.

Doctor McGuire consoled Ben as he learned of his emotional problems with Laura. Eugene looked on as he reflected inner thoughts about the atmosphere.

Laura solemnly vowed that she loved only Eugene and no one else could ever take his place. Unknown to Eugene that she was really engaged to another man.

Lega Assumed Leadership Position of Band

The Central Band was one heaped in tradition and honors. They have long stood for a high quality in musical integrity. The band not only performed at most school assemblies and all home games, but they also gave an annual concert which was city acclaimed. A highlight at home football games was the band's presentation, which always proved to be entertaining. The band was not only made up of qualified musicians, but also many loyal Steelmen.

Mr. Lega, the band's director, was pupil of the former Houseknecht, and was so impressed with Central's band that he returned to take the place of the retired conductor.

Ted Clark, drum major, led the band in all processions and parades. Peggy Perrine and Nancy Holmquist served as the 1969-70 band sponsors.

Central's band, under the fine leadership and direction of Mr. Lega, dedicated their time and work into making it one of the most noted musical organizations in the city. Approximately one hundred fifty musicians compiled the membership of the organization, including both male and female members.

Student conductors, Les Tadej, Ted Clark, and Jim Elfter, substituted their services when Mr. Lega was absent.

Peggy Perrine served as Blue Band sponsor for 1969-70 year.
Gold Band sponsor, Nancy Holmquist, shared duties with officers.

Sixteen section leaders assumed the responsibility of conducting and directing their individual section when the band was rehearsing.

Les Tadej, band's President, paid strict attention in his problems of democracy class during a school day.

Orchestra Challenged By Concerts and Contests

The Central Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Lega, had a very rewarding year with their successful concerts and presentations. Their music varied from the classical to the more light and popular tunes. The Orchestra consisted of various string instruments that sometimes combined with the band for concerts.

In addition to small trips the group has taken to increase their knowledge of the musical scope, they had gone to Chicago to join with other school orchestras for combined concerts. All state competition is an award given to outstanding players, and Central can be proud of all the members that were able to attend.

The participants of the Debate Club for the 1969-70 year were Steve Rodby, Ann Padden, Jane Haley, Kay Johnson, Kathy Mainer, Mrs. Ethel Chaney, Louise Converse, Ken Pollock, Pam Sorsini, and Mark Tezak. Kay, Pam, and Jane were all second year debaters, gaining additional experience by attending debates this year to learn new and helpful techniques. Mrs. Ethel Chaney served as co-ordinator and sponsor for the club.

Astronomy and Debate Newly Initiated at Central

New this year to Central's clubs was the Astronomy Club. The faculty advisor was Mr. Thomas Mattson, Sophomore English teacher. Total membership of the club numbered fifteen, of which three were girls. Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors comprised the students who were active in the organization. Rich Etheridge held the position of President for the 1970 school year. History of constellations was the topic of study and the related field of astrology was also studied in detail. Besides the work of the group, each individual worked on his own project. Fifty volumes of hard bound books and numerous magazines made up the Astronomy library.

Also newly initiated was the Debate team at Central. The club had been inactive for some years, and this year proved to be a building year for the debaters. Under the direction of Mrs. Chaney, the team participants met regularly after school. The club viewed many debates and was gaining the experience that it needed to make next years team an active one.

The Astronomy Club, inovative to Central, frequently spent their free hours and intelligence in the planitarium, a darkened room that mystically transformed into heavenly bodies. Because of the newness of the club, the majority of the members were Freshmen and Sophomores. Mr. Matson held the position of faculty advisor.

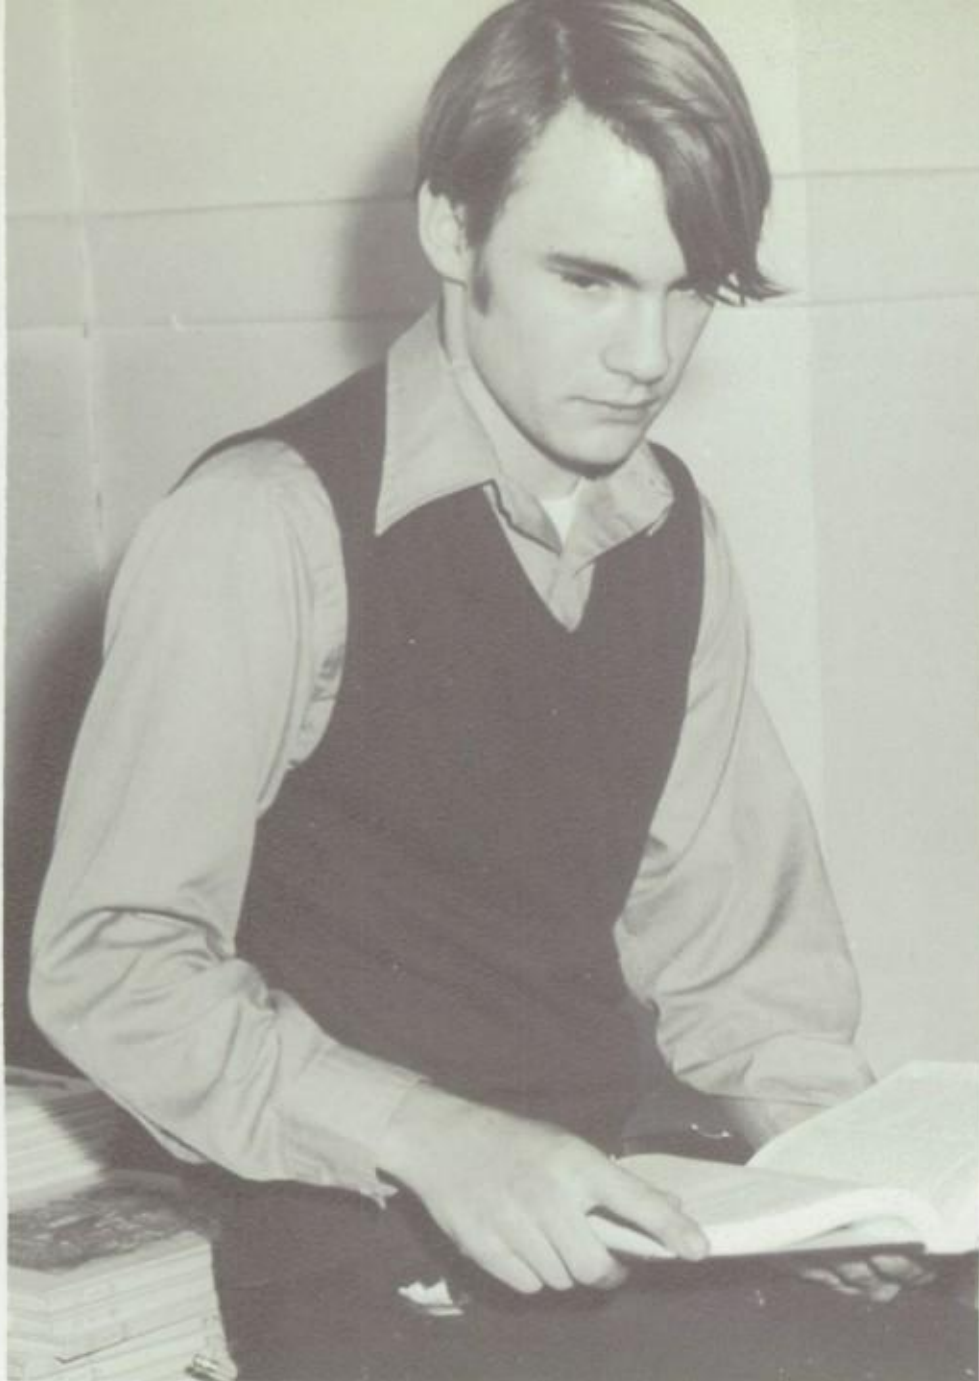

Outdoor Club Exemplifies Title By Deed

The Outdoors Club was made up of many energetic students at Central for the 1969-70 year. Their first year was a very successful one under the leadership and guidance of faculty advisor, Mr. Boettcher, a photography instructor. The club sponsor encouraged the participation of all in varied activities. The events of the club were horseback riding, picnicing, swimming, and especially skiing. The main activity of the year was ski trips to Wisconsin. Getting up at the crack of dawn was not misery for the participants that went to La Crosse, Wisconsin over semester break for a four day ski trip. Besides skiing, activities such as skating, tobogganing, and snowball fights were offered. The over all aim of the club was to promote outdoor fun and good companionship among all.

AFS, Human Relations Aimed to Unify All People

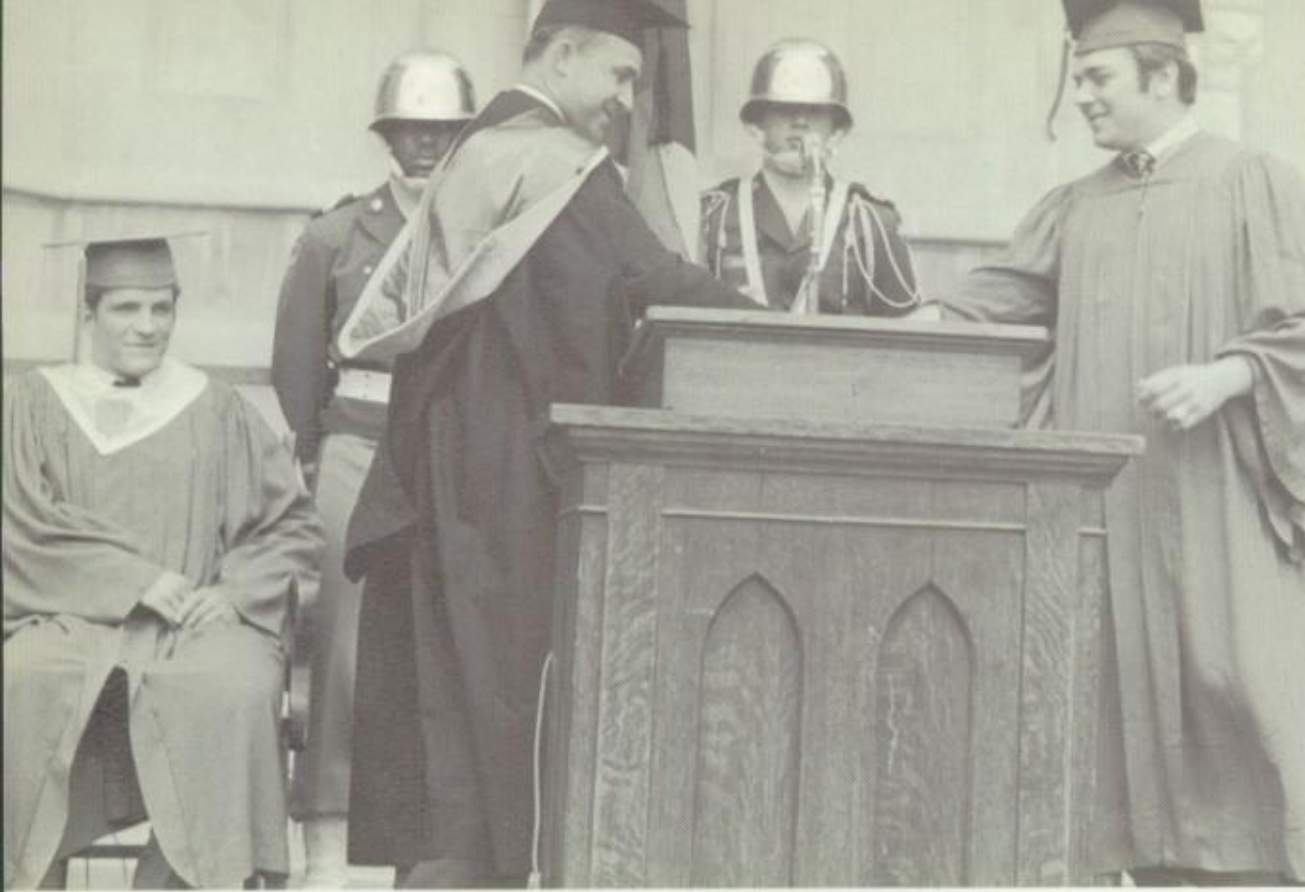

The Human Relations Organization was made up of students from various backgrounds and positions in the Central student body. Through working together for the good of all the students much was accomplished.

Mr. Main acted as faculty advisor and helped the officers of the club. The chairman was senior, Greg Spinks, co-chairman was Paul Pell, a junior, the office of treasurer was held by Marcella Graves.

Membership was open to all students that had a genuine interest in the problems of Joliet Central. Fifty students made up the total membership of the organization.

Graduation Marks the End and a Beginning

Graduation was looked upon as a stepping stone to future dreams and goals, yet an air of nostalgia prevailed as an integral segment of life was terminated. For the four hundred seventeen graduates, each proudly, yet sadly reviewed his four years; all the tensions, frustrations, and satisfactions had left deeply imprinted memories that would never be forgotten. Students participation as speakers were: Bev Head, ivy bearer; Wanda Shinault, class poet; Denise Cindrich, class orator; Ted Johnson, class speaker, and Terry Peterson, Senior class president.

Left: Terry Peterson, after being introduced by D. Ross spoke before the graduates for the final time. Above: Commencement exercises incorporated T. Johnson as a main speaker. Below: Silence, solemnness, and sadness were feelings experienced by all graduates.

Members of FTA, in addition to helping in community and school service, aided education in teaching field.

F.T.A. and Key Club Promote Citizenship

The Future Teachers of America consisted of ten to fifteen students who were sincerely interested in becoming teachers. Their purpose was not to see how many members their club had, but for each one of the members to be seriously thinking about teaching as a career. One of their projects this year was a visit to a home for aged with Christmas gifts. Officers: Jim Tezak, President; Harriet Carter, Vice President, Sue Scott, Secretary. Club sponsors: Mrs. Steinmann and Mr. Baldwin.

Key Club of Joliet Central, is a student branch of the Joliet Kiwanis Club, functioning to help needy people. The Key Club cooperated with the Kiwanis Club in many projects. Additional projects included Christmas bell ringing for the Salvation Army, a clothing drive, canvassing for the Heart Fund. Mr. McDonald, advisor; President, J. Narducci; Vice President, J. Johnston; Secretary, R. Garton; Treasurer, M. Jenkins.

Key Club provided many services to the school in the way of money and deeds.

A Bit of Sweden? No; Greta's Norwegian

Greta Reinmo became Central's American Field Service, AFS, foreign exchange student for the 1969-70 school year. A native of Norway, she resides with her parents, two brothers, and her Labrador dog, Pike. Greta's American home was with the Gilbert Bells'. Serving as her guide and AFS sister was Kim Bell, sophomore, who introduced our customs, language, and styles to Greta. Seeing Kim participating in many school activities, Greta fulfilled her school year by joining Student Council, A Cappella, and GAA, besides all her community engagements.

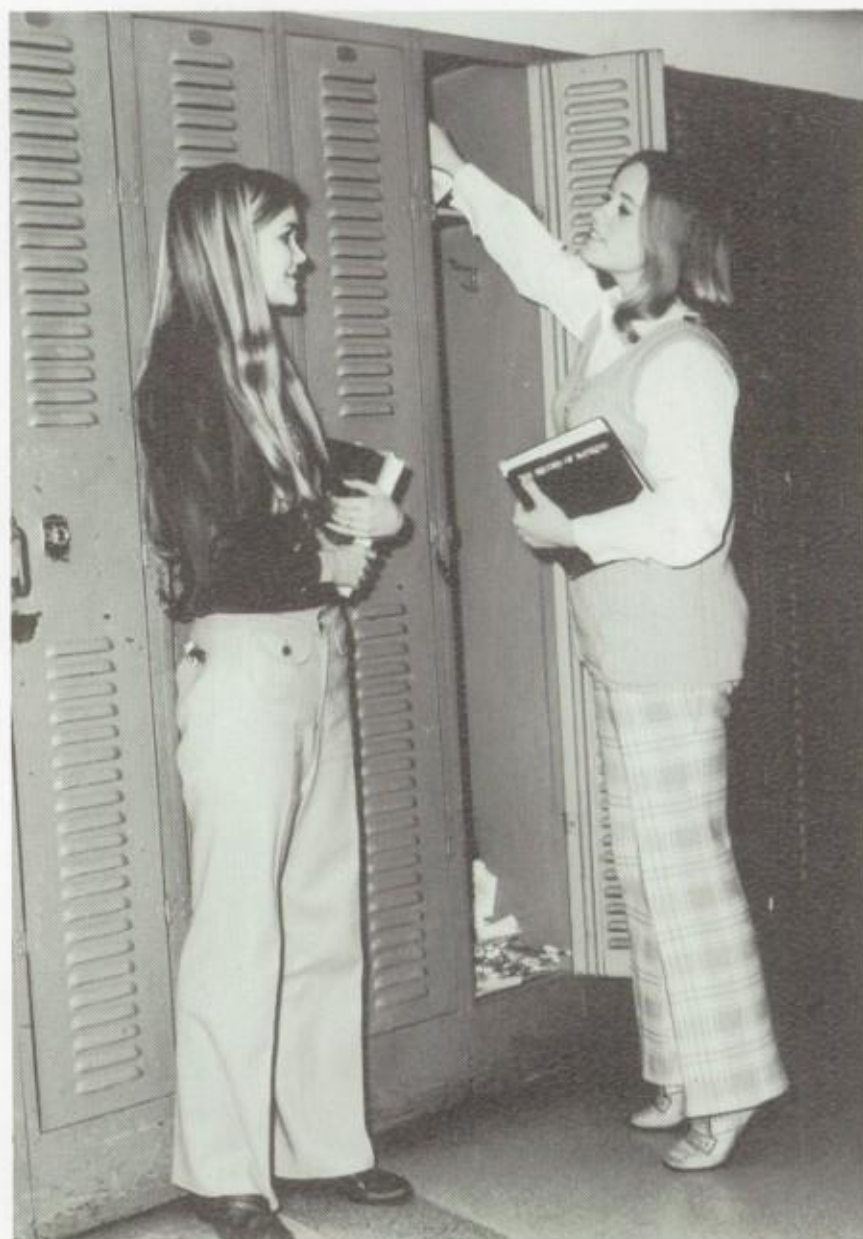

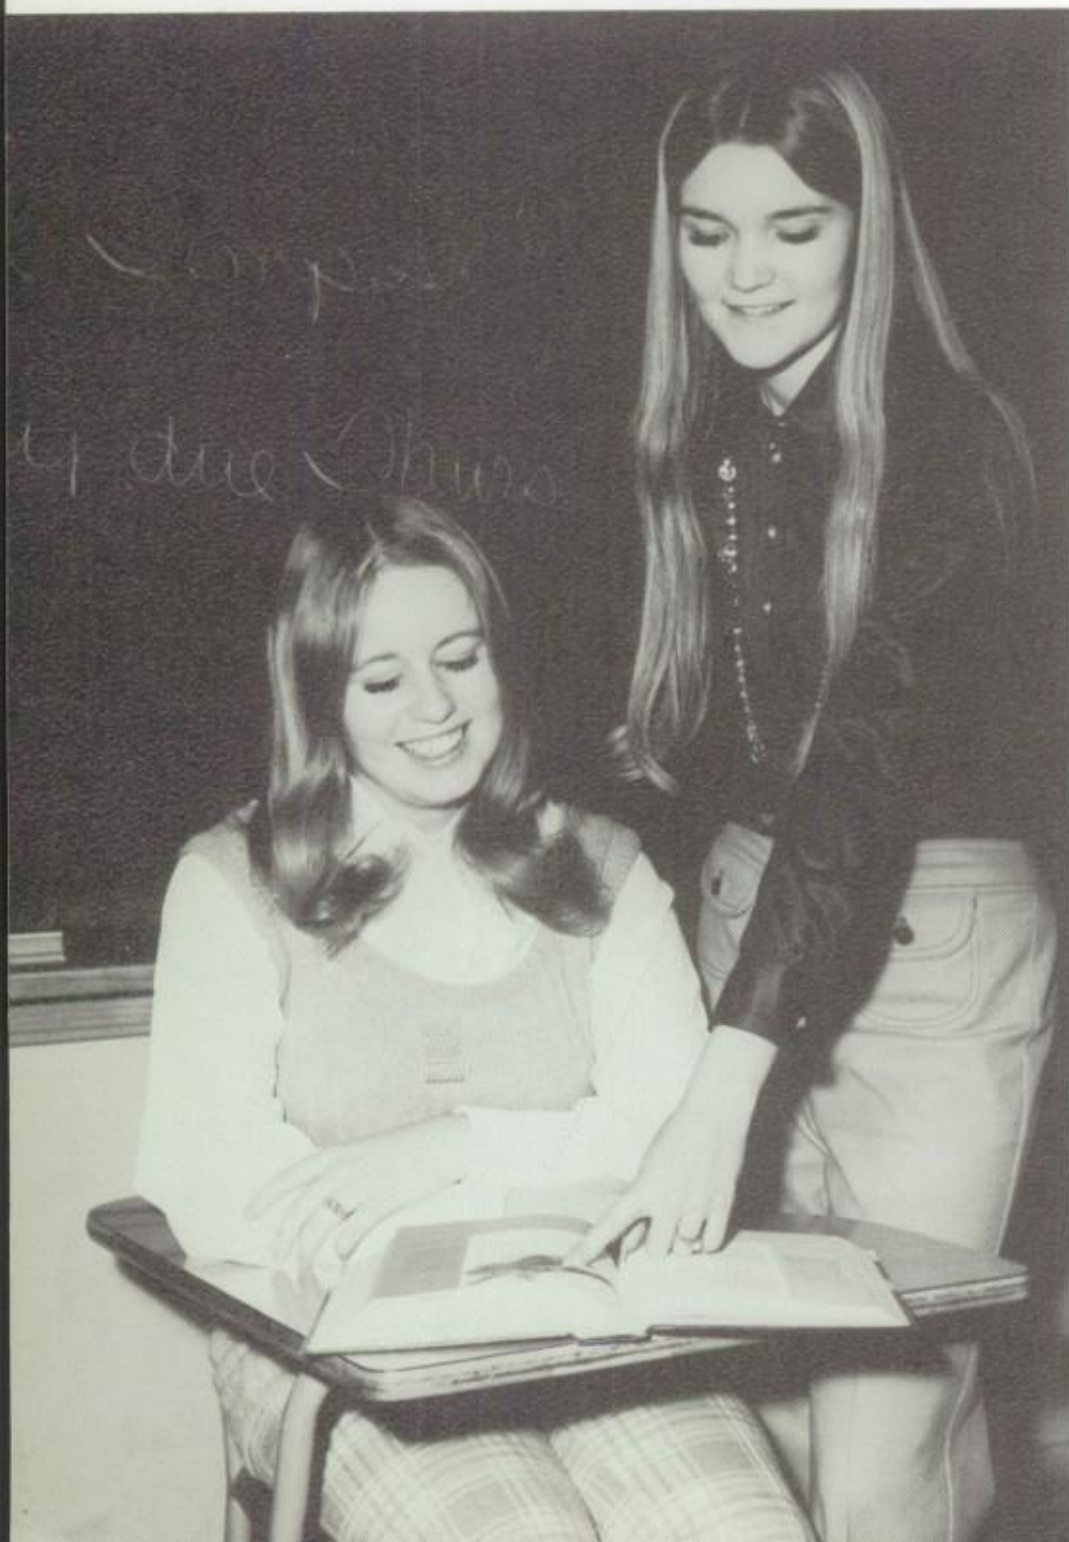

Greta described America as being "enormous, but very beautiful," and had "fully enjoyed her visit here and wished she could return one day soon."

Greta, though being able to fluently speak six languages, needed some grammatical help from her American sister, Kim.

An easy smile and delighted laughter soon came to be identified with Greta's personality.

Greta and AFS host, Kim Bell, both enjoyed Central's new dress code during sub-zero weather. Girls were allowed to wear slacks during freezing temperatures.

Blue Banner Re-Establishes Central's Paper

Central's newspaper, the Blue Banner, was the most informative and enjoyable publication ever produced at Central. Teachers lectures constantly competed for student's attention when a new Banner issue was released. Leadership and organization was achieved as the Banner re-established a bi-weekly paper at Central. To guide the publication to its high quality were the co-editors in chief, Mark Hedman and Robin Schirmer. All the school news was gathered by staff reporters numbering sixteen and handed to Melanie Schirmer to be edited. Pam Corsini acted as feature editor, handling all the controversial issues of the school and community. Fine Arts Editor, Bruce Jasurda, commented on literary works, and records in his column; while Sue Irvin received actual comments from Central students as Roving Reporter. Reporting on sports for the Banner was John Strappazon and his assistant, Tom Reeves. Business managers were Becky Schultz and Jane Haley. Mr. Gene Taylor served as Faculty Advisor for the Blue Banner.

Co-editors in chief, Mark Hedman and Robin Schirmer ponder over continual improvements in the Banner.

Journalism class periods were spent working on the Banner, for actual production was an integral part in learning.

G.A.A., the Girl's Athletic Association is an extra-curricular activity involving approximately one-hundred twenty-five girls of varied interests and abilities. These girls met throughout the year after school showing their dedication to the club. Through their efforts they succeeded in capturing first place in the Homecoming float competition. Many diversified activities were offered to accommodate the interests of all girls. Sportsmanship and leadership were two qualities strongly stressed.

Spectrum 70, Joliet Central's Art Club, gave many students the opportunity to attempt art projects that class time would not permit. Under the guidance of Miss K. Shaw, the club officers were President, Tony Pavenica; Vice President, Mona Branshaw; Secretary, Laura Campos; Treasurer, Phylis Saragosa; Corresponding Sec., Cathy Marusak.

Foreign Language Clubs Bridged Communication Gap

The Spanish Club, under Miss Frenk's supervision, has been very active this year. They sponsored many successful field trips; one comprised of visiting a Spanish restaurant after seeing the play "Man of La Mancha." The officers consisted of Nancy Krause, President; Cindy Waddell, Vice President; and Jeanne Jerzycki Sec.-Treasurer.

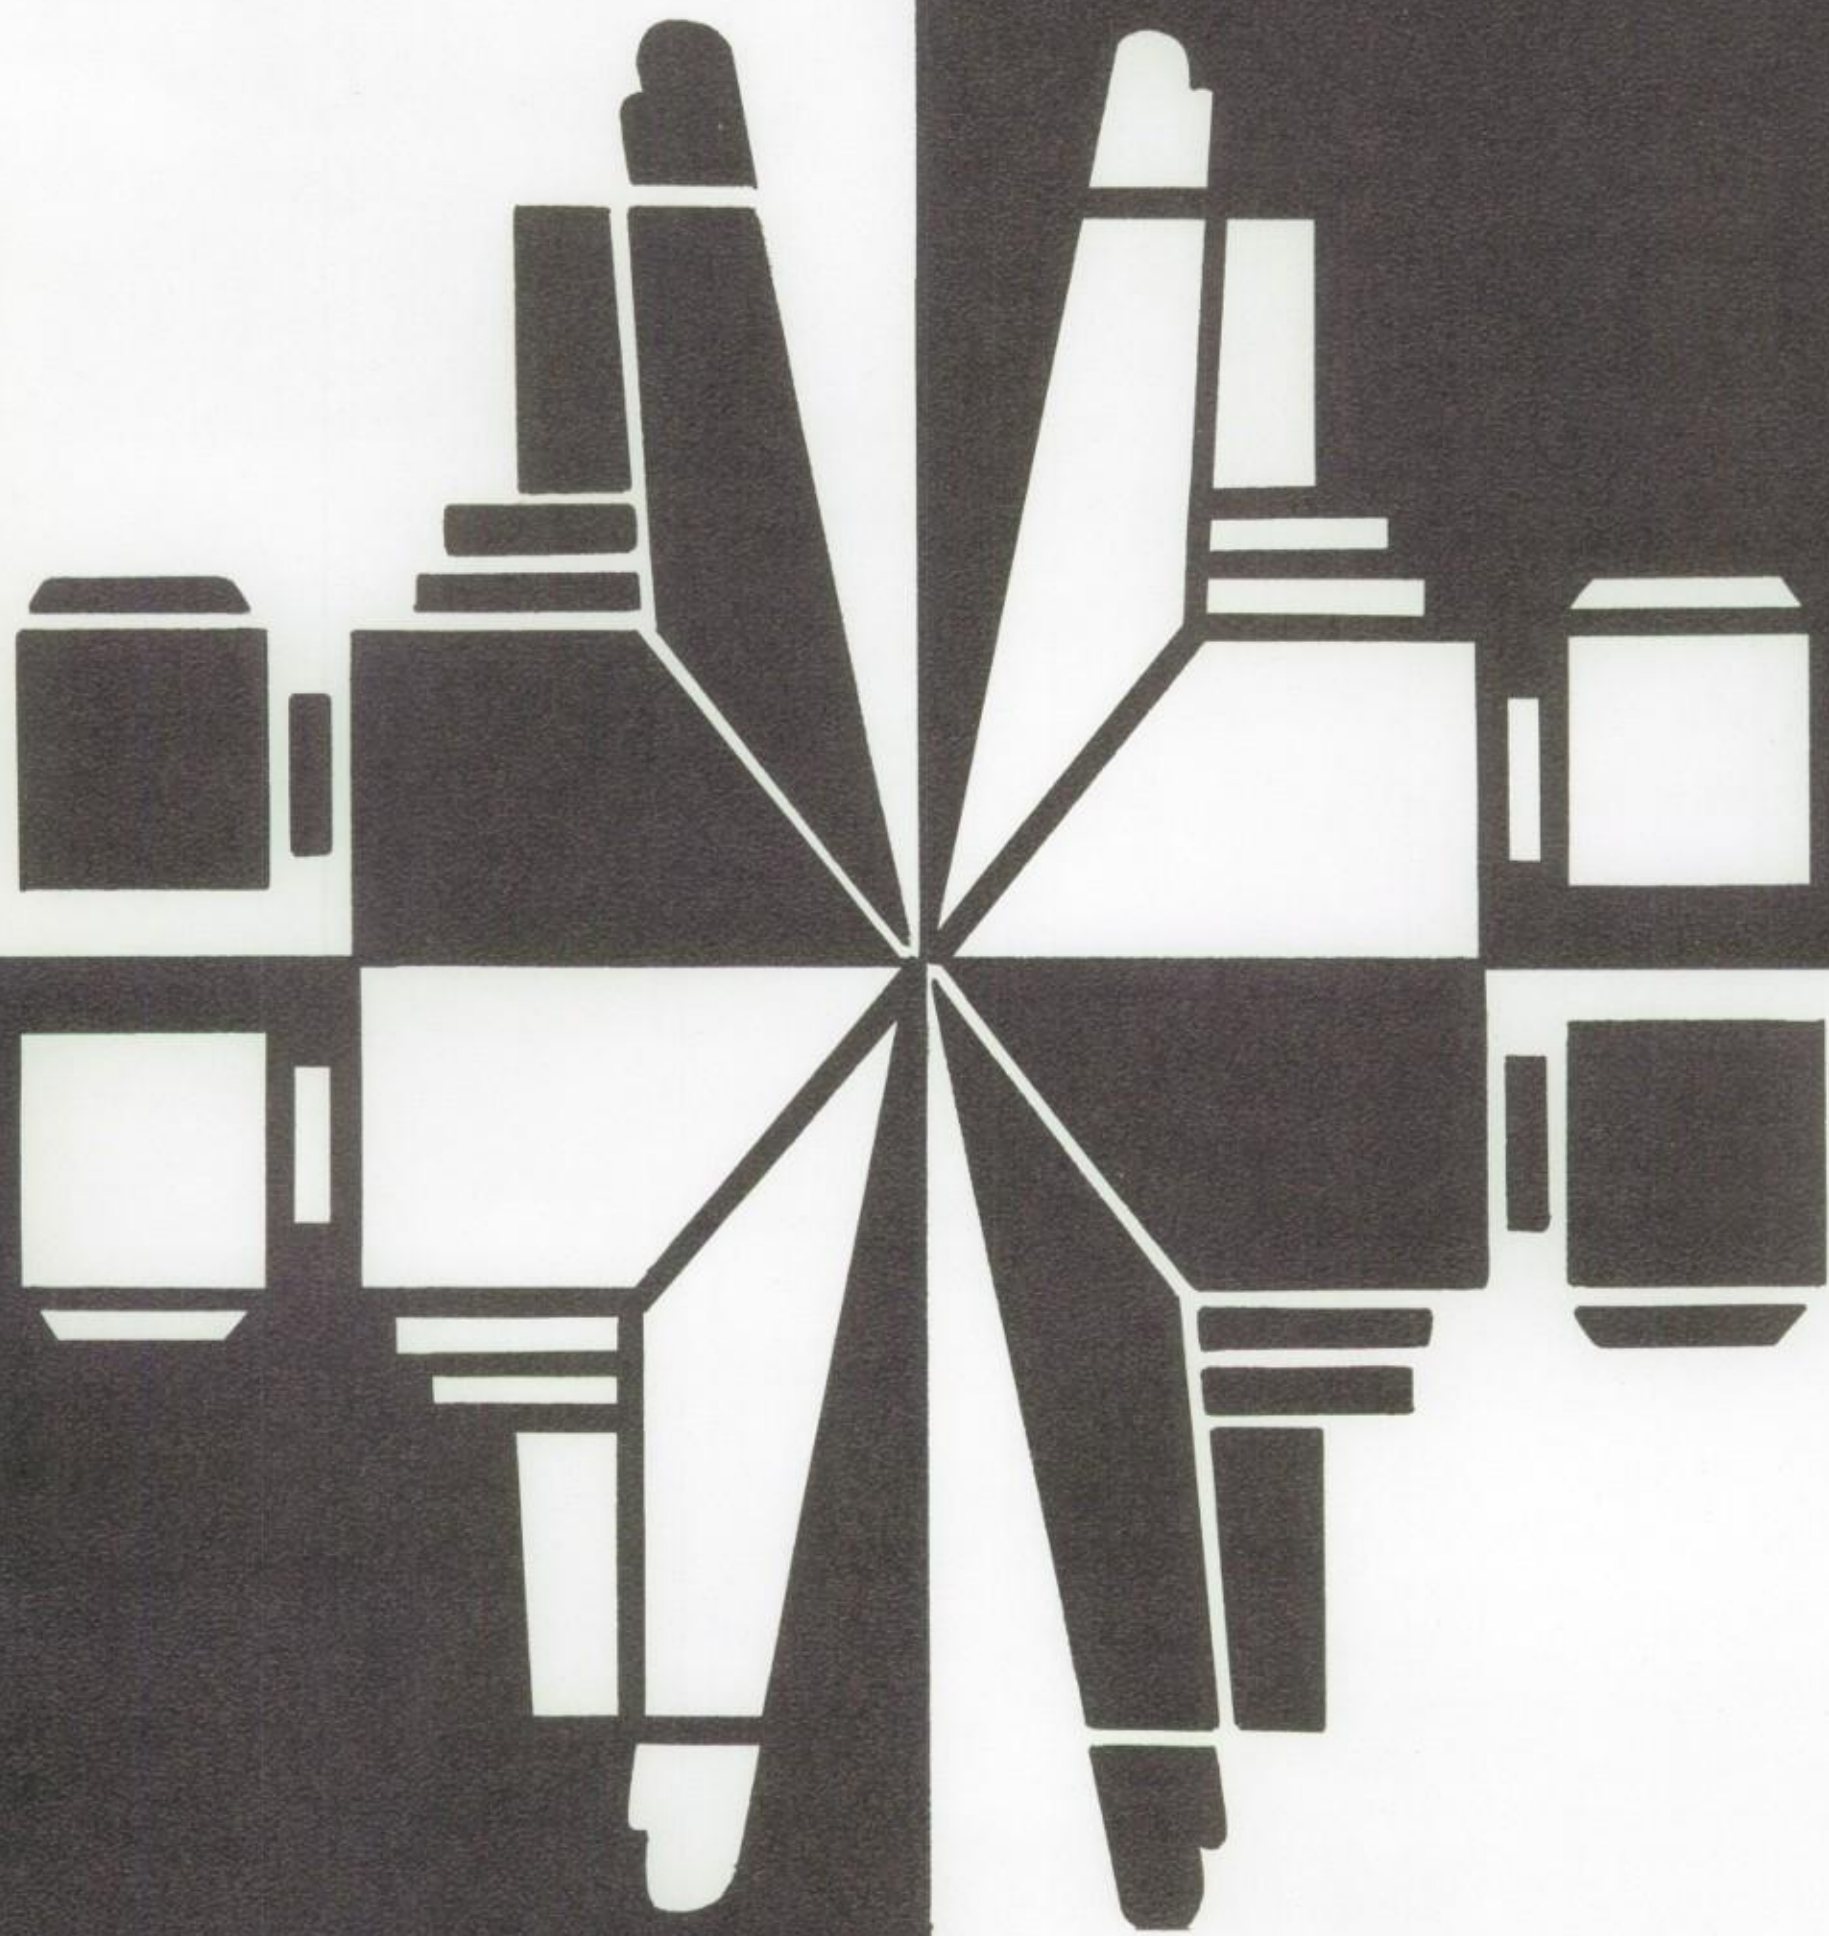

Mike Morrow, President of the French Club, felt that the club had a very successful year. In addition to their sale of Steelmen victory buttons, they make several field trips during the course of the year. Helping Mike was Marilyn Aultz, Secretary.

Mr. Engers' entertaining talks of Germany made all students of the German Club wish and hope they could visit it one day. Mr. Engers, sponsor and co-ordinator of the club, helped initiate several money making activities. Nancy Holmquist served as President of German Club for the year, with Henry Henderson acting as Vice President.

Sportsmanship is Tops

Good sportsmanship is a necessity. This season our team has this quality in them. If they won a meet, which there were plenty of, they always congratulated their opponent on a tough race. If they lost, they admitted their foe was tougher. Pride is another quality necessary. To have pride in your team, is to have a respected team. The Steelmen knew they would have to run this lap harder, or jump higher, or throw farther for Joliet Central, and they did it.

Steve Simpson works and pushes to finish this one with a good time. Steve was a strong asset to this year's team.

Even though the Steelmen fell behind every now and then, we still managed to win most of our meets. Earl Crisp is a little behind here but in the end it's the Steelmen who are ahead.

Robert Galvan and Bob Goolsby get final instructions before running the two mile race at the conference meet.

Senior Alex Hamilton waits patiently for the starters call. He was the teams utility man. When an extra man was needed, Alex was the man.

Stan Jessen was the man who lead the 880 yard relay team to many of their overwhelming victories. He was also a fine competitor in many soph events.

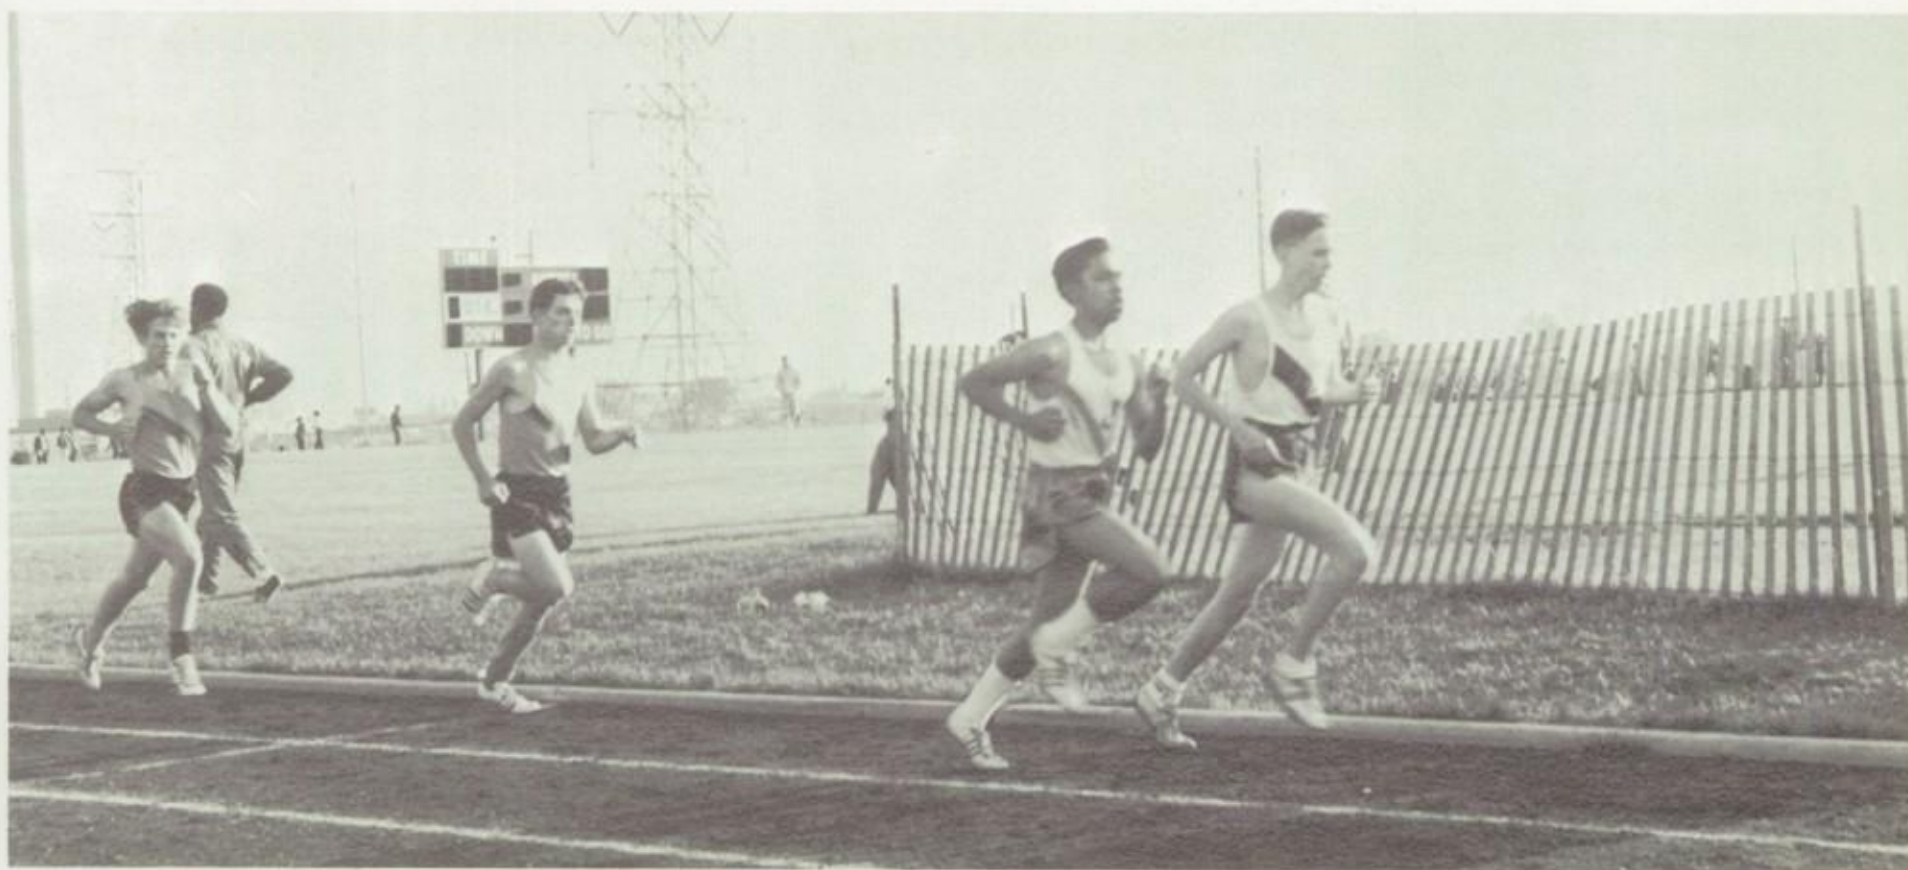

Get them while they are young and train them. That was the motto of the Steelmen during the spring season.

Glen Sterett was a strong determined runner. He competed in both hurdle events and was a fair broad jumper. Glen has a fine future in track.

Bob Galvan displays strength and stamina by moving up quickly early in the lengthy race. Bob ran well during the season and will give a good account of himself next season.

Melvin McFarland was one of the surprises of the season. Melvin came out late in the season and proved he could run.

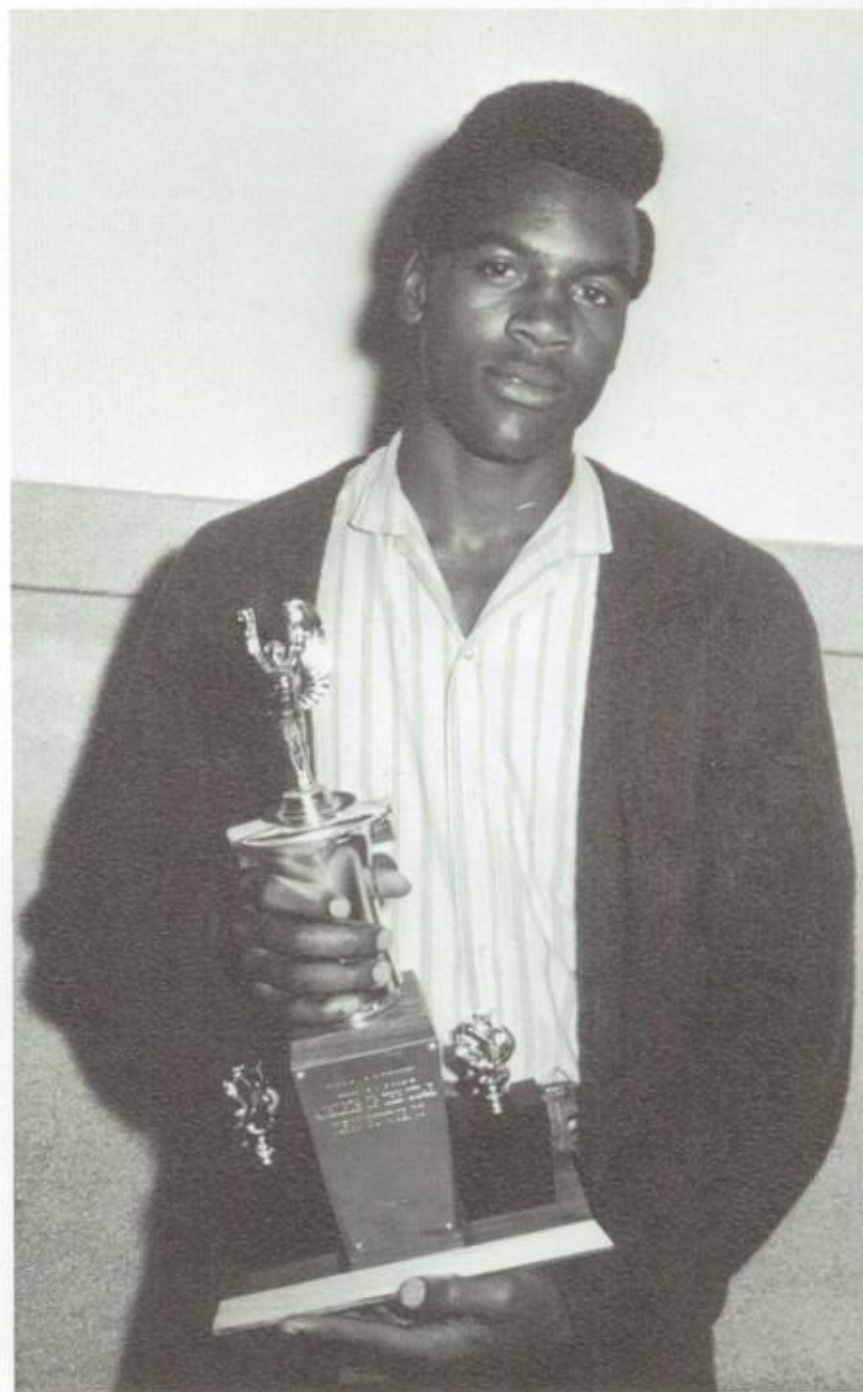

Henry Henderson was one of the outstanding performers of the season. Henry proved he could broad jump as well as he could run at the Will County meet by finishing in the top ten broad jumpers.

Cinderpower comes through, place second in conference.

The trackmen of 69 made a daring attempt at the conference championship. The meets were met with invincible determination and the enemies were defeated. Due to strong running by outstanding athletes like Carlton Quarrels, Kirk Payton, Dave Papesh, and Jack McNiff, to mention a few, the steelmen were always on top when they crossed the finish line. This was the year of the relay teams. The 220 yard relay team qualified to go down state by finishing second at the Ottawa Regional. The 440 yard relay won the second place honors at the Will County Meet early in the season. At the regional, Carlton Quarrels managed to come in second in both the 100 yard dash and the 220 yard dash. Dave Papesh turned in a fine performance in the 440 yard dash by finishing second on the rain soaked field.

Earl Crisp one of the best all around trackmen that Central has had in many years. Earl pole vaulted, ran both high and low hurdles, ran the last leg of the 880 yard relay, and on occasion broad jumped when the chance came up.

Jack McNiff and Don Tomez are at the point of no return, they have been trained to do a job and now they face the moment of truth. Both of these men are half milers, they are about to run their last half of their senior careers. These men will probably move up to compete on the college level.

When the race is over, the finish line is a welcome sight. Whenever a steelman runs, he puts his heart and soul into the competition. Jack McNiff proves this by the expression on his face.

Kirk Payton met his moment of truth at the conference meet at West, because of the lack of time, Kirk didn't warm up enough and pulled a muscle.

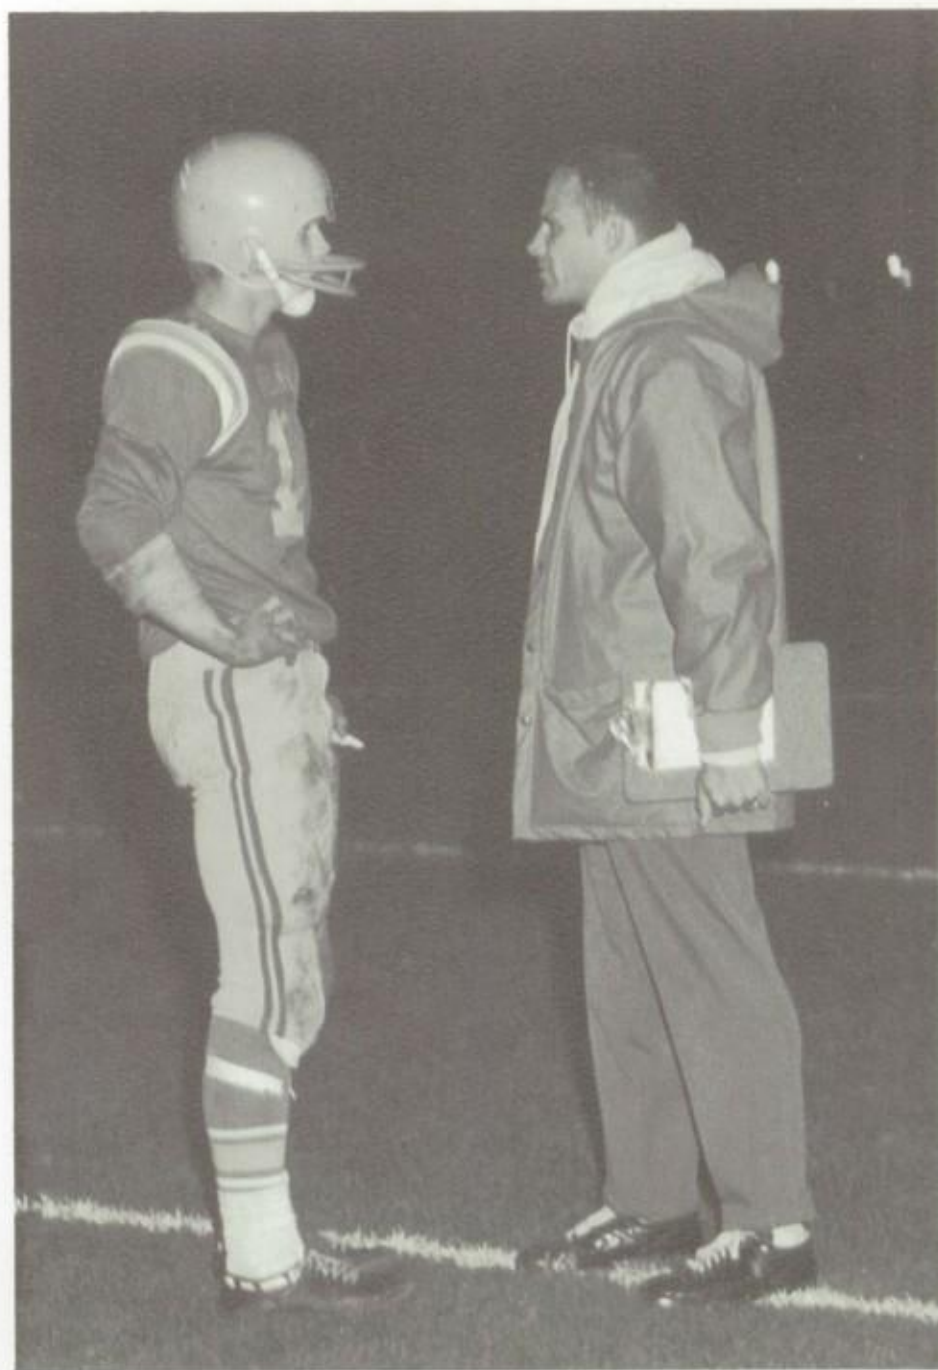

FOOTBALL

Pride, Defense

Major Factors of Success

The Steelmen Varsity Football Squad finished with an impressive record of 7-2. The Steelmen were graced with outstanding backs such as Juniors Henry Henderson, Jim Jones, and Kirk Payton, game breaking runners. Seniors Mike Barden and Al Kostelec, both members of the all city squad, formed a human wall which many teams found hard to break. Buzz Gibbons led the way downfield for our team. He called all the plays, made decisions in emergencies, and made up for mistakes, which numbered in few. He was aided in his decisions by his fellow Co-Captains, Bill Denewillis, and Chuck Holman. Runningback Chuck Holman, also Homecoming King, was a fantastic player though hampered by injuries. Leading the front four or "Robbins Rampagers" was All State defensive guard, Senior Mike Barden. Helping him in the defensive line were key players Jerry Raino and Al Kostelec. This was another hard fought year but not without honors for we took second place in the conference.

Auhhhhhh! Not that way!" But Coach Robbins really did a fine job and the Steelmen had a team to be proud of.

Central and West, two of the greatest rivals, battled for the Illini 8 Conference title.

Steelmities Have Trouble Handling Pigskin

Although there were few wins for the sophomores this year, the knowledge and experience which they gained gives us much hope for next year's season. Encouraged by coaches Pious and Johnson, the Steelmites made a great effort and we were proud of their hard work. All through the season the boys stayed optimistic and willing to strive hard. Heartbreak came in the form of thin margin losses. The Steelmites chewed up time on the ground and in the air. Though touchdowns weren't scored, points were scored in strategy and capability.

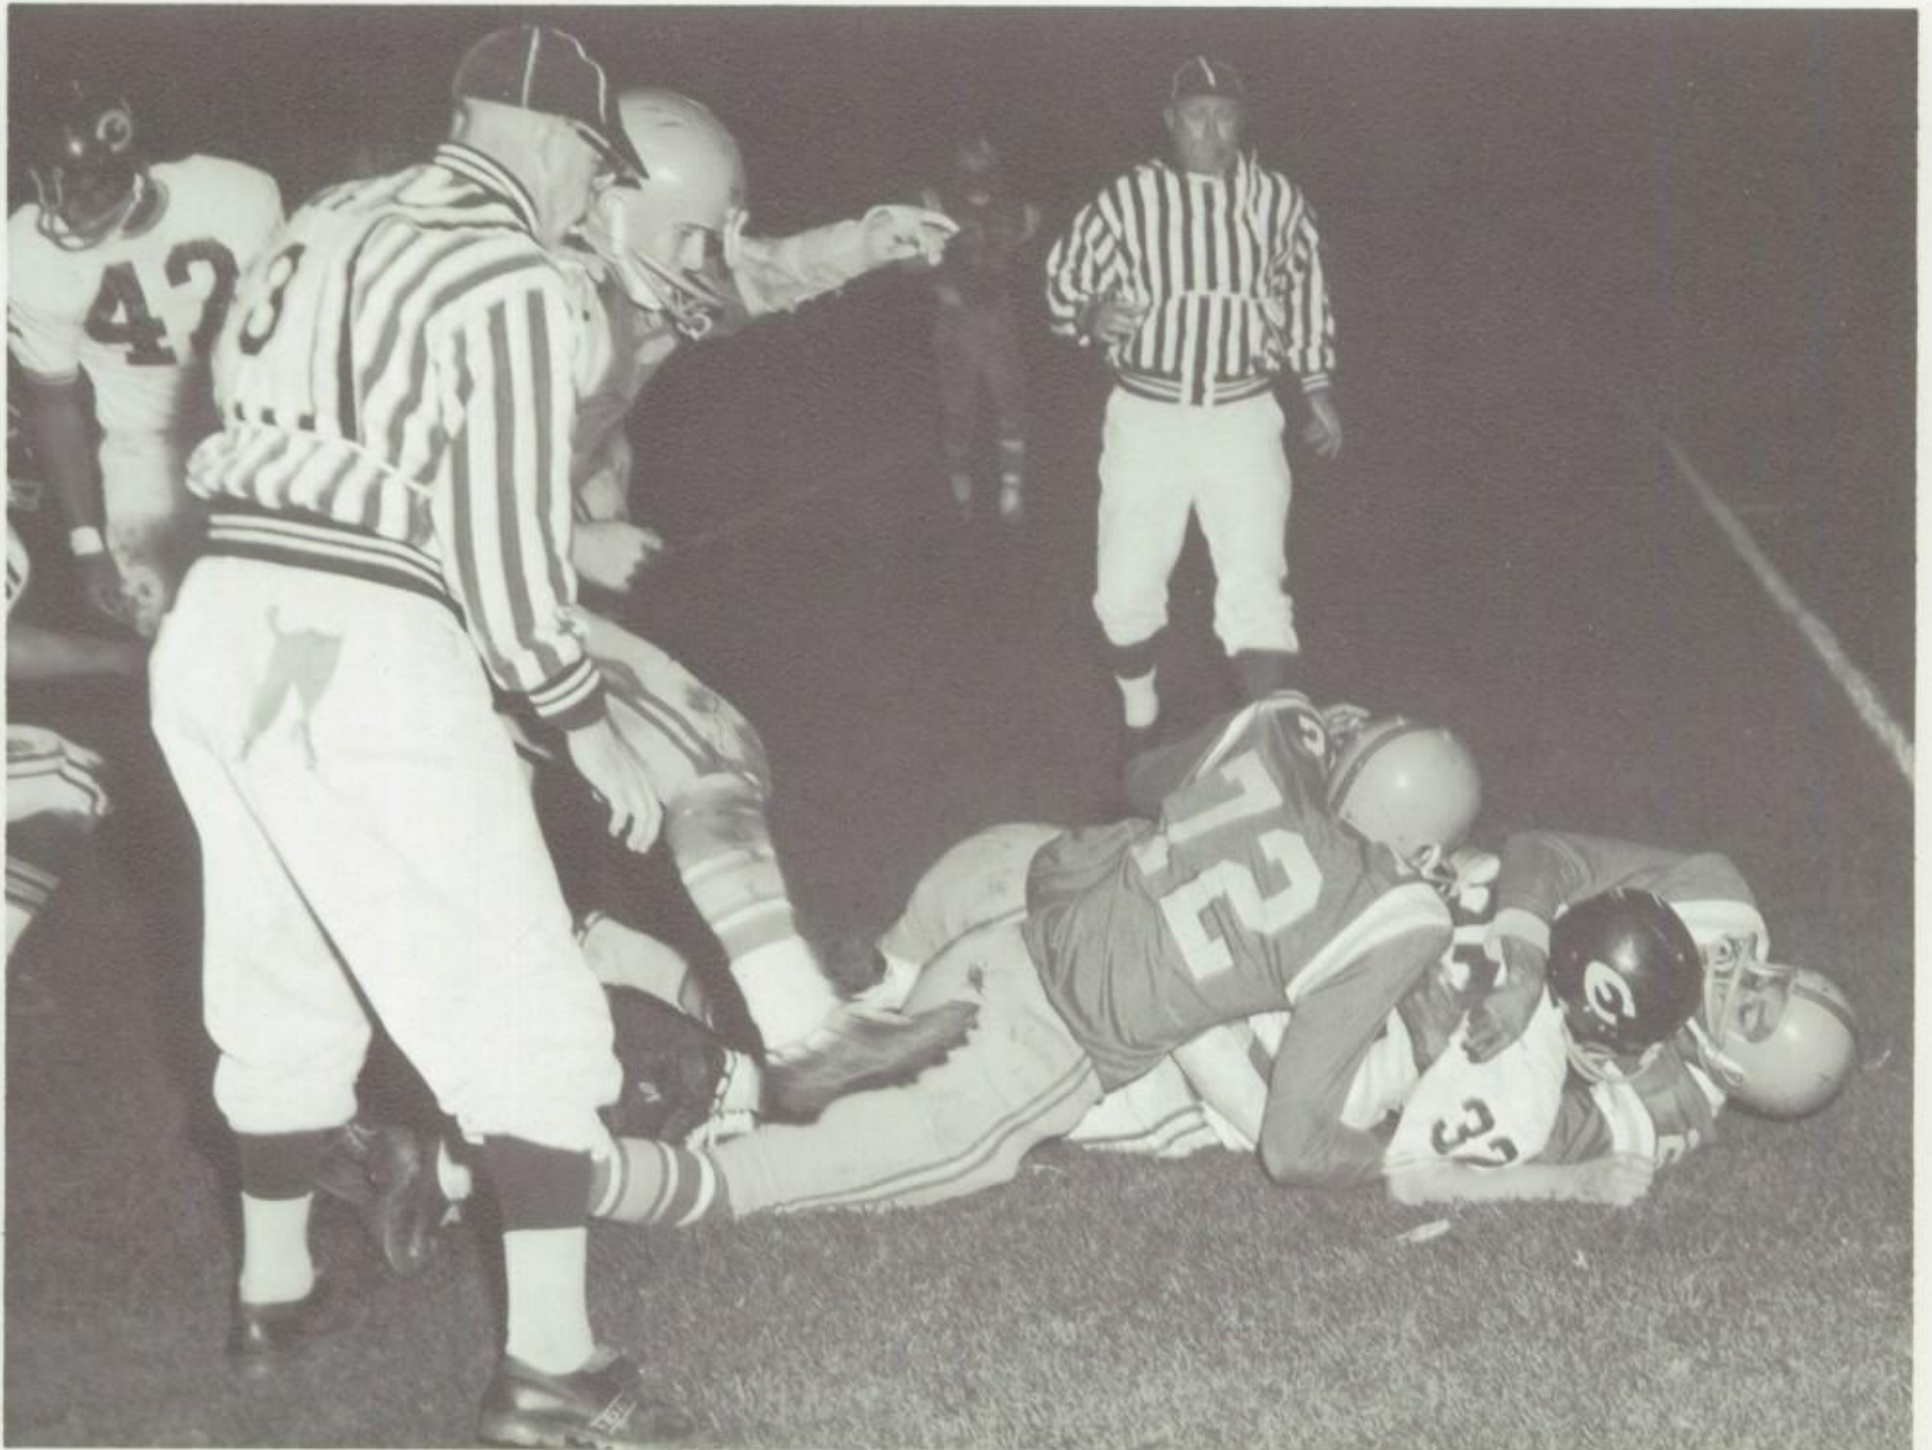

(1st row) Steve Mahoney, Jeff Shonk, John Gomez, Wayne McDaniels, Rich Gurnitz, Dan Landrith, John Sprenger, Sidney Dove, Jerry Bersano, Bob Bilek. Steelmen "Steel the Crown" Earn 2nd place in the Illini-8 Conference

Homecoming night at Memorial Stadium proved to be a fine offensive performance for our Steelmen. Fullback Bill Jackson, was hard to stop and interceptions by Jim Bolte and Hank Henderson helped our cause. The 34-12 victory also depended tremendously on defensive linemen such as Dave Kraft, Chuck Parker and Bill Denewellis.

Our last game against the Joliet West Tigers was tension filled and very important. The conference Championship was decided in a tough, well matched bout, and though West came out ahead in points the Steelmen were still 1st in the hearts of loyal Central fans. The final score was 8-6.

Holman runs for a touchdown in the East-Central Homecoming game. His speed and stamina were outstanding and appreciated.

On the way to another big gain.

"Can't we talk this game over pal?"

"Hup two, three, four! Holman leads them on score!"

BASKETBALL

Steelmen Fire Up For Conference Championship

Coach Glenn combined ability, potential, and sweat to grind out the greatest basketball team Central's seen in years. A team which placed 1st in the Illini-8 Conference and 1st in the heart of spirited Steelmen could not be beat. Crowds jammed the stands to watch the inevitable. Joliet West couldn't stop us. Lockport West couldn't stop us. Even Lockport Central couldn't stop us. Close games (66-61) couldn't have been more exciting but the pressure brought out the best, and the best is Joliet Central.

Charles Hughes scores two in crucial Illini-Eight Victory over the Porters.

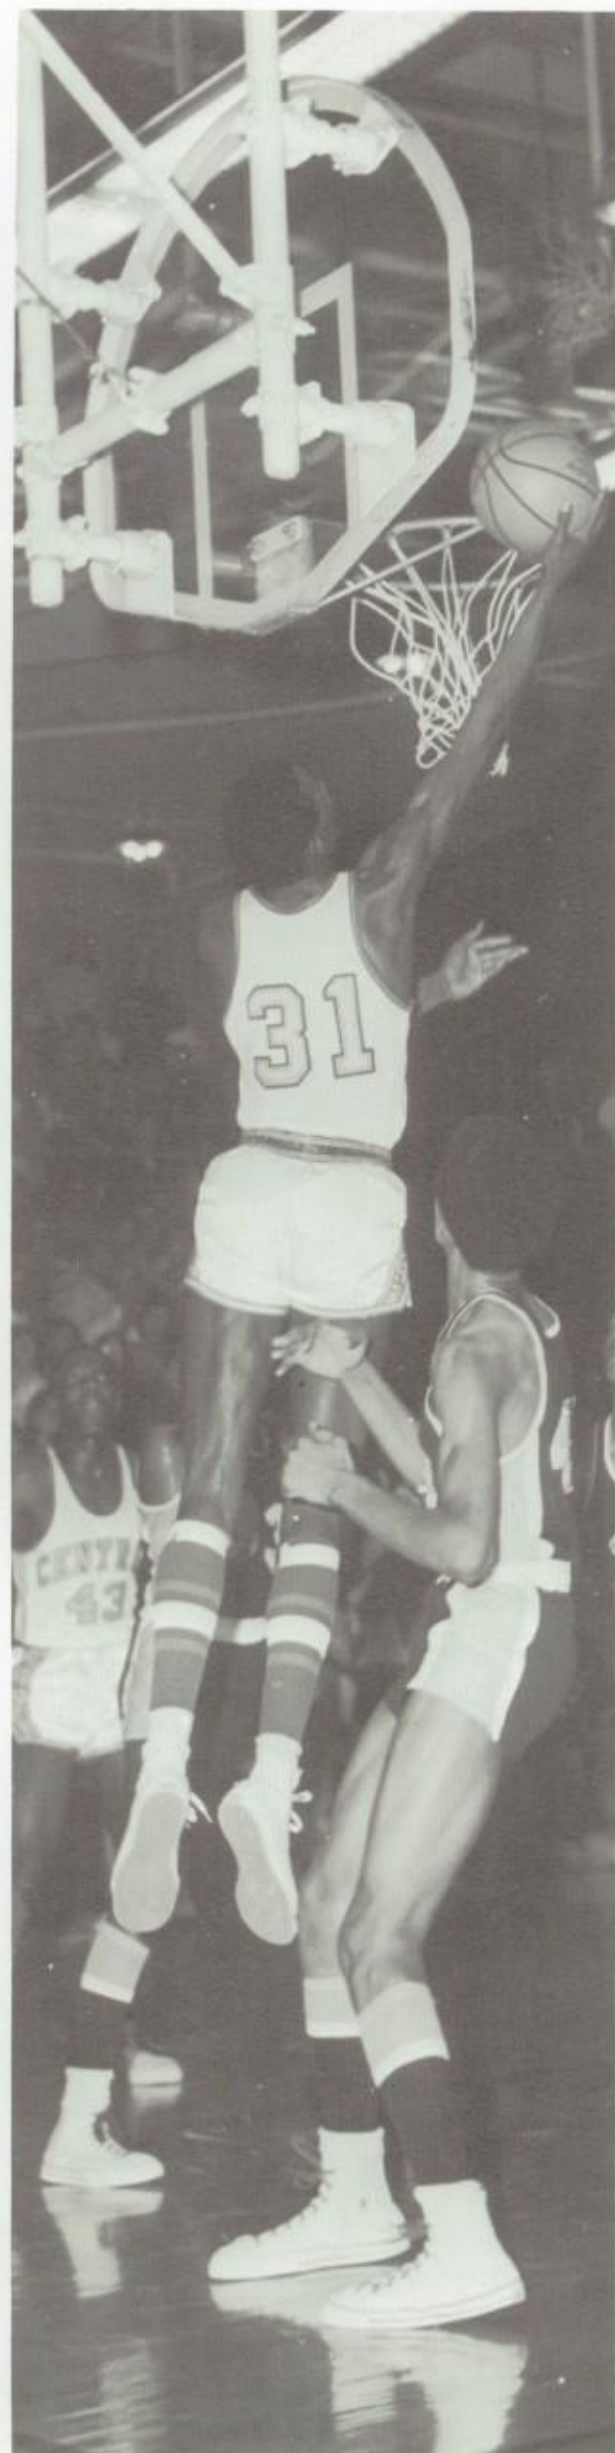

Roger Powell joins his teammates, Charles Wallace, Jeff Jones, Mel McFarland, and Charles Hughes, eager to lead the Steelmen to victory.

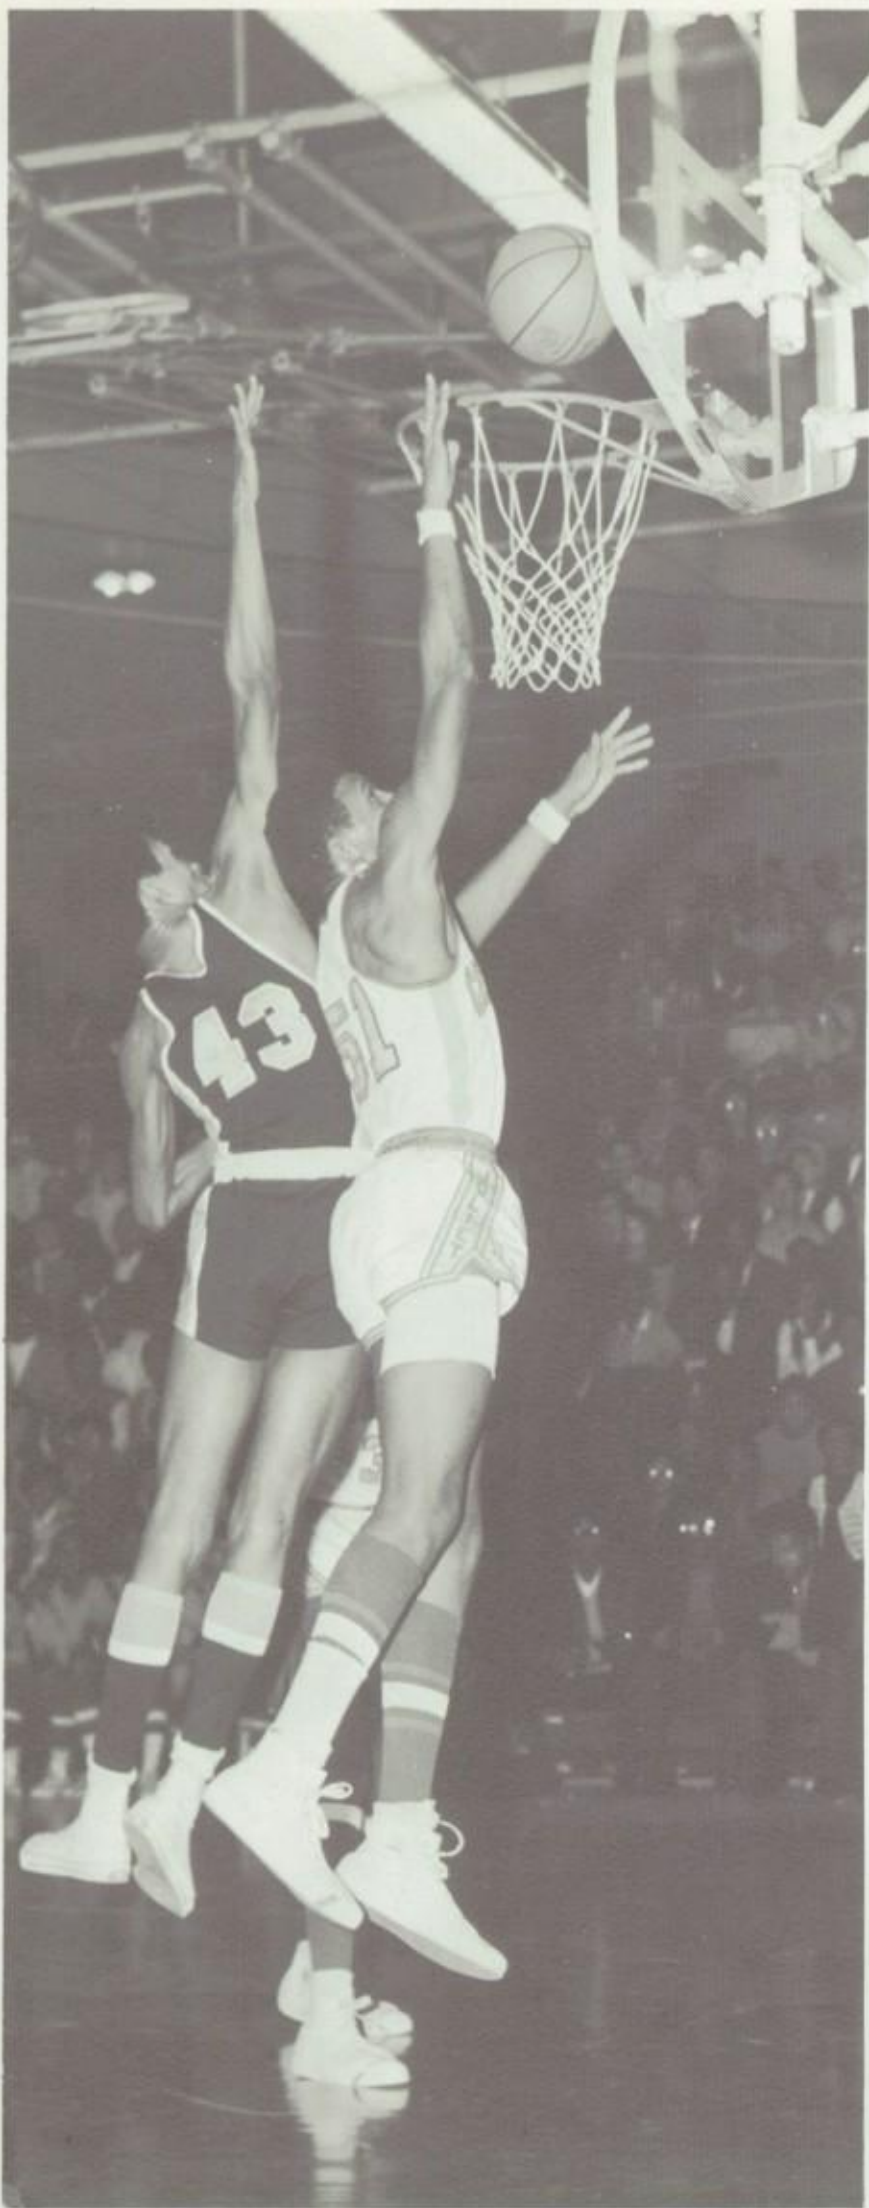

Ron Williams came off the bench many times to lead the Steelmen to victory. As Coach Glenn would say, "He was always there when we needed him."

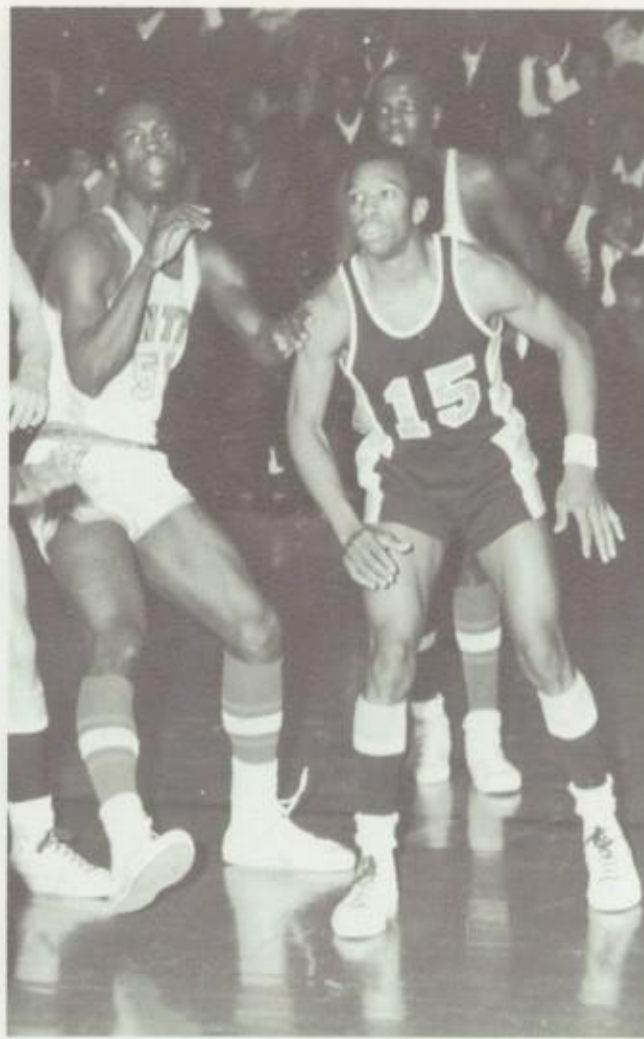

"Thought you'd get away with that one, huh Charlie?"

Charley Wallace puts the team ahead with a bucket of two.

Jeffery Jones matches his opponent with ability, endurance, and precision.

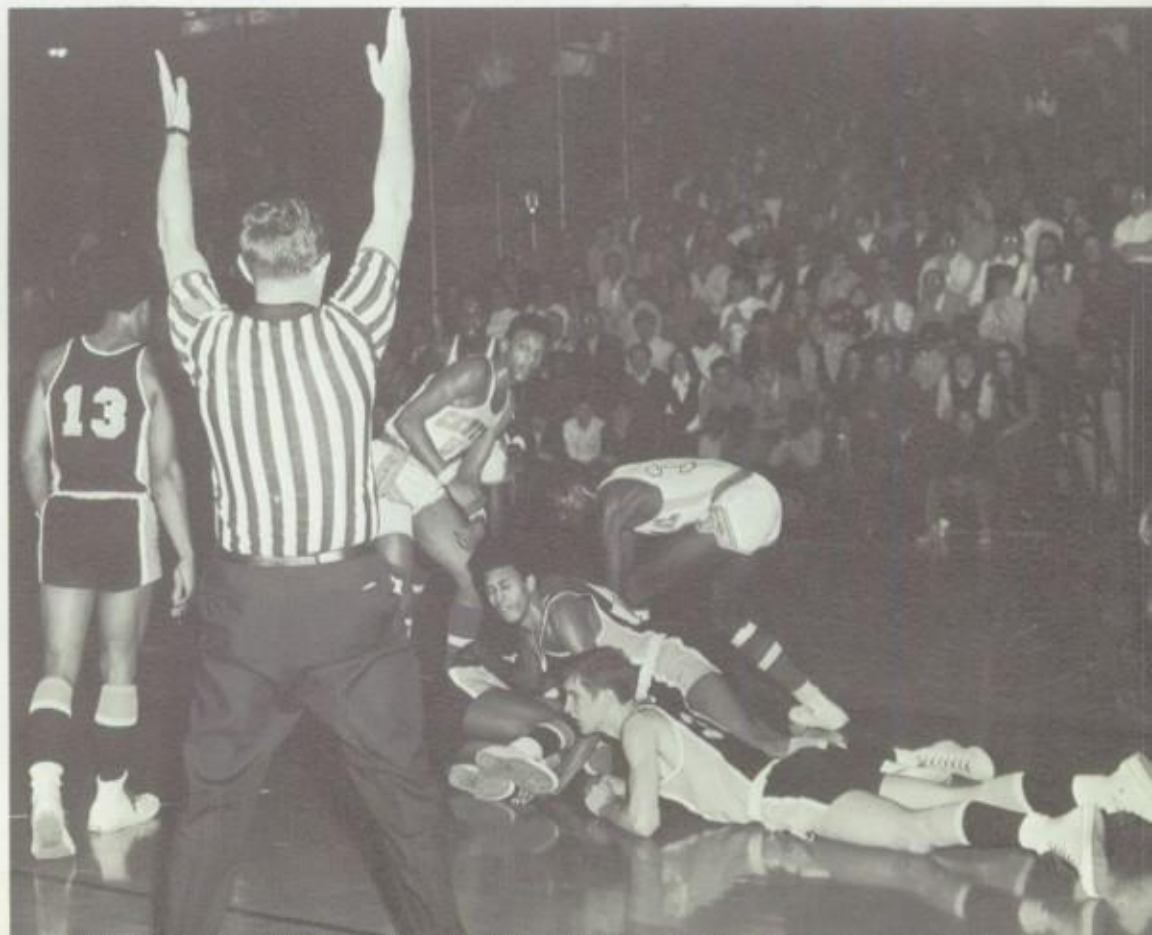

This was truly a fight to the finish.

Cagers Provide Best Year Yet

This was really the "Year of the Steelmen." Our team showed improved ability in shooting rebounding, applying pressure and endurance throughout the season. But the road to conference championship was filled with many obstacles. Some were easy to move. Some were not. Leading the offense were two aggressive Co-Captains, 6'3" Senior Chacles Hughes, and 6'6" Senior Charles Wallace. Reaching out tenacled arms, they pulled in both offensive and defensive rebounds, a main factor in our continued success. But these two only made up 2/5 of the team. Adding to the height was 6'6" forward Jeff Jones. His consistency in shooting from the corner enabled high scores in every game. When in trouble his brother Ray was a vital asset in coach Glenn's strategy. Another Junior we couldn't do without was 6'5" center Mel McFarland. His great defensive play held Lockport's Clarence Bates to 7 points and West's Dick Fick to only 13. An outstanding Sophomore who earned his place among the greats was 6'3" Roger Powell. His impassible jumpers from 30 feet out made crowds roar to their feet. The nucleus is established. But a "super-sub" still deserves much credit. Ron Williams came off the bench during crucial moments and never failed the spirited Steelmen.

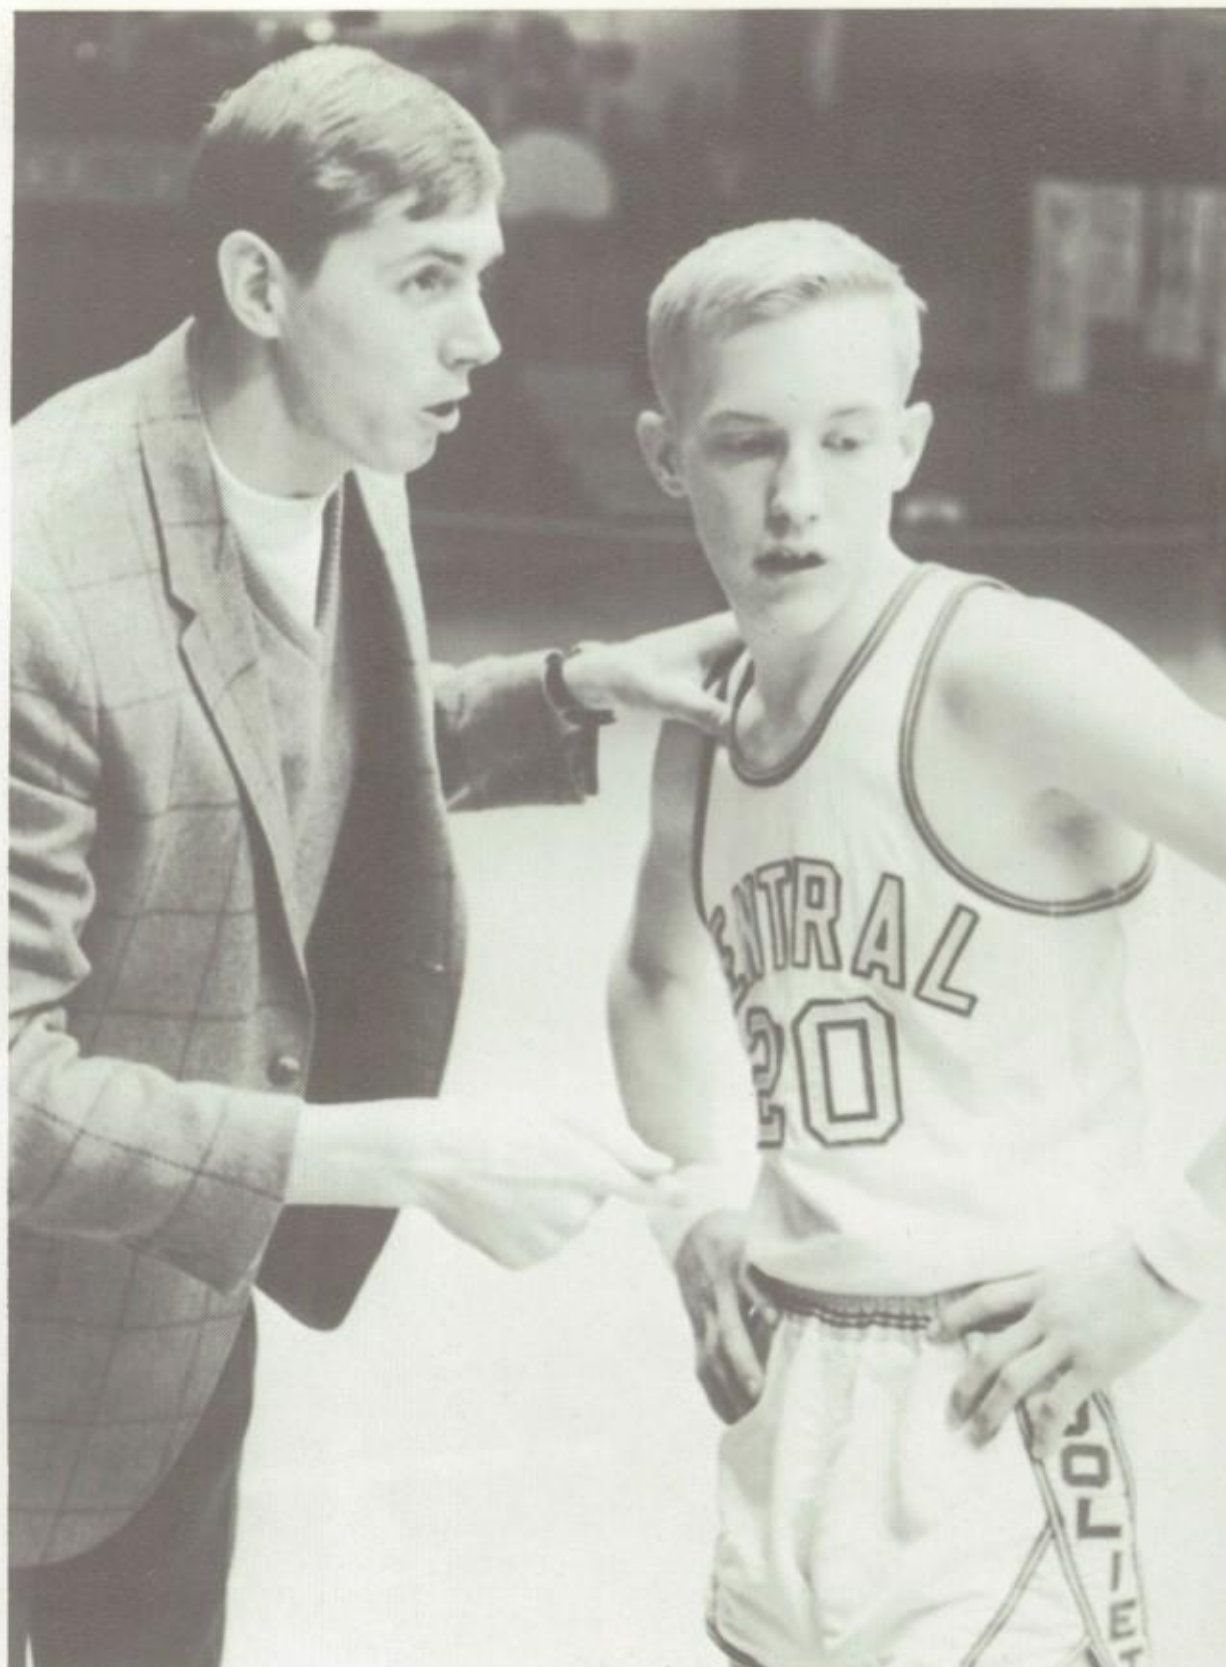

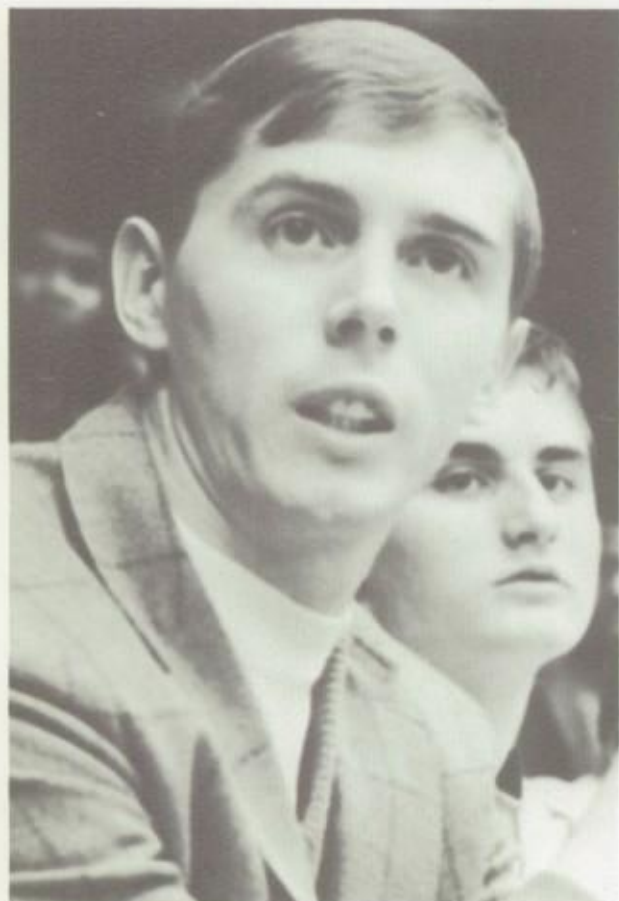

Mel McFarland tensely awaits a rebound. "Who's got the ball?"

The Steelmites Suffer Losses But Gain Experience

It was a rough year for the Steelmites, but their hard work led them to obvious improvement. Despite the fact that Sophomore Roger Powell was moved up to the varsity level, the Steelmites lost numerous games by only 2 or 3 points. Phil Clark, the center for the team was responsible for many of the points and rebounds. John Corcoran, a fast and agile guard had trouble connecting his long shots, but helped us continuously in other departments. Irv Mc Gee was brought up from the freshman squad as anticipated. The new coach, Mr. Denny Pace, kept the team spirit up, and was assisted by Coach Ken Robbins.

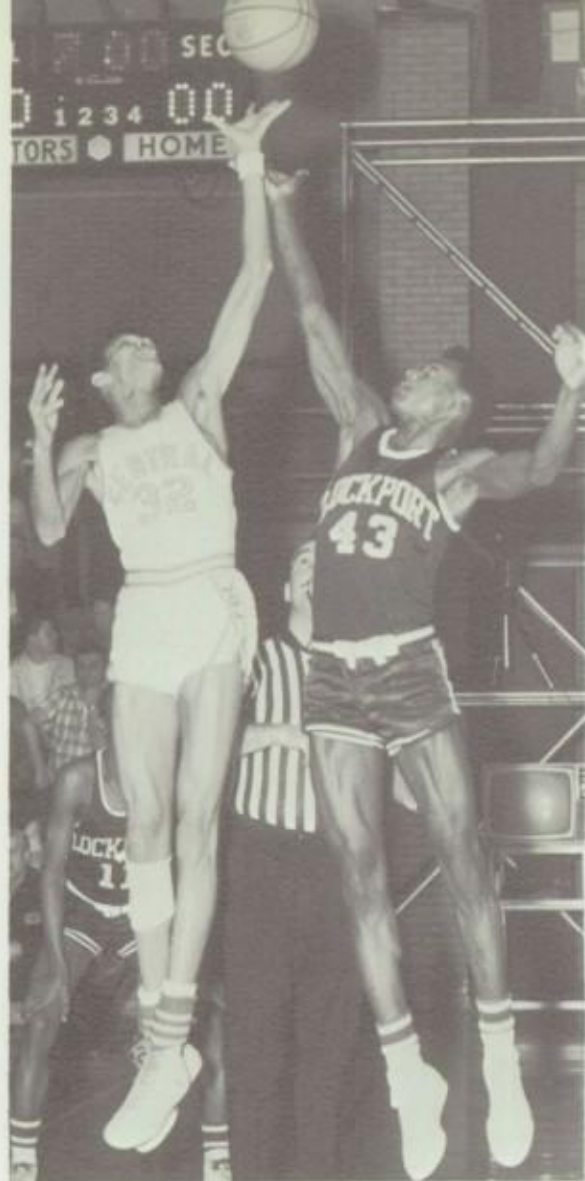

Mr. Pace sat on the sideline as he anxiously awaited the start of a new game.

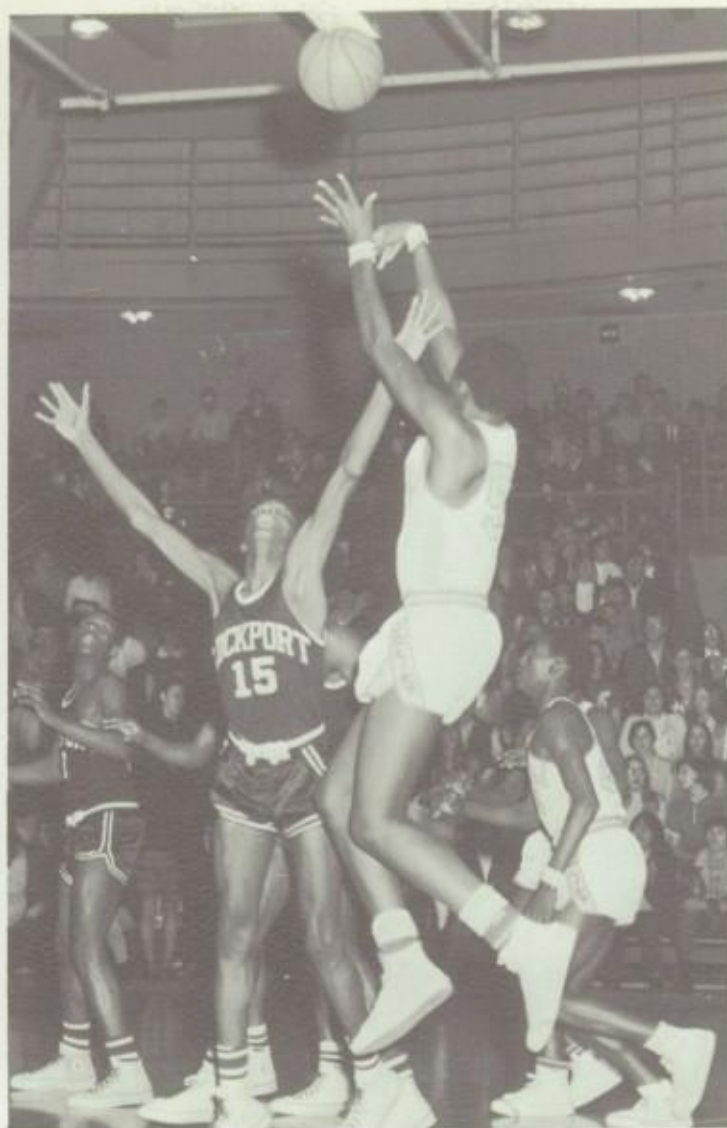

Coach Denny Pace, a former college basketball star, stresses the importance of teamwork to John Corcoran, one of his Steelmites.

Joliet Central's Irving Washington drives around a Lockport Central defender.

Phil Clark overpowered Lockport by a tip in by Phil Clark.

Phil Clark rushes in as his Central teammate attempts a field goal. A Lockport athlete attempted a block.

Above: Sophomore John Corcoran was a driving force behind the Steelmities this year. He proved his consistency even under extreme pressure.

After a well hit ball Jerry Walker succeeds in reaching first base for the Steelmen.

Jim Peterson is shown here ready and well for any ball hit to him. Jim was also an excellent out-fielder.

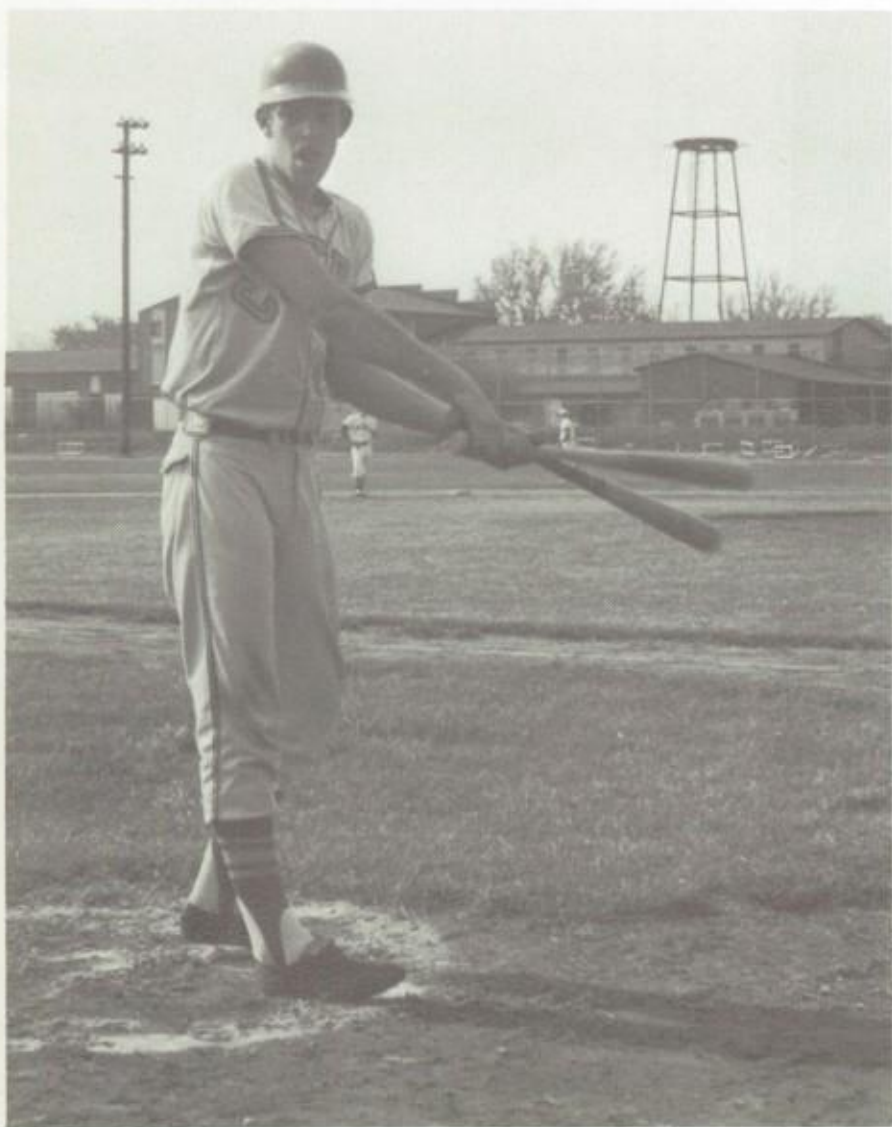

Dave Pomykala, a returning varsity letterman, warms up before the game.

Baseball Players Hit Their Way Into Rough Season

The 68-69 Baseball team had a challenging season. There were some rough times and when they played well, it was against the better teams. As for next year, they don't promise anything, but they should have enough experience to place high in the Illini-8 conference once more. Coach Miller's confidence in his team should pull them through this year.

Roy Tripple practices catching ground balls.

Dave Johnston prepares for his turn at bat. Dave was a strong hitter which helped us much for a win.

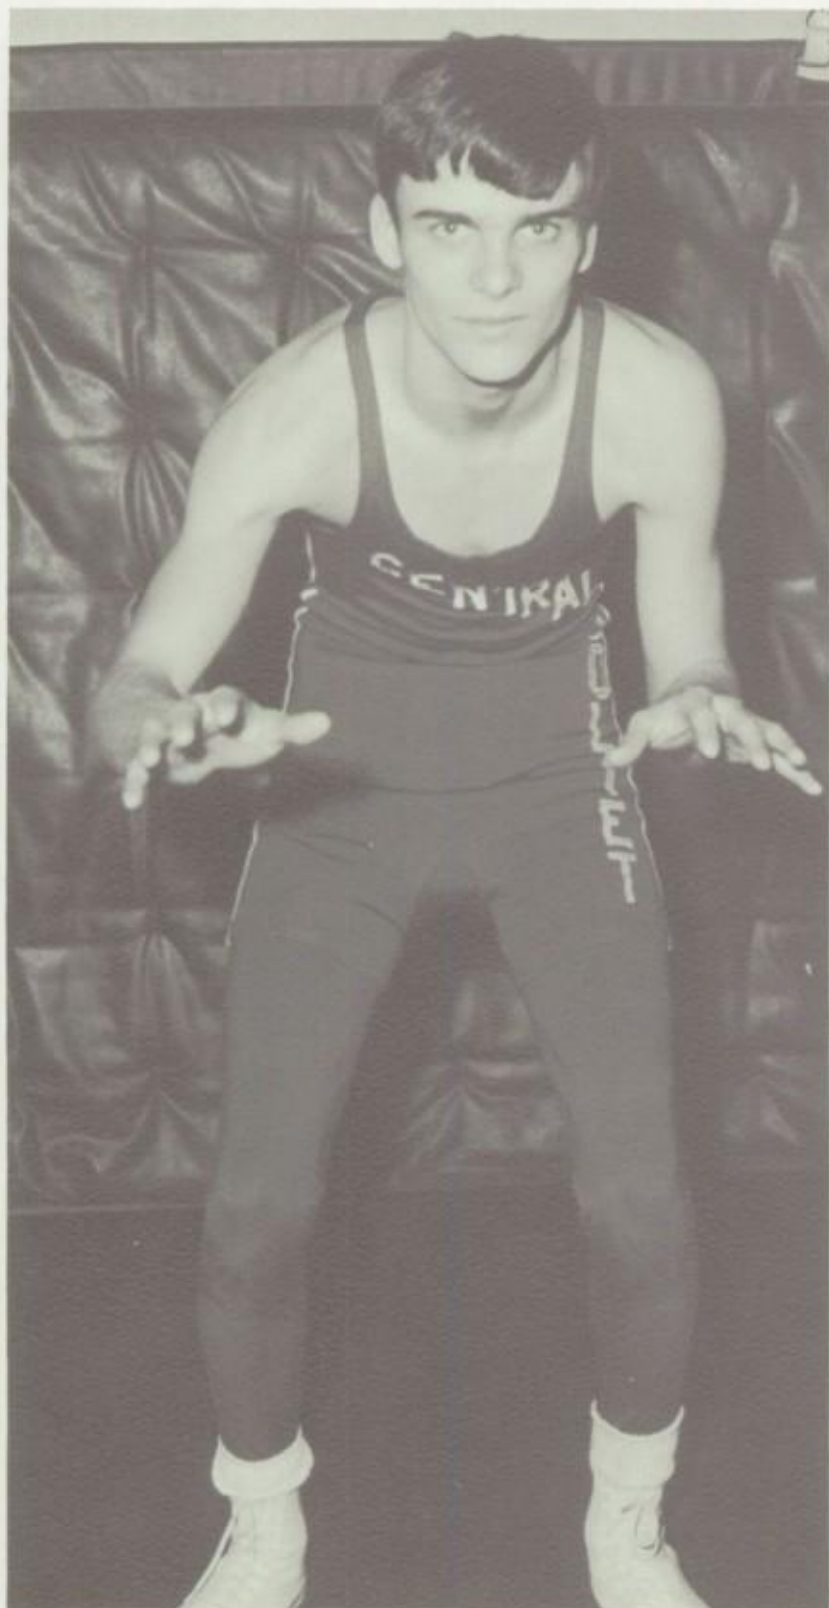

Roy Tripple rounds first base after hitting a home run. Roy is also a re-turning letterman as a pitcher.

Buzz Gibbons is shown here making a single. Buzz will probably be starting pitcher next year.

Many Skills Needed By Varsity Wrestlers

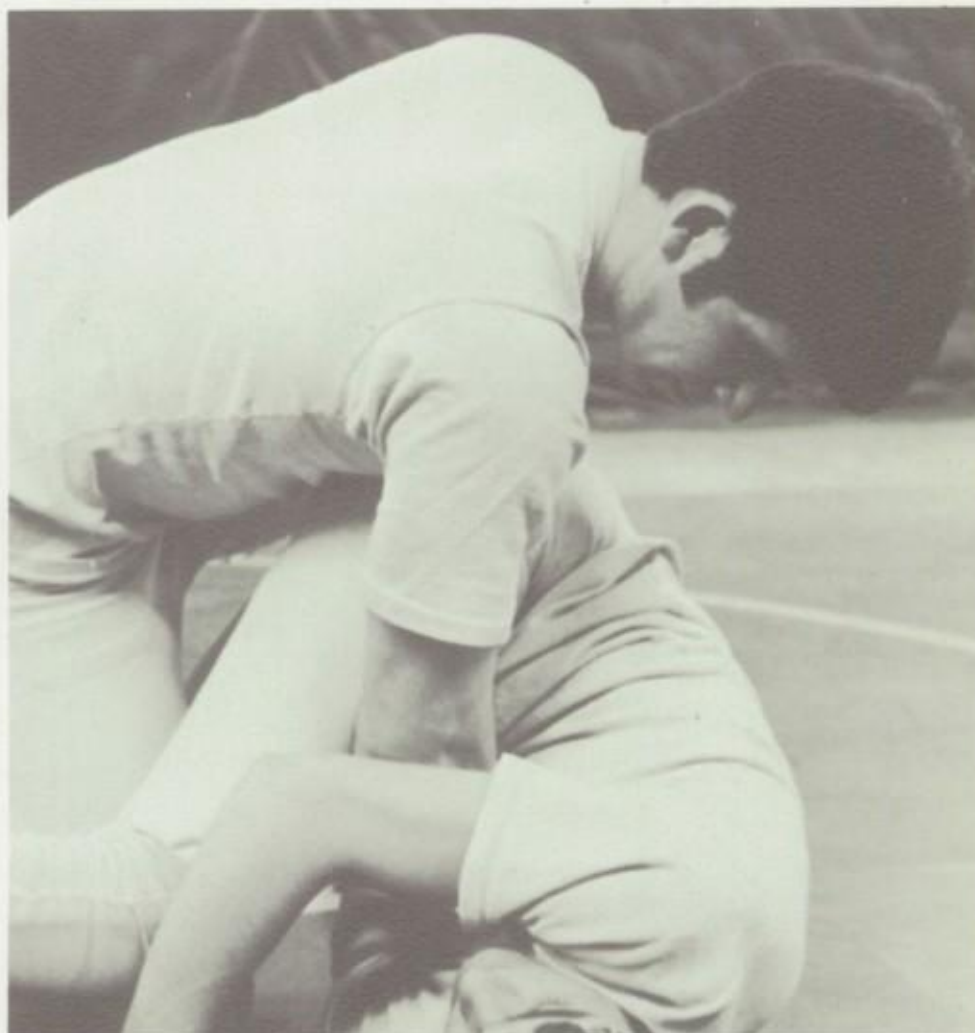

This year the Varsity grapplers proved that they had the power and skill it takes to come out on top. They never failed to thrill the loyal fans with takedowns, escapes, and pins. Mike Barden who wrestled heavy-weight, was one reason for the Steelmens' success. He was a standout wrestler who won the City Quarrangler Title and the Illini-Eight Conference Championship besides going undefeated in dual meets. Hard work and much sweat proved essential for the continued consistency of Ken Vicich. At 115 pounds he advanced to sectionals and did well. But the whole team deserves credit and mention for a truly great season.

One of the varsity squad members, Ken Vicich, a senior took the starting position as he began one of many matches.

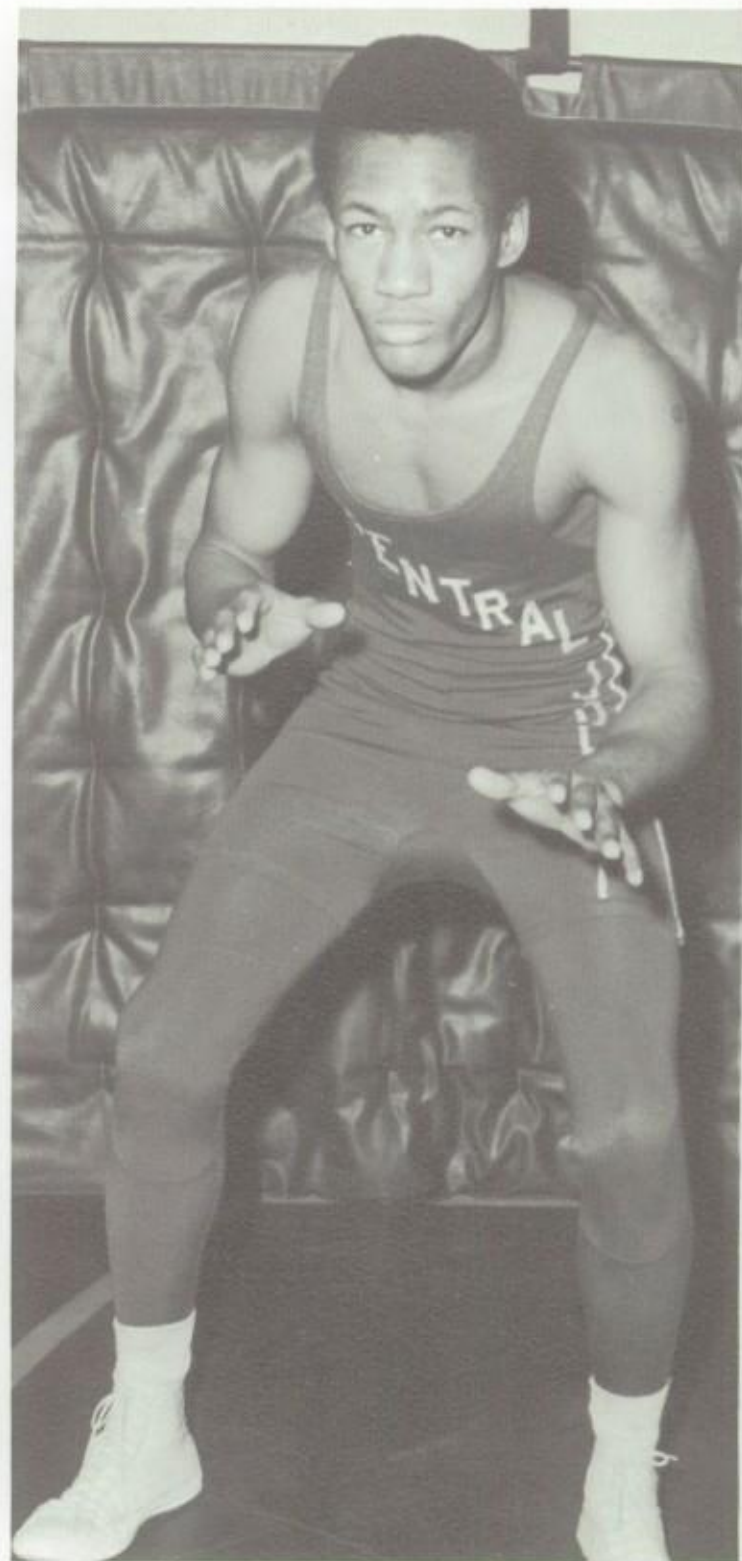

Central's coach, George Legan turned out one of the finest teams in the Joliet area. He has given much to make the wrestling squad at Central one of the best.

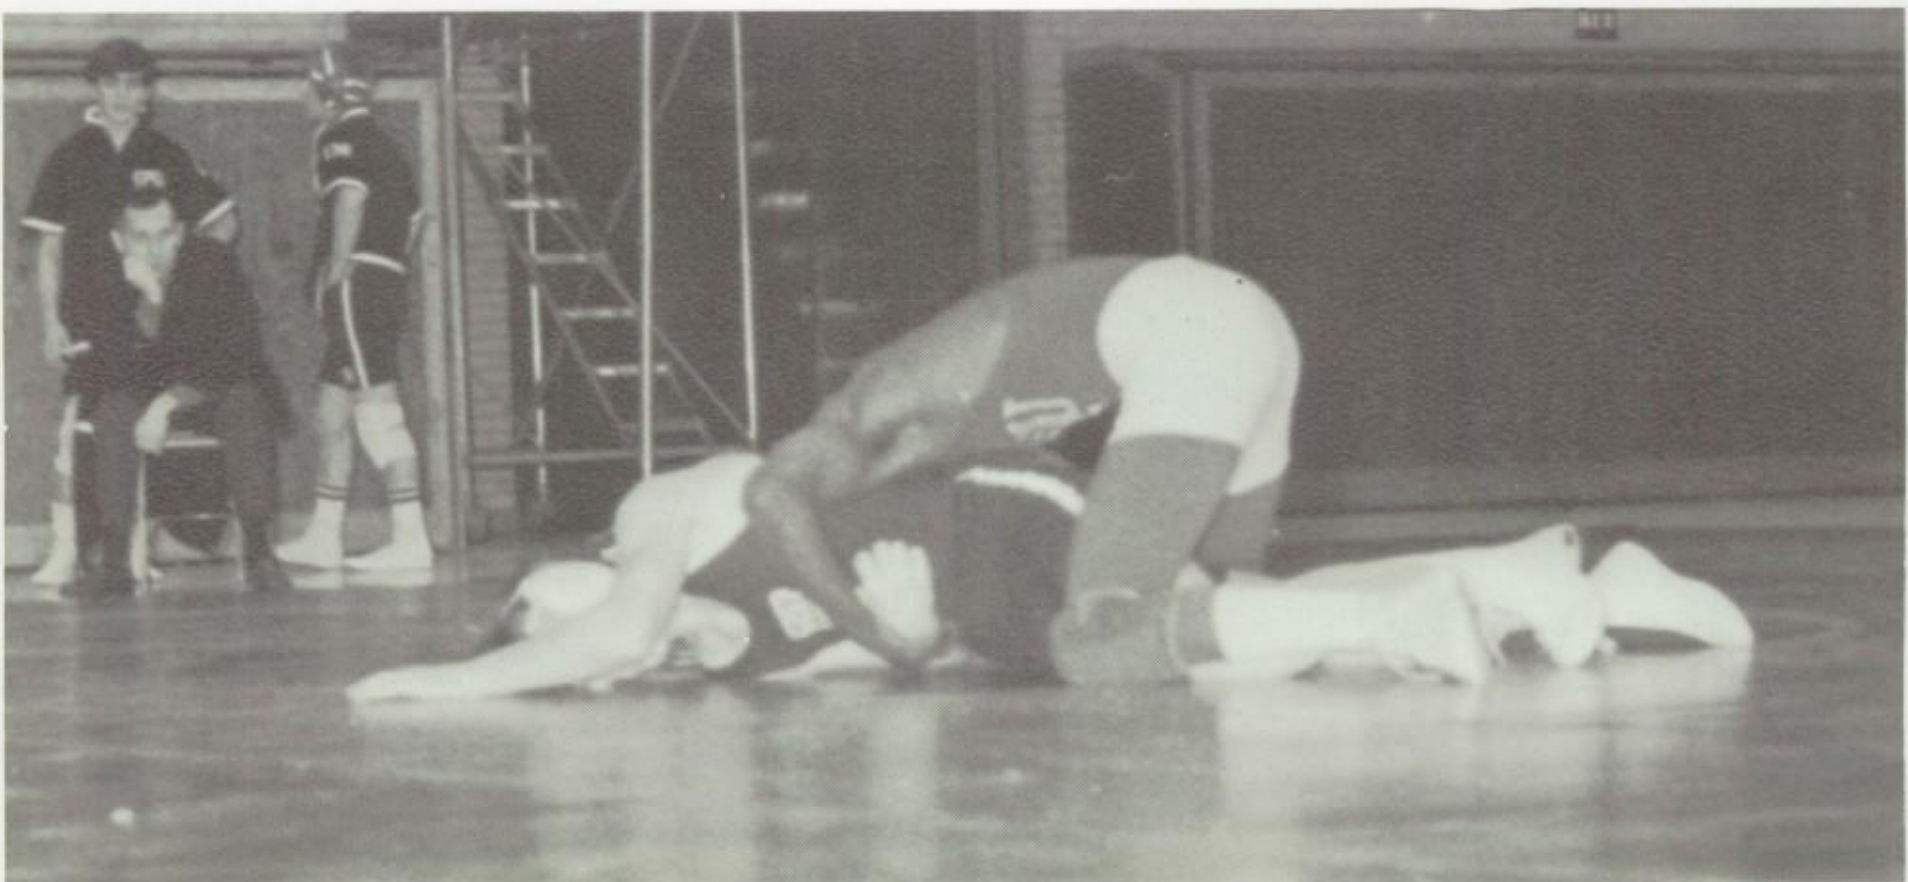

Teammates Jerry Raino and Ken Vich worked out with each other to prepare for competition with surrounding schools.

Mike Barden, a varsity wrestler awaits his match. Mike has been on the Central squad since his Freshman year. He has captured many titles.

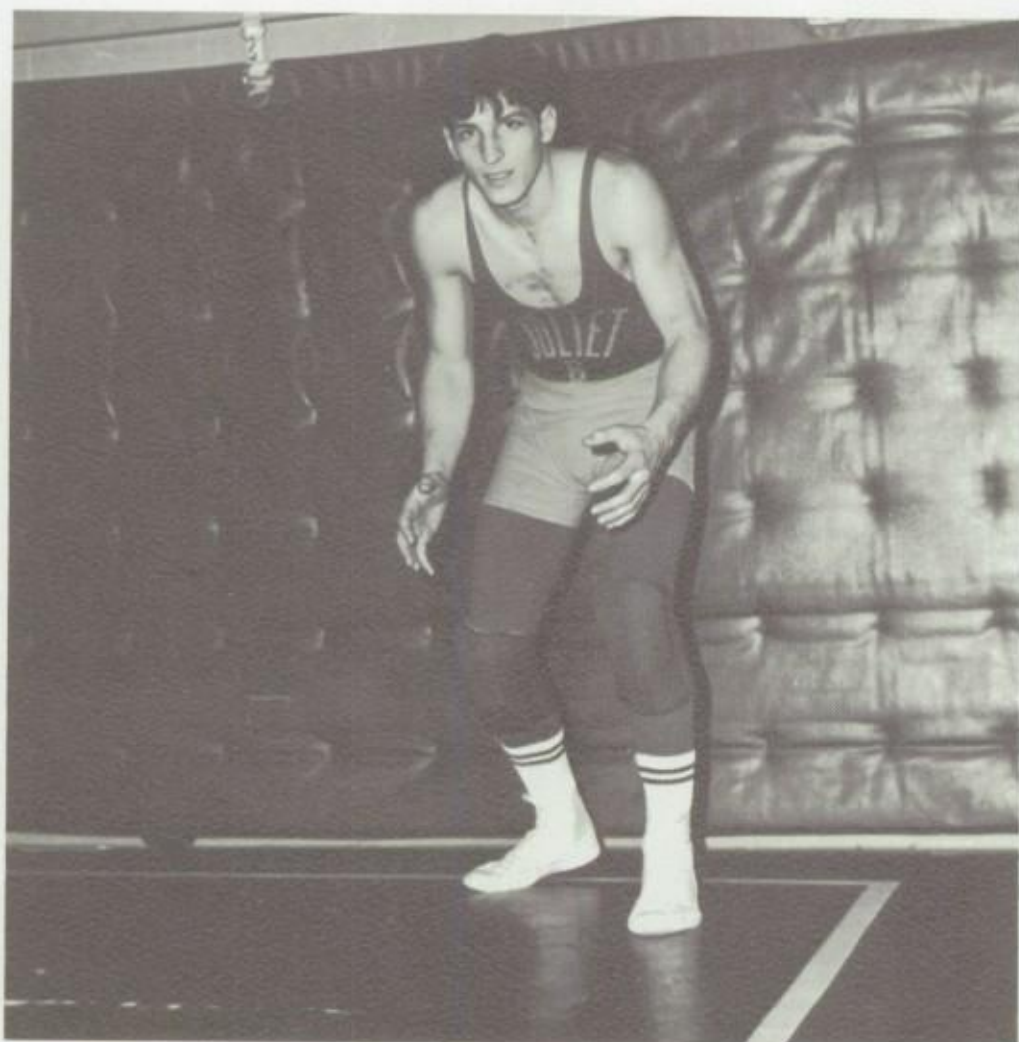

Senior Larry Beavers, one of Central's best wrestlers at 165.

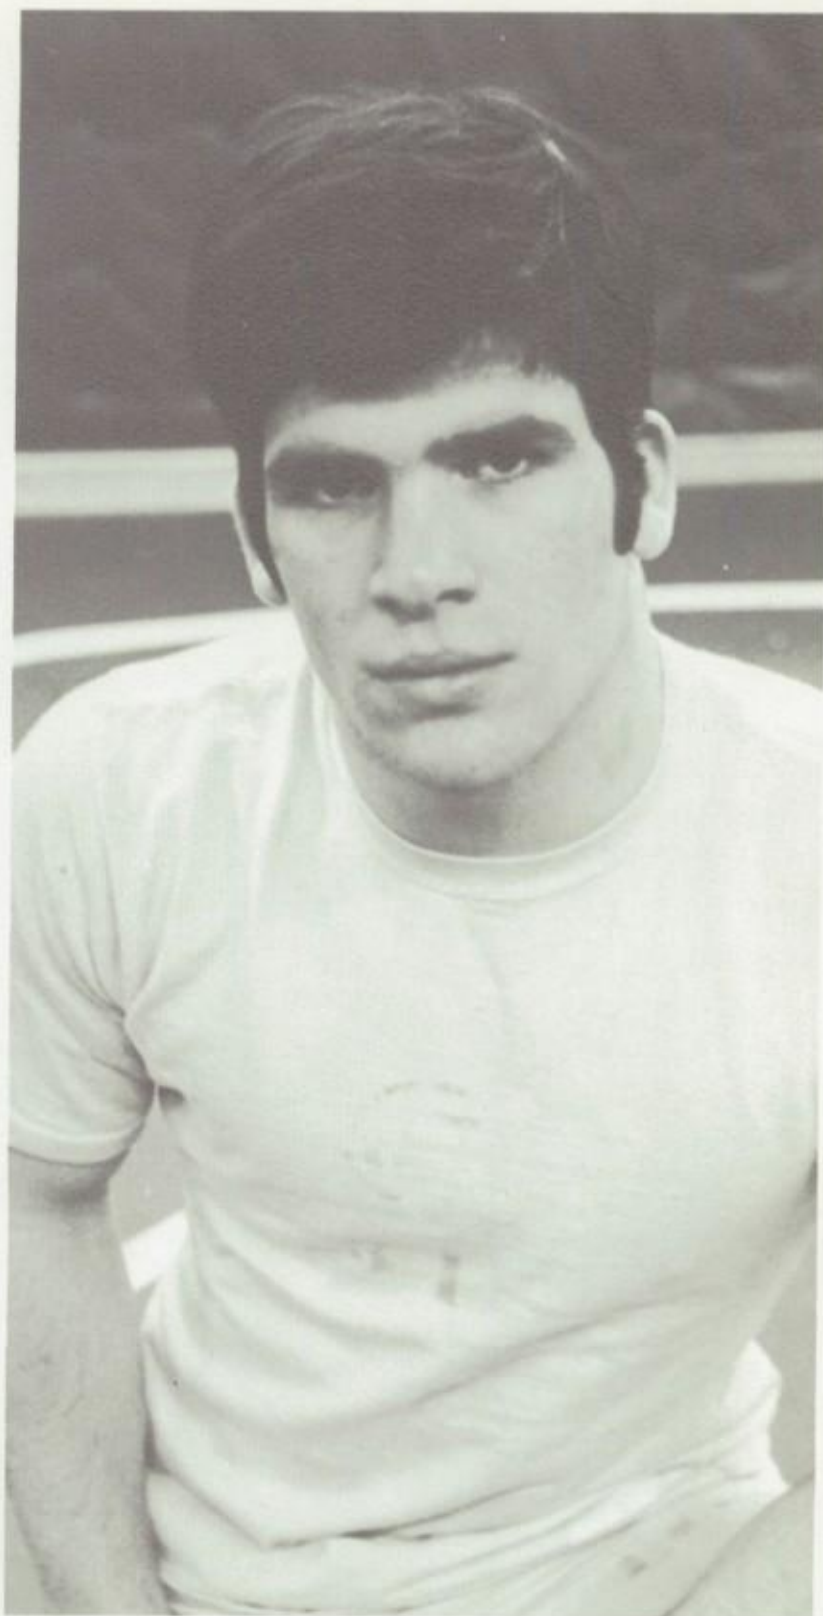

One of the many positions taken by players in a meet can be seen as two contestants compete.

Muscles, Strength, and Skill are What it Takes.

This is what most fans see, a Steelman Grappler on top winning.

Steelmen Harries Finish Season with Second in Conference

The Joliet Central Steelmen kept their fine performance in line by ending with a 6-3 record. In addition to placing 2nd in Conference, the Central athletes took 3rd in the District, 3rd in the Will County meet, and retained their title of City Champs amongst the 4 area high schools. In keeping up the team's morale as well as ability was a senior; Dennis Surges, captain of the squad. Ted Clark, a senior, who along with Surges tied for the no. 1 spot on the team, also contributed 1st place ribbons. Teammates Mike Colvin, Ken Chamberlin and Mike Magee were always on hand with extra points to make the meet a win. Returning lettermen Rick Pritchett, captain of the 70-71 squad, Ray Dracca, Roger Richmond, and a number of frosh, soph members will be pacing the trail next year for their hard driving Coach Mitchell who has much confidence and pride in his team.

Rich Pritchett gains yardage over a Lockport West Spartan. Rick, a junior, will again be taking the Number 1 spot on the team.

Ted Clark, the most improved Steelman on the team races on to the finish.

Mike Magee, who is also graduating this year, was a strong runner which helped us in gaining those extra points for a win.

Mike Colvin, although lagging a bit behind here, goes on to take first in this event.

Our No. 1 Steelman runner this year was Dennis Surges. Dennis was also captain of the team. He too, like others, will be leaving us with graduation.

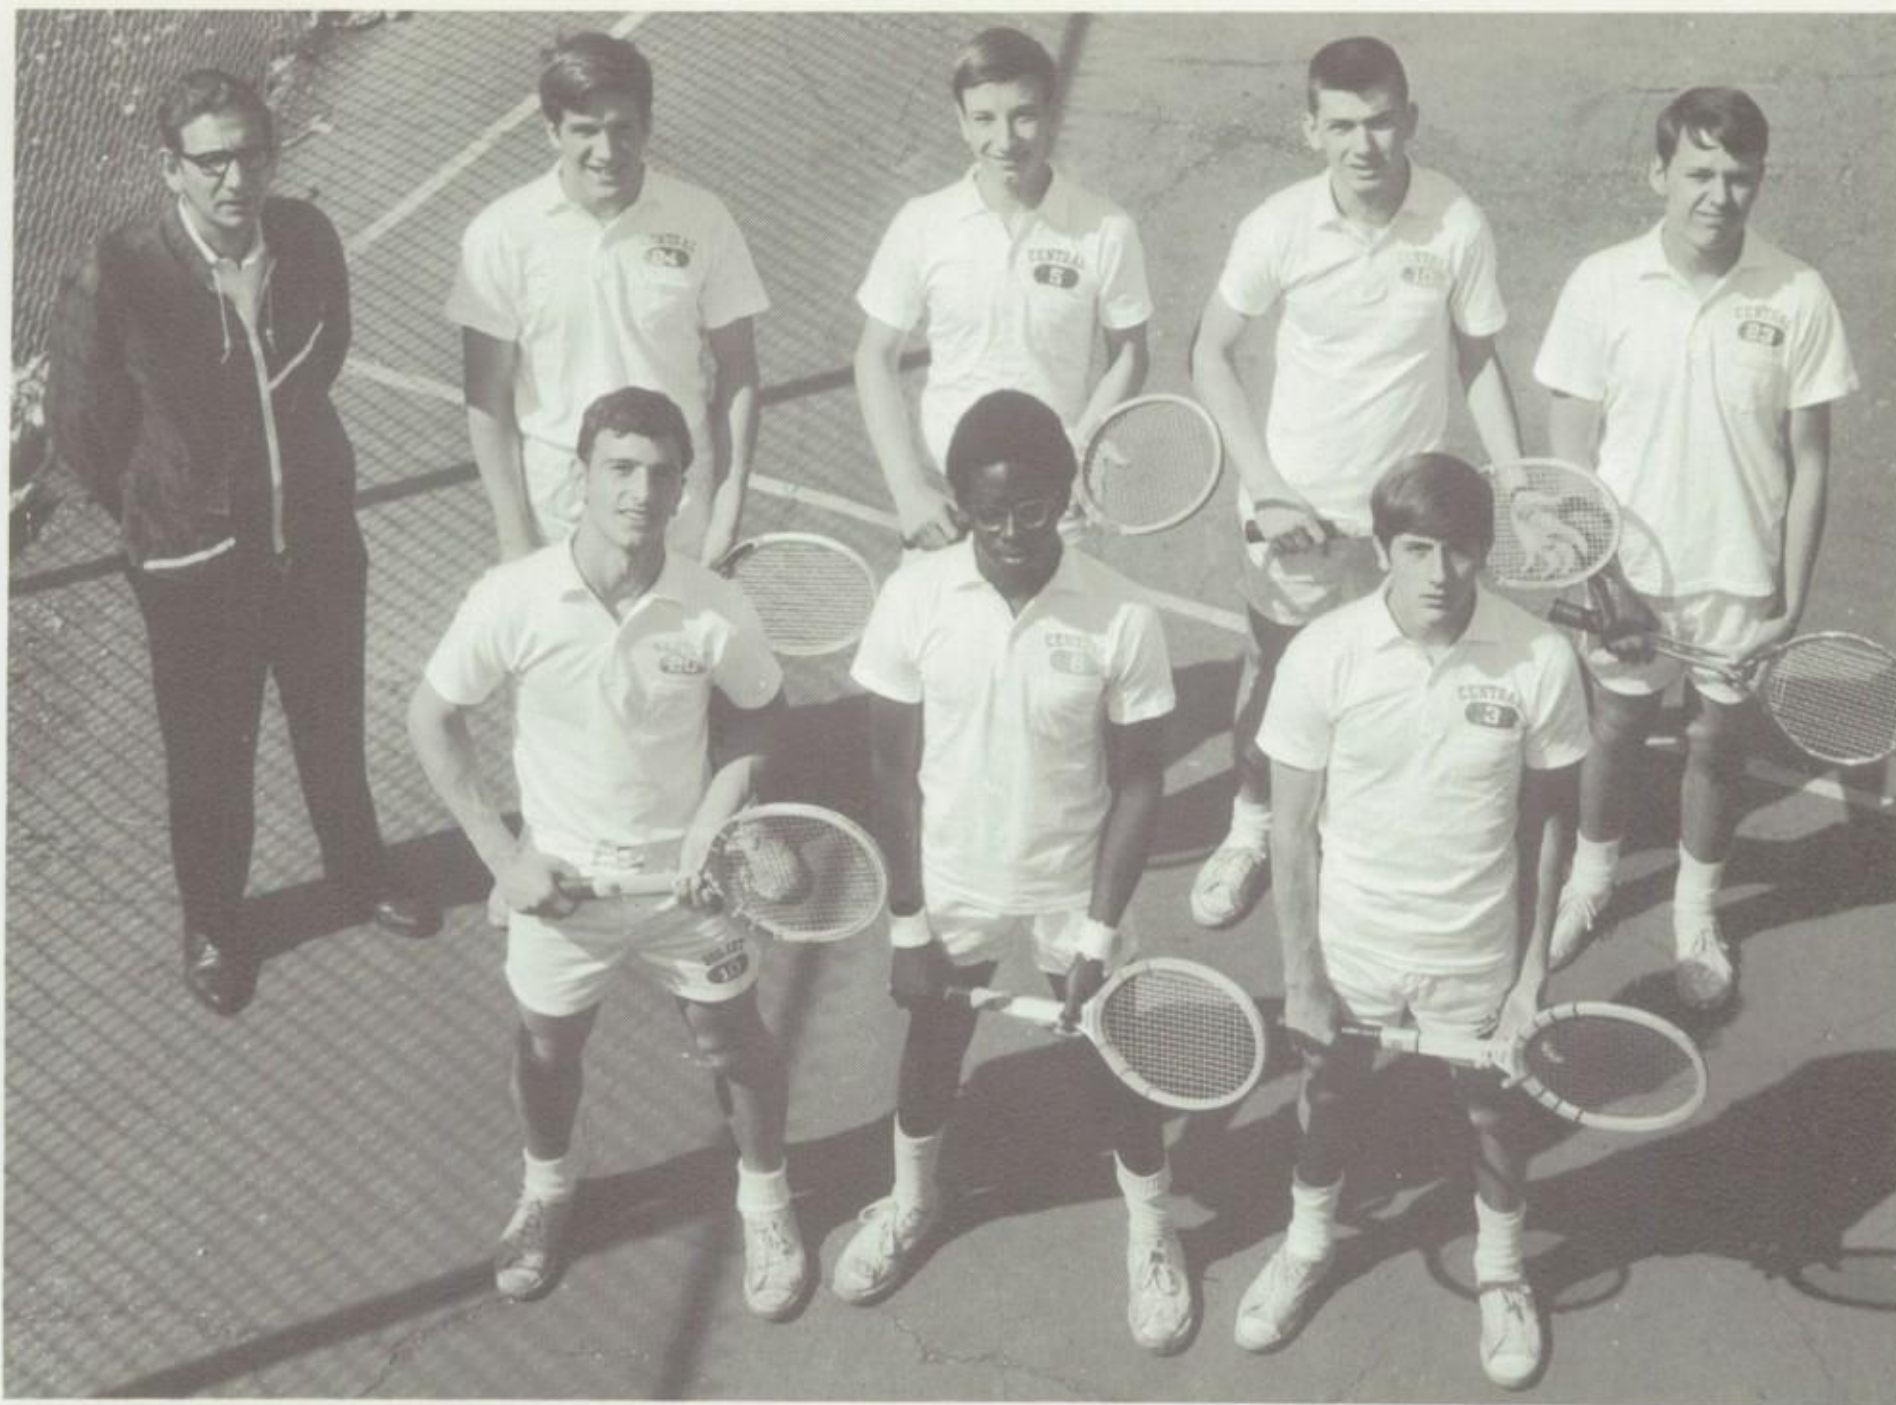

Sophomores Faced Season of Rigid Competition.

The Cross-Country of Central ran into a season where team spirit and effort were not enough to enable them to compile a record of all wins but one of an overall 6-3 and a 3-1 in conference where they placed fifth. The Steelmen attended two invitational during their 1969 season. One of the invitationals was held at Rich Central, which was also one of the most challenging meets of the season. Lockport Central was host for the second invitational attended by our cross-countrymen. Sophomores, Grant Goolsby, number one steelmite, and Ted Binzed will be added to next year's Varsity squad. The upcoming Freshmen will be Bob Colbert, John Kismenski, Bill Morris, and Art Guzman.

Hard work is reflected in the eyes of this cross country runner during a meet.

Freshman, Bob Colbert, overtakes his opponent as he strides on. This Steelman helps to make up our 1969 team.

Shown here in action are Chuck Delehanty and Bruce Liker, one of the strongest doubles team in the Illini-8 Conference.

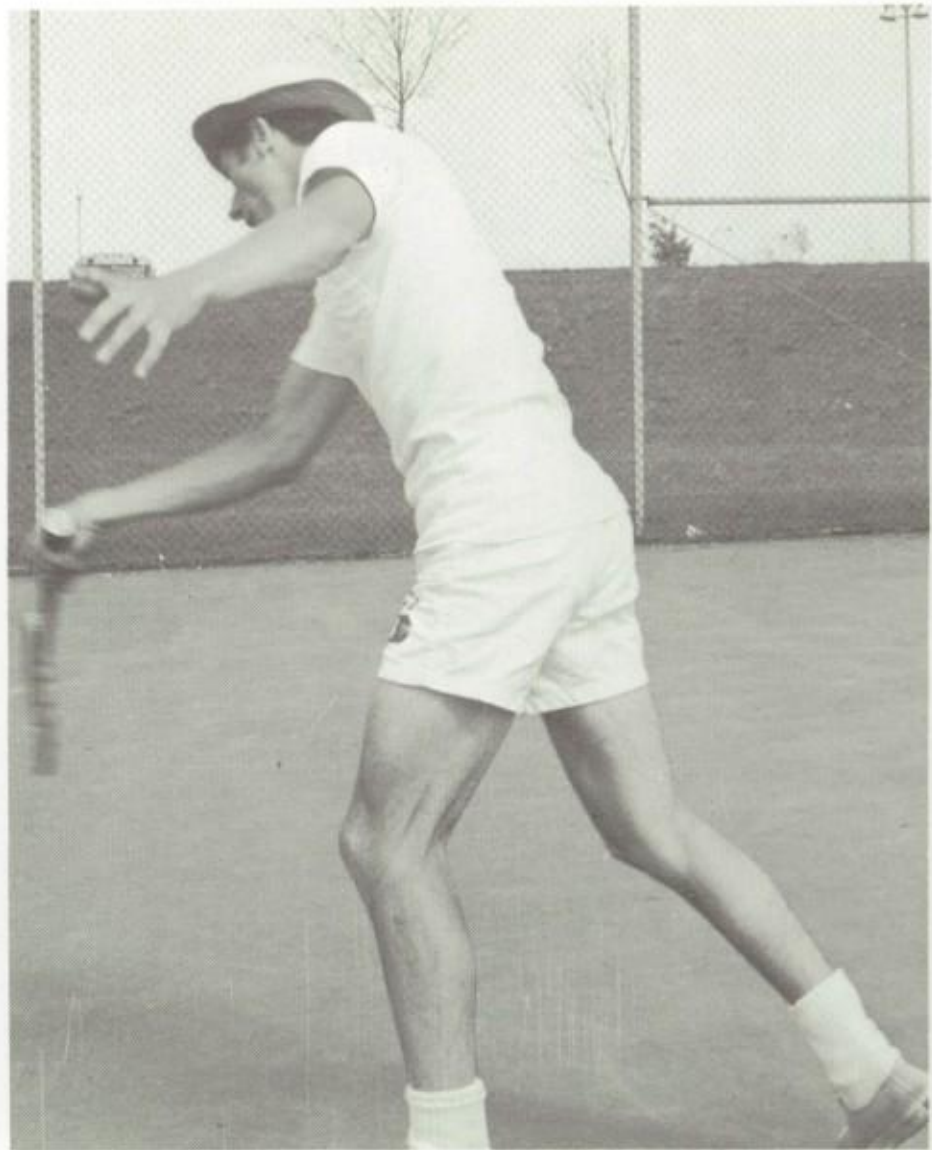

Racketmen Boast 11-5 Season; Take Second in Illini-8 Conference

It was a great year for the 68-69 varsity tennis team. Chuck Delehanty and Louis Ambrosich took first place in conference doubles. Central has only two returning varsity lettermen for next year's team. Even with a young team, coach should, and will shape his team into one of the finest groups of racketmen ever.

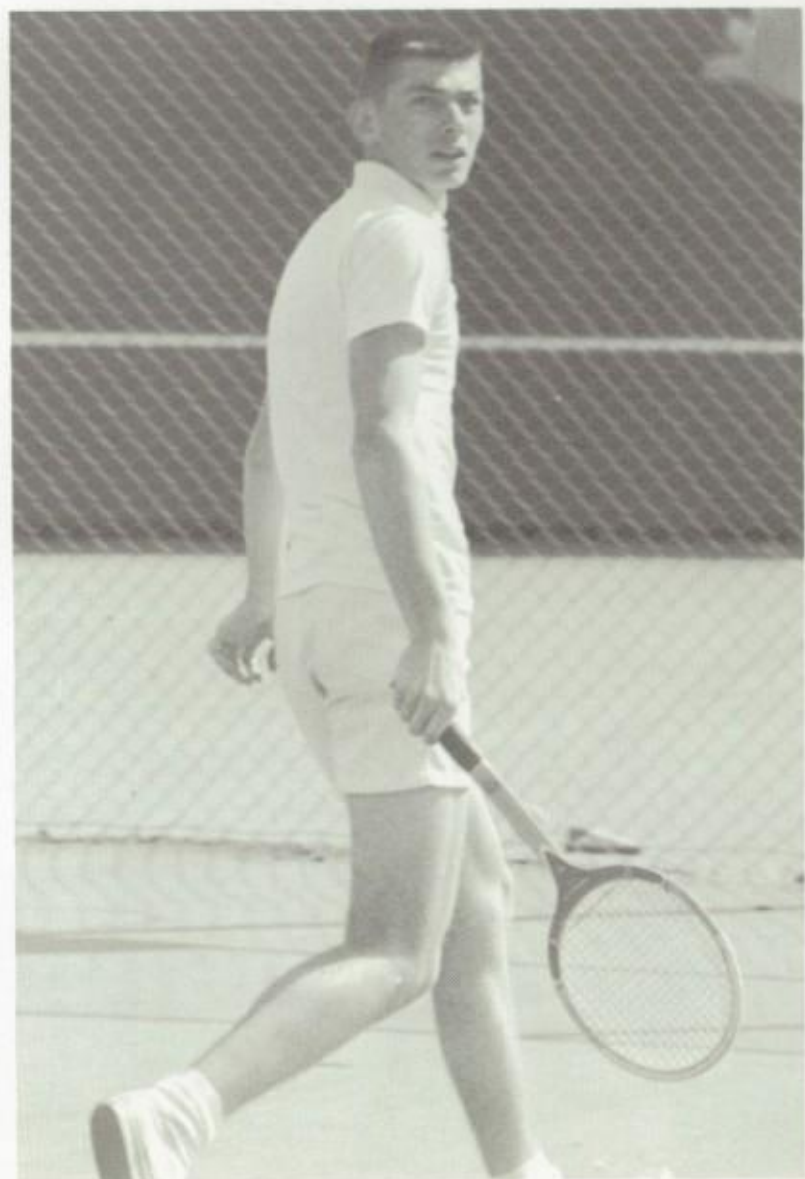

Ed Denovillis, a strong and upcoming upperclassman, prepares to fire back his opponent's serve.

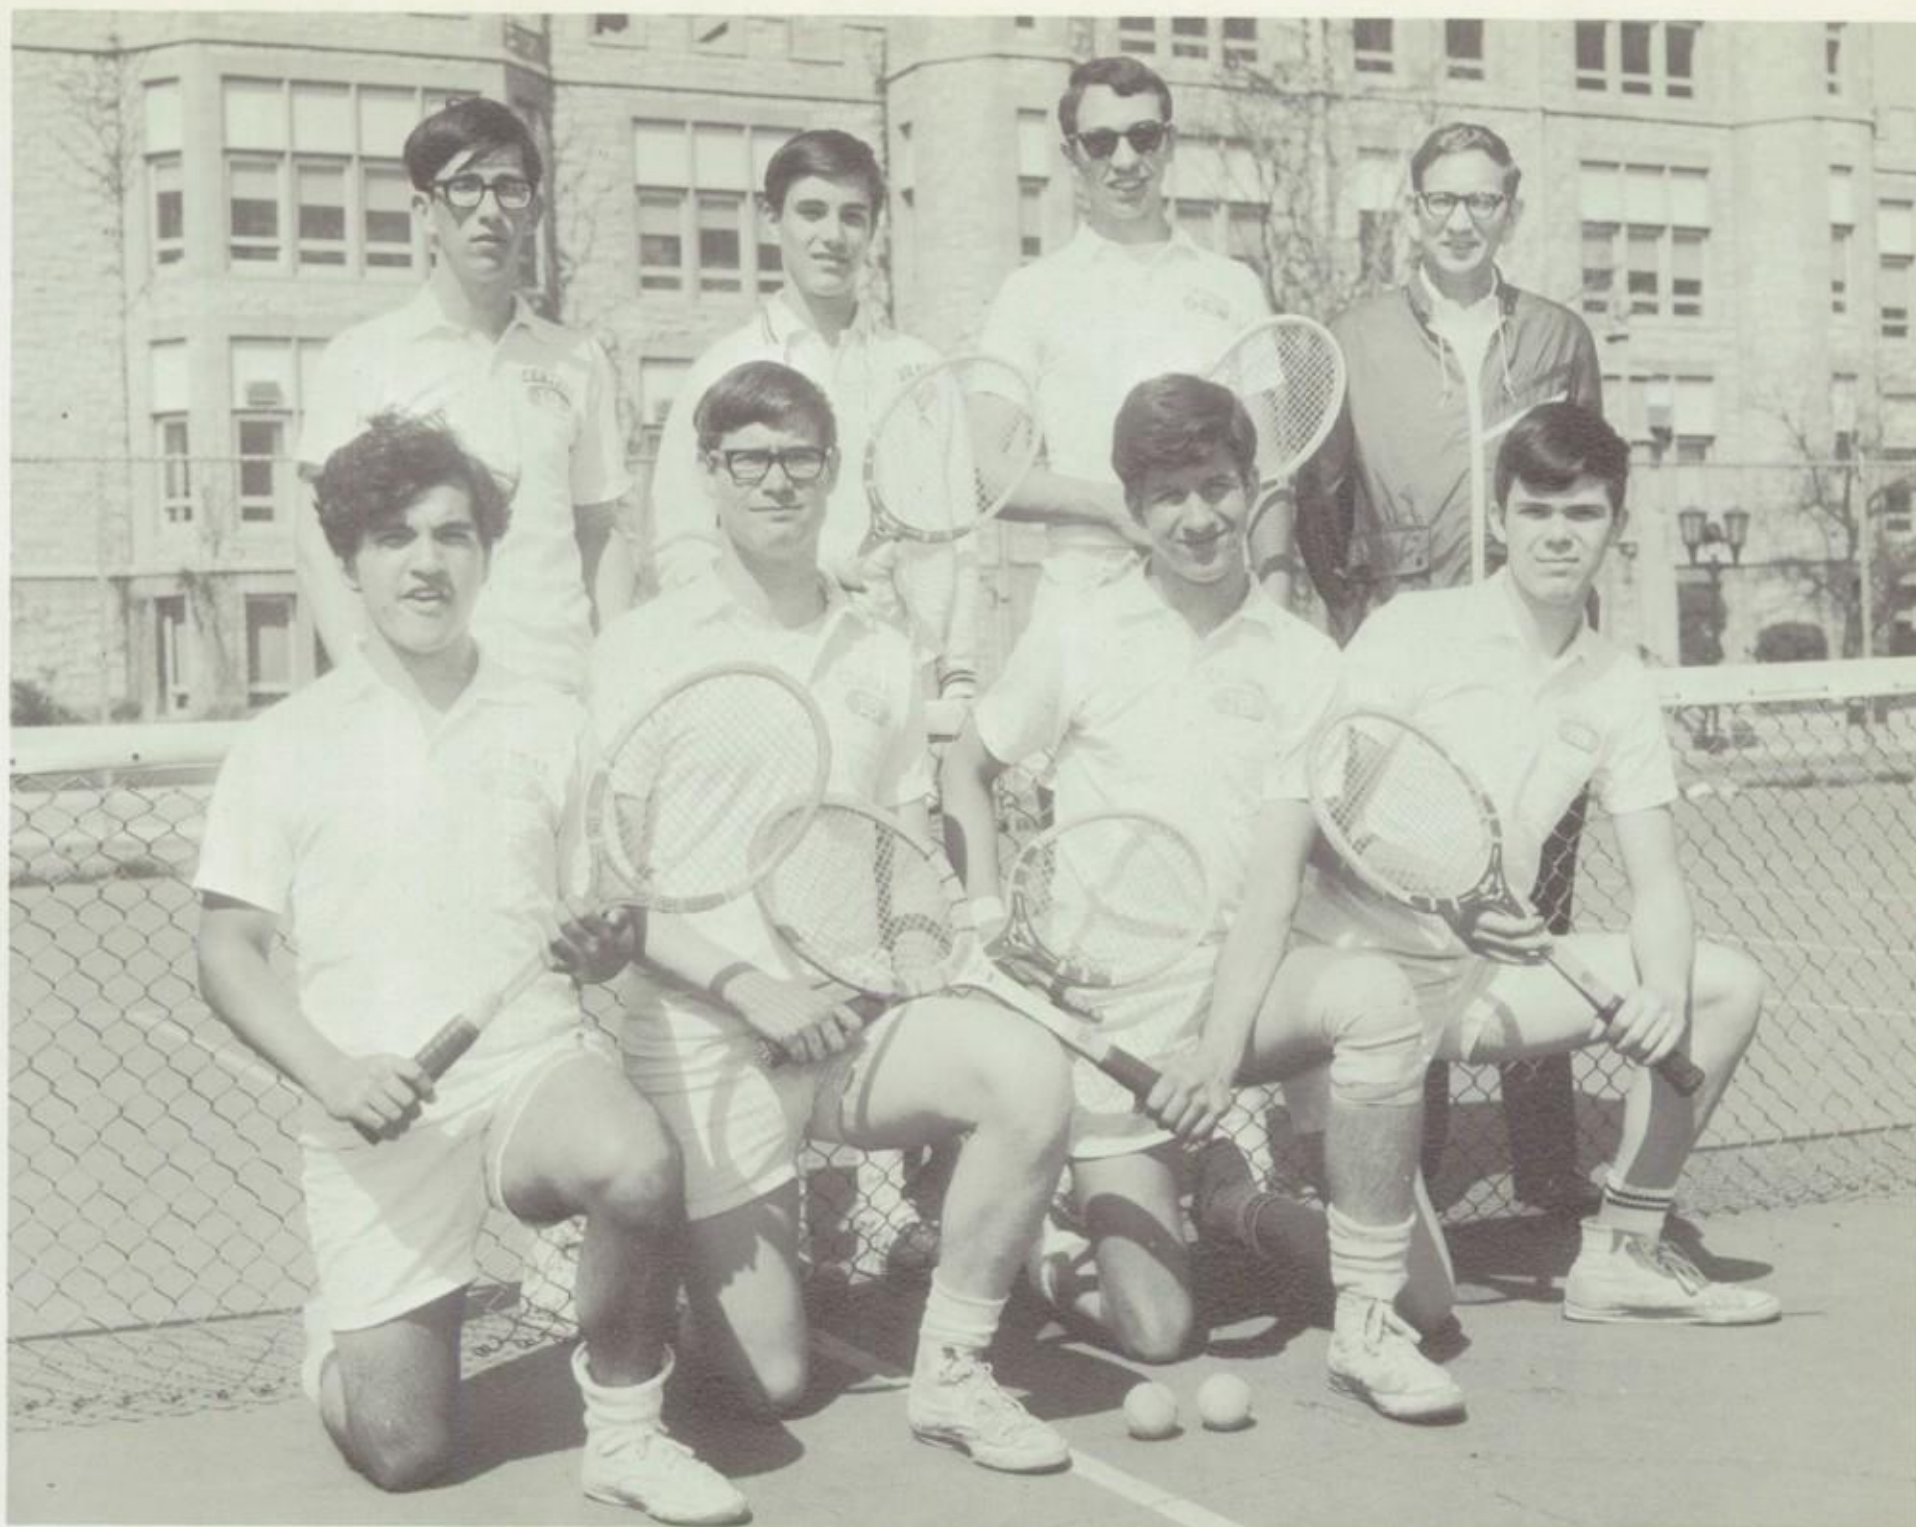

Here Louis Ambrosch shows the correct method of returning a low hit ball.

Bob Ayres, another strong upperclassman, shows his alertness and readiness to receive the ball.

Chuck Delehanty takes a moment to study his opponent's skill and capabilities for his next game.

Glen Johnson concentrates on getting the ball across the net, a task he most always accomplished.

Sophomores Have Season Record of 10-2; Take First in Conference

The sophomore 68-69 tennis team showed great skill and potential this year. This season they finished with a record of 10 wins and 2 losses. First place in the Illini-8 Conference also went to the sophomore team. One outstanding sophomore was Glen Johnson, who took first in the singles for the conference title. He and other fine sophomore's will place on next year's varsity squad, so we have high expectations for next year too.

Swim Team Achieved High Goals in 70

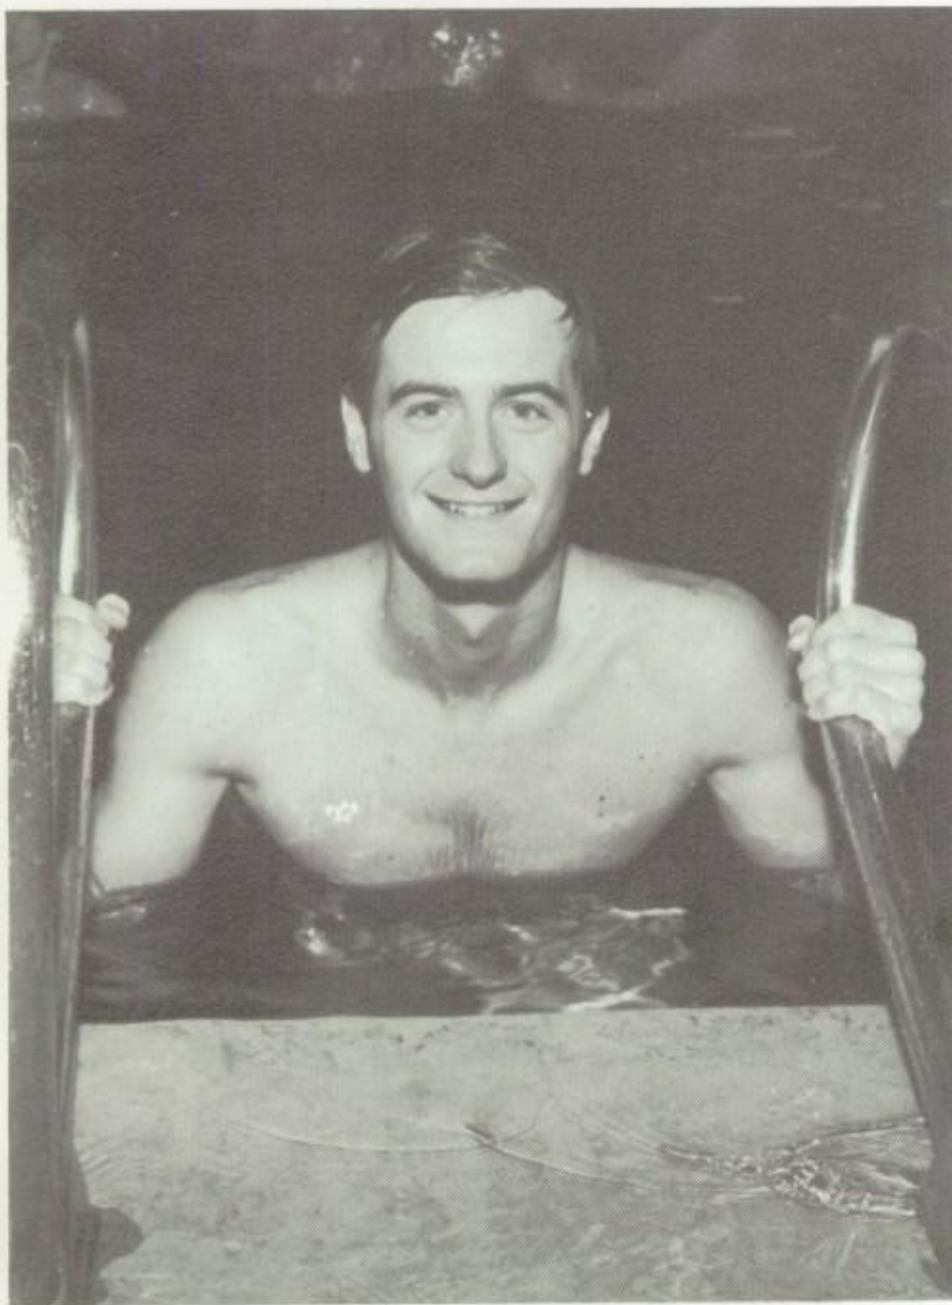

The swim team was composed of a group of loyal boys striving to do their best. They were headed by coach Don Kienlen. The swim team practiced daily before and after school.

One of the top men on the team was the captain Steve Weston. Steve received two firsts in district competition and went down state. Steve received All American recognition, and was a general asset to the team.

Another man that highlighted the Central team was Stan Jessen. He did well in district competition and went down state.

One of the boys was pictured here as he put that extra effort in to cut his time.

Steve Weston was seen here as he finishes up his work out.

Stan Jessen was pictured here demonstrating his naturally good form. Stan had a good year this year and all signs point to an even better year next year.

(Right) Mr. Kienlen the team's coach was pictured here giving the boys some helpful advice. (Below) The guys were seen during a lighter moment at practice.

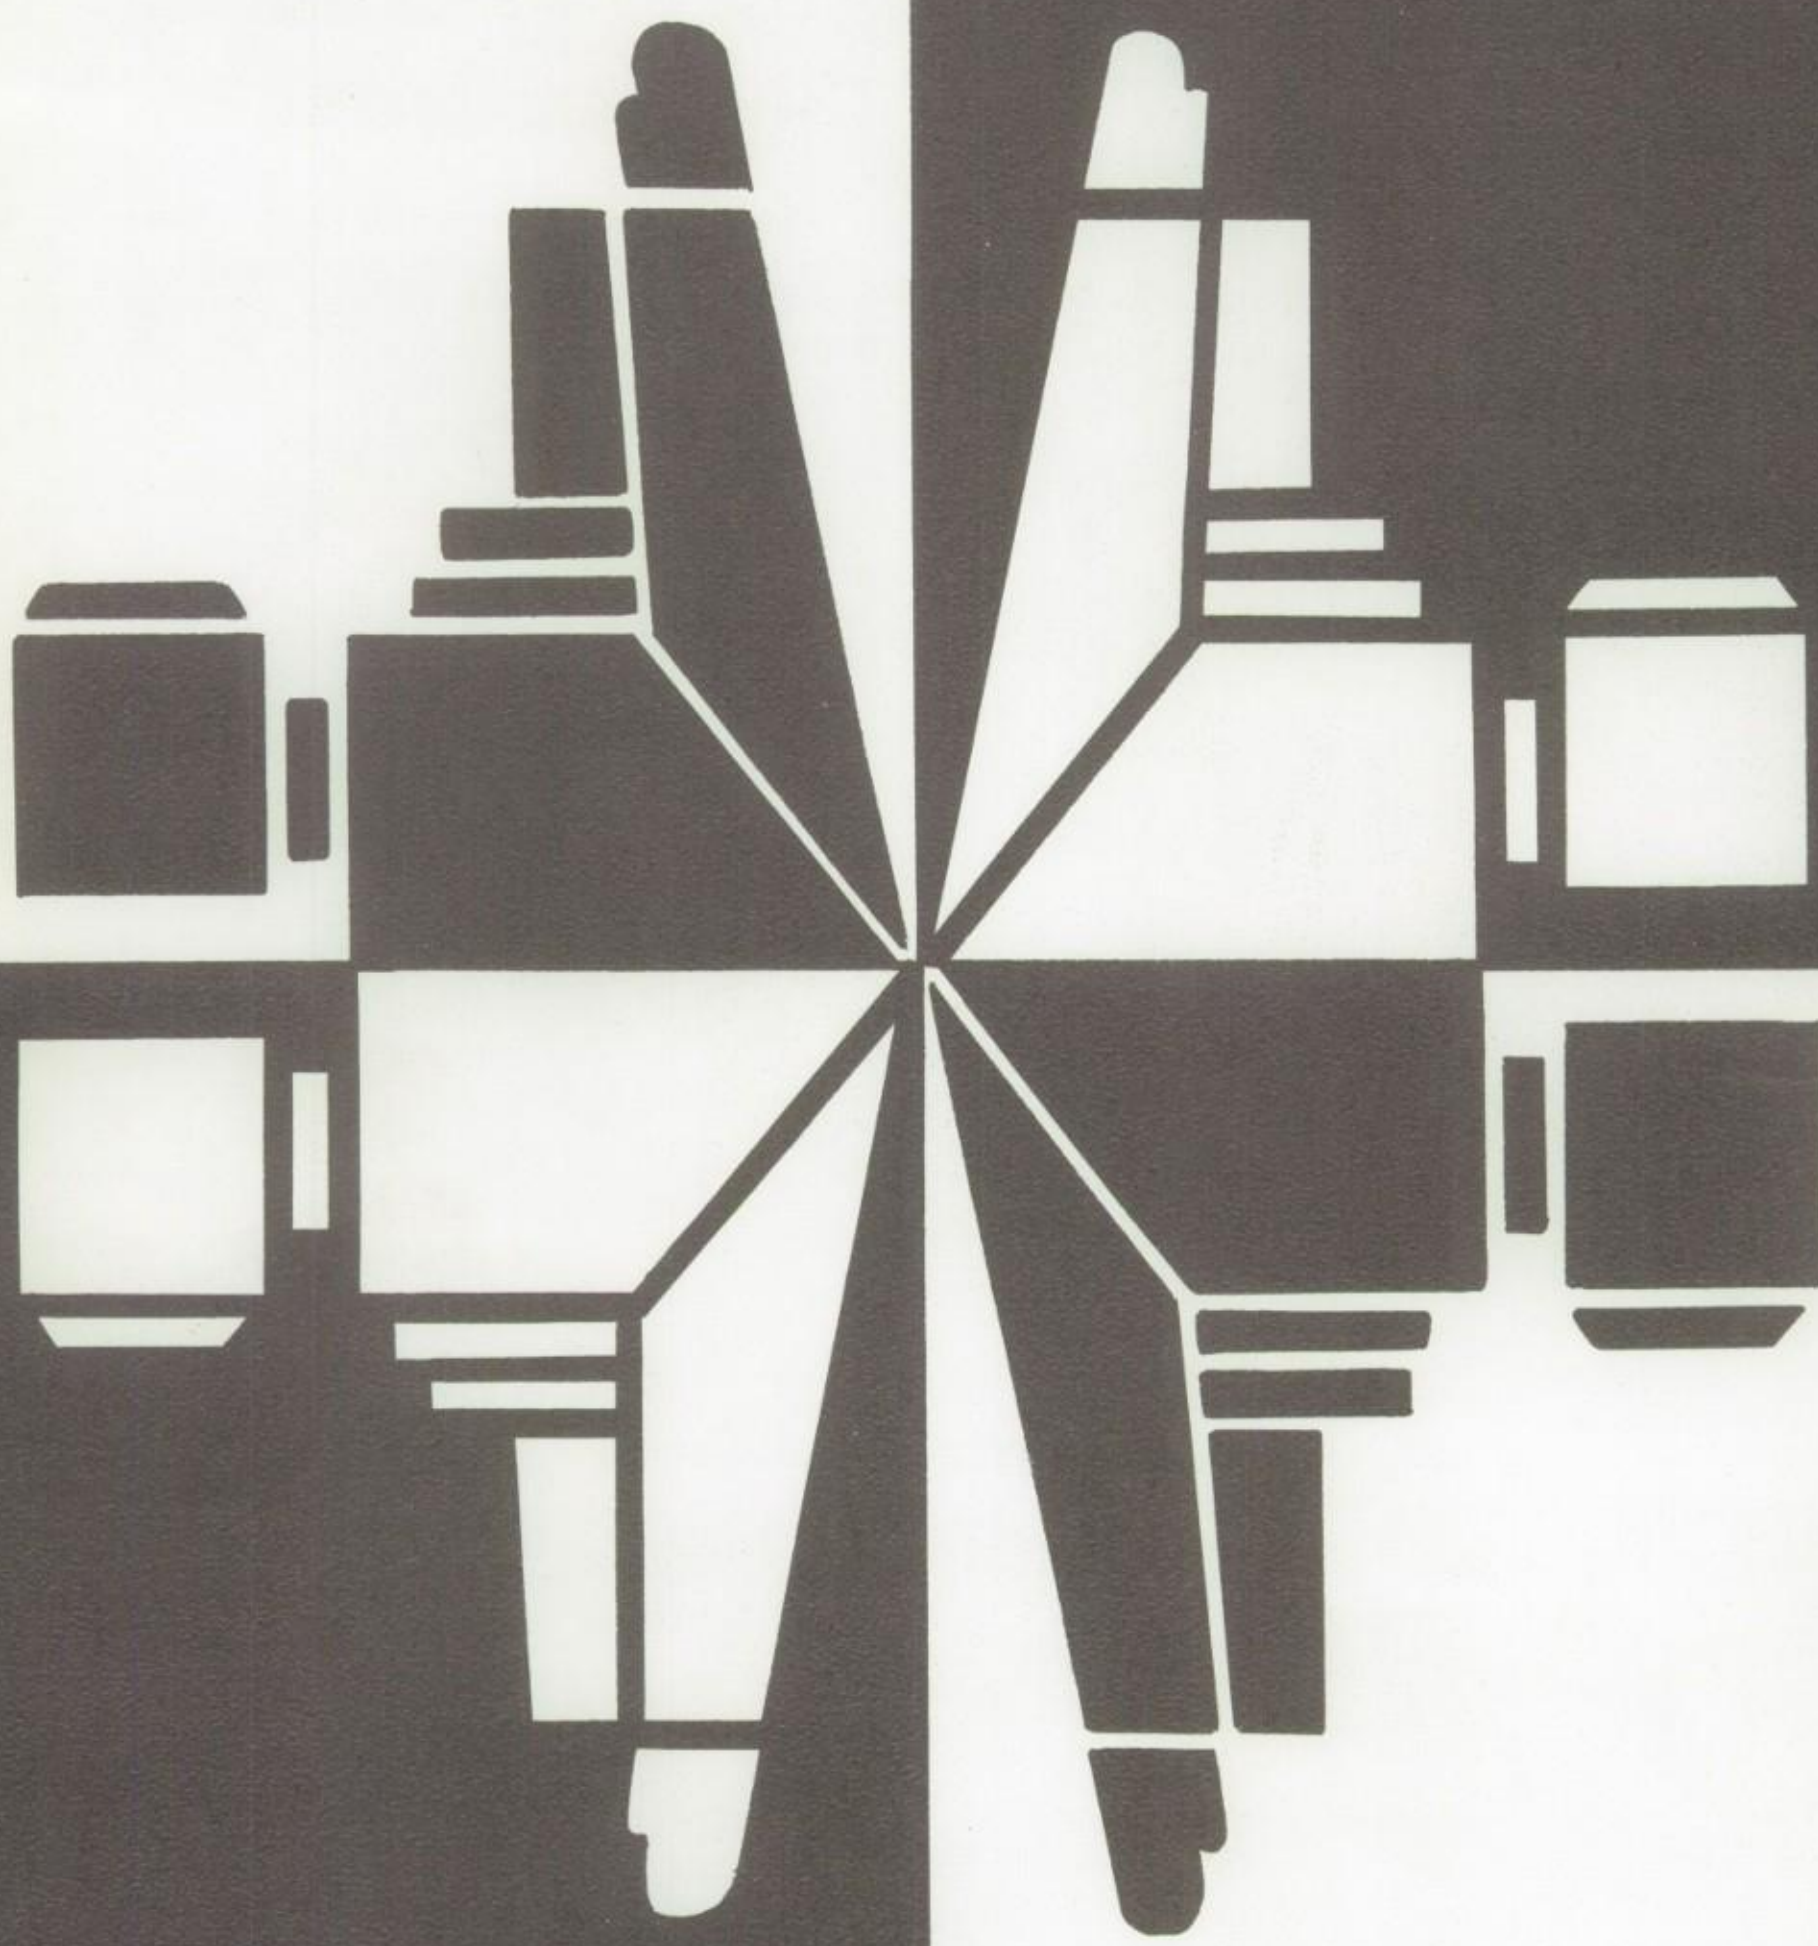

(Below) The boys are working perfecting their different strokes.

Underclass
What It's All About

The year 1970 was one to be remembered for all who were a part, for all who contributed to the making of the complete Joliet Central.

Homecoming 1969-70, the first major event of the year, honored Central's football players and recognized homecoming queen and king Miss Peggy Perrine and Mr. Charles Holman. Passing through fall and into the snowy months of December, Central saw the A Cappella Choir perform at the annual Christmas Vespers program. The winter months also gave Central a new organization, the Outdoors Club. Their goal was to provide a form of relaxation for the students of Central.

The tension of mid-term exams was somewhat eased by the short but needed break in between the semesters, which provide the students with a few days of needed rest before coming back to a new semester.

February 20 brought the coronation of Miss "J" to Joliet Central. Ten senior girls were honored as semi-finalists and introduced in formal attire to the student body, Miss Joyce Azuma was announced as Miss "J" of 1970.

The victory of the year occurred on Friday, February 13, when the Steelmen Varsity basketball team beat the Lockport Porters to win the I-8 conference. State honors were won for the proud Steelmen as two swimmers and wrestlers were chosen to compete at state level. Shortly before Easter vacation, the senior all-school carnival became a reality. The carnival put the Steelmen in a circus-like atmosphere and provided additional funds for all participating organizations. Joliet Central's Music Department presented the long awaited operetta, Pajama Game. All cast and crew members combined their efforts into over two months of hard work to make the performances of May 7, 8, and 9, outstanding successes. The Junior-Senior Prom, one of the major gala events of the school year, was held in May of 1970. Formal attire set the mood for a memorable occasion that was both beautiful and nostalgic.

The Class of 1970 said its final farewell to Joliet Central as commencement exercises and Ivy Day ceremonies brought four years of good and bad times to an abrupt conclusion on June 10, 1970.

It was these events and the students participating in them that made the entire year at Central. For the conflicts and the successes were the things that made the year one that could never be forgotten.

Acknowledgements

The J of '70 staff would like to thank everyone who contributed his share in making this book possible. Not only the hard work of most staff members but also the encouragement of the entire student body and faculty in making sales reach new heights are truly appreciated. As was proved over and over "every little bit helps." Without the cooperation, perseverance, time, effort, and inspiration of staff members and non-staff alike, this book could not have been completed.

Our special thanks to these people: Walsworth Publishing Co., of Marcelline, Missouri, Wallengers Photography Studio of Chicago, The Camera House of Joliet, Joliet Central Administrative staff, Mr. Robert Moorhead and Mrs. Bev Crouch, Mr. Charles Leech, Miss Kathy Shaw, Mrs. Petina Tarr, Mr. Ray Strappazon and the Joliet Herald News for supplying us with pictures. Many thanks to the Joliet Central Custodial staff for their patience in taking care of the year-book office.

The editor would especially like to thank our staff: Joyce Azuma, Mary Edwards, Cindy Waddell, Mary Goodwin, Lionel Guzman, Rich Gergorals, Mary "Greek" Ninos, Bob Keir, Mark Hanson, Natalie Williams, Laura Campos, Pat Mozina, Mary Ann Grabavoy, June Coreditti, Linda Cleghorn, June Holmstrom, Betty Brixy, Kim Bell, Maureen McNiff, Ramona Branchaw, Sue Magee, Darlene Pieper, Michele Boyer, Mike Colvin, Debbie Hennessee, Janet Kittle, Chip Lake, Judy Neighbors, Geri Kucer, Cindy Anderson, Leanne Lesnick, Kathy Redmond, Connie House, Nancy Senger.

Penny,

Well, the year is almost over and you know how much I'm glad about that. I really think this was my worst year except for a few things here and there. I'm so glad we met and became such good friends. We have had so many good times this year. I can't wait till our Jr. year! It's really gonna be "super groovy" (how queer!) Ohio summer has got to be great. I'm sure I'll get my license and we can get around and go places. I hope the dried goose is good this year. Don't forget all the things we've done. My 16th party, Merichka's, your party, and anema! And of course all the talks we had about T.P. and B.H. and G.T. I hope we remain friends forever. It's really been fun. Good luck with everything you do. Stay good. See you this summer.

Love

Debbie

I can't wait much longer. But they will happen. There are two years left of school and I can't stand it any longer. Then... there's summer! I'm working for the best and the best is gonna happen. I know if it takes ten years you and Gary are going to work out. It has to work. No two people were ever meant for each other more than you and Gary Doll (except me & Bobby). I'm just sure it will work. In August when Bobby leaves for Tokyo I'm going to need a great friend like you. I won't be able to stand not seeing her for more than a month but with a close friend like you I'm sure I can make it. You have to keep me out of trouble for Bobby Doll and I'll have to keep you out of trouble for Gary Doll. Next year you & Gary and me and Bobby are gonna have the time of our life when we double at the prom. But it's gonna be even more fun when we have our double-doll wedding!

Our sophomore year was a good year but our junior year is going to be even better. Now that I know Bobby and you know Gary, and you and I are such good friends we will be able to help having fun this summer and next year whatever happens with Bobby and Gary we don't know. But all that I've said so far, I have a very strong feeling will come true. Maybe not everything but I know you and Gary will make it and me and Bobby will too. When we're all married we can read what I've said so far in your yearbook and we (you, Gary, me & Bobby) can read what you've said in my yearbook. I hope that everything has come true and everyone is happy.

Love
Robbie
